On The Way

The Mass in Slowest Motion: the Creed

The Creed is another element in the Mass that might strike people as a pause in the action. We have had songs, readings, psalms, the Gospel, and then an instruction (homily). Now we stand and recite what might seem like the official Catholic policy statement (or, at least, that is how modern ears might hear it). It hardly seems prayerful. So, how do we make sense of it?

First, we're doing it wrong. And we have been for centuries. The Creed is meant to be sung, not recited. In a High Mass in the Extraordinary Form, it is always sung. By way of concession (and a broad one at that), the Creed is now recited in most places (but could be sung). And the singing of the Creed reveals it for what it is: a prayer.

Of course, we don't typically think of it as a prayer. After all, the Creed is a list of theological statements, some of which have been and continue to be an occasion for intense debate and division. But theology and prayer are supposed to go together, and here we find them wonderfully united. We should gladly sing about the truths of our faith!

What else is the statement I believe but a prayer? Specifically, a prayer of faith and entrustment. When we say those words – all of us as a group and each of us individually – we entrust ourselves to certain truths. The word Creed comes from credo, which means I believe. Credo gives us the word credit. To credit something to someone means to entrust it to that person. Just so, when we say credo; I believe, we entrust ourselves to the truths we proclaim. We accept them in such a way that we fashion our lives around them. Should they be false, we would have to rethink everything.

But more importantly, when we say credo; I believe we entrust ourselves to the triune God Himself. Thus, we say, I believe in one God, the Father almighty... I believe in Jesus Christ... I believe in the Holy Spirit. In other words, by way of these teachings, I entrust and give myself to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. My life is shaped by these Persons and the truths they have revealed.

We should also appreciate the location of the Creed. It comes after the readings and homily, because it is a response to the truths revealed by them. We do not simply listen to the readings and acknowledge them as interesting. They call for a response. So, we stand and make an act of faith in what we have heard. By doing that we interiorize the Word of God, not letting it come to us in vain.

The Creed also comes before the Eucharist. It has always been true in the liturgy that the profession of faith precedes the reception of Holy Communion. As early as the mid-second century, Saint Justine Martyr gave witness to the ancient discipline: no one is allowed to partake [of the Eucharist] but the man who believes that the things which we teach are true. This clarifies and emphasizes the unity of doctrine and liturgy, of faith and prayer.

How fitting that consideration of this part of the Mass should fall on Easter. His resurrection is the truth of our faith that confirms all others. For this reason, on Easter we renew our baptismal promises by again professing our faith.

Easter 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Although the celebration of Easter this year will be like no other due to the pandemic, the truths of this sacred day remain constant and unchanged. By His Cross and Resurrection, Jesus conquered the power of sin, darkness, suffering and death. We celebrate His victory on Easter as we proclaim together that Jesus has been raised from the dead and He is alive and with us!

In the midst of these unsettling times for all of us, I encourage you to share the Good News of Easter with others, as well as your love for God and your trust in Him. Show them that you find true happiness in following His ways and commands. Continue to share your time and resources with others, especially the weak, the vulnerable and those in most need. In all these ways, you help to reflect the presence of Christ to them.

With faith and in joyful hope, entrust your families, our nation and our world to Our Lord Jesus and His saving power. May He bless you and your families and fill you with His peace at Easter and always.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge

Pascua de 2020

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Si bien la celebración de Pascua de este año no tendrá precedentes debido a la pandemia, las verdades de este día sagrado continúan inalterables. Por medio de su Cruz y Resurrección, Jesús venció el poder del pecado, las tinieblas, el sufrimiento y la muerte. En Pascua, celebramos su victoria cuando proclamamos juntos que ¡Jesús resucitó de entre los muertos y habita entre nosotros!

En medio de este período desestabilizante para todos nosotros, los invito a compartir la Buena Nueva de la Pascua, así como su amor por Dios y su confianza en Él. Demuestren a los demás que la verdadera felicidad reside en seguir las enseñanzas y órdenes del Señor. Sigán compartiendo su tiempo y recursos con el prójimo, en especial los débiles, los vulnerables y los más necesitados. De todas estas maneras, ayudan a proyectar la presencia de Cristo en ellos.

Con fe y esperanza jubilosa, encomienden la familia, nuestra nación y el mundo a Nuestro Señor Jesucristo y su poder redentor. Que el Señor bendiga a ustedes y a las familias y los colme con su paz en Pascua y siempre.

Atentamente en Cristo,

Michael F. Burbidge

Easter Sunday

Dear Friends in Christ,

Christ is risen!

Now, I had imagined my first Easter at Saint James a little differently. I had envisioned announcing the Resurrection to a church full of people...not via live stream. Indeed, our current circumstances make it hard to remember that it is Easter. For over a month our lives have been dominated by the pandemic. How do we rejoice in the risen One when suffering and death seem victorious? It seems an intractable problem. In point of fact, however, the paradox only highlights the significance of Easter.

Consider the situation of our Lord's disciples on Easter Sunday. In many respects, their situation had not changed. They were still a small group, under suspicion of the authorities in Jerusalem, and whose leader had been put to an ignominious death. They still had to make sense of how to live the life Christ taught in the midst of a hostile community. In that sense, Christ's resurrection changed nothing.

But in the deepest and most important sense, Jesus Christ's resurrection changed everything. His teachings no longer seem foolish, His death no longer appears as a defeat. Indeed, His resurrection reveals that His death on the Cross was the triumph – which is why our risen Lord still bears the wounds of Good Friday. Christ risen from the dead reveals the power of entrusting ourselves to the Father. On Good Friday He called out, Father, into your hands I commend my spirit (Lk 23:46). On Easter Sunday we see the glorious answer to that prayer.

So also, for us. In one sense, as we look around, the risen Christ seems to have changed nothing. The world is still fallen, and death still prowls. We still cry out to our heavenly Father for an end to the pandemic that has taken so many lives and so separated us from the Eucharist and from one another. In the deepest sense, however, He has changed everything: death is not the final word...our trust in the Father is not in vain...Jesus Christ now stalks death. Jesus Christ risen from the dead shows the victory and confirms for us that our prayers and our expectation of deliverance are not in vain.

Be assured of the prayers of all the priests at Saint James Parish. May the peace and glory of the risen Christ be yours in abundance. May He bring the light of His risen life into your homes and families.

Sincerely in Christ,

Very Reverend Paul D. Scalia
Pastor

Dear Friends,

Today we celebrate the magnificent Feast of Easter! We have all traveled a most unusual journey this Lenten season. Deprivation comes in many forms and one that our Saint James Parish probably feels keenly is the lack of community and that special community focused on the praise of our Loving Father and attendance at Mass and the reception of the Holy Eucharist. Yet, with deep gratitude we bow in adoration this day before our Risen Lord, who promises to be always with us, a promise that we believe He (and we!) cling to each day.

We wish you all a most blessed Easter Season. May these next fifty days of new life in Christ bring peace and joy in your daily lives. Be assured of the prayers of the Sisters each day. May God bless you in abundance!

St. James Wedding Coordinators

All love comes from God; and as such, the Sacrament of Marriage is, first and foremost, a sign and symbol of this love. The mission of the St. James Wedding Coordinators is to support couples as they embark on one of life's most wonderful experiences. The Wedding Coordinator Chair contacts the bride and groom to discuss their ceremony plans and confirm logistics for their special day. Two Wedding Coordinators are then assigned to the couple. They will attend the wedding rehearsal and be present one hour before and throughout the entire wedding. Wedding Coordinators are prepared to assist with everything concerning the wedding ceremony at the church, except for questions concerning the liturgy. Wedding Coordinators will place decorative bows on pews, receive floral arrangements at the church and place them on the altar, pin boutonnieres and corsages on the wedding party, direct the wedding party when to process down the aisle and assist in maintaining an atmosphere of quiet reverence conducive to prayer. The primary form of communication within the Ministry is email and bimonthly postal mail. The Ministry also meets in person twice a year for fellowship. If you are interested in joining the St. James Wedding Coordinators, please contact Nina Lachin, Wedding Coordinator Chair, at 704-907-3698 or nina.m.dry@gmail.com.
