On The Way

The Mass in Slowest Motion: The Fraction

After the Sign of Peace, the Mass moves into the Agnus Dei – the Lamb of God. We either chant or sing: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, etc.

The Agnus Dei follows the familiar pattern of a threefold petition, in this case to Jesus as the “Lamb of God.” The title comes from John the Baptist’s declaration about Christ at the Jordan River: Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! (Jn 1:29) John is in turn referring to the Passover Lamb, sacrificed to free the Israelites from slavery to the Egyptians. That lamb was just an image of the true Lamb to come. Christ is the true Lamb, sacrificed on Passover to free not only Israel but the entire world from slavery to sin.

But this reference to the Lamb does not point only backward, to Christ’s fulfillment of the Passover prefiguration. It also points forward, to heaven, where He is worshipped as the Lamb that was slain (Rev 5:6-14). Those two moments – the Passover sacrifice and the heavenly liturgy – meet in the Mass and specifically in the Eucharist. He is present here and now as the Lamb once slain and eternally worshiped.

From the Lamb we twice ask, have mercy on us. Then the third time, we pray, grant us peace. Again, like the sign of peace, this peace is not an external reality but an interior one, flowing from our reconciliation with God.

While the Agnus Dei is sung or said, the priest breaks off a piece of the consecrated Host and places it in the chalice. While doing so he says, May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it. This action signifies the Resurrection of our Lord. Just as the separate consecrations of bread and wine – of His Body and Blood – signified the separation of Body and Blood and therefore sacrifice, so now the mingling of His Body and Blood signify His Resurrection. A reminder that it is the Risen not the dead Christ we receive.

After all these preparations, the priest takes the Host (and Chalice if he wants), holds them before the people, and says, Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb. This invitation brings together two passages from Scripture. First, the words of John the Baptist mentioned above (Jn 1:29). Second, the invitation to the heavenly liturgy from the Book of Revelation (Rev 19:9). Again, telescoped into this one line are the Passover Lamb, the Last Supper, and the heavenly banquet. Past, present, and future meet here at the altar.

Then the faithful respond, Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed. These words are taken, almost verbatim, from the centurion’s response in Matthew 8. By placing these words on our lips, mother Church seeks to cultivate in us both humility and trust as we approach the Eucharistic Lord.

Bánica Second Collection – August 29 & 30

On the weekend of August 29 & 30, the second collection will benefit the Bánica Mission in the Dominican Republic.

Since 1991, the Arlington Diocese has regularly sent a priest to serve the two missionary parishes located in the nation's rural highlands. The two parishes, in the neighboring towns of Bánica and Pedro Santana, both located on the Haitian border, minister to over 13,000 souls, most of whom live in extreme poverty. Your generosity will allow the diocese to continue to provide spiritual and material assistance to those who need it most.

For more information about the Bánica Mission, and how you can help, visit <https://arlingtonmissions.org/banica-mission/>. Thank you for your generous support!

August 15—Second Collection Feast of the Assumption

“My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord.”
Luke 1:46

On Saturday August 15, we will celebrate the Feast of the Assumption, the conclusion of Mary's earthly journey. Strong in faith and character, let us look to her, as Pope Francis said, as someone who “brings a new ability to overcome with faith the most painful and difficult moments; she brings the ability of mercy, to forgive each other, to understand each other, and to support one another.”

Let us join her in always proclaiming God's goodness.

This year, the Feast of the Assumption is not a Holy Day of Obligation, but it is still an important Feast Day in the Church. We will celebrate Mass at 6:30am, 8:30am, and Noon on August 15. The second collection will be in honor of the Feast.

Farewell to Sister Margaret John Stichter, IHM

All good, earthly, things must come to an end, and so has Sister Margaret John Stichter, IHM's time at St. James. Sister Margaret John was Director of our parish's Ministry to the Sick. The Ministry ensures that all of St. James' homebound parishioners can still receive Communion, have their other spiritual needs met, and enjoy a friendly chat.

Sister arrived at St. James in 2017, and has been here for three years, but is now leaving us to take up an assignment at St. Aloysius Academy for Boys in Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, "the IHM is like the Army," joked Sister, "they send you where they need you."

During her time here at St. James, Sister filled her weeks with visits to our homebound parishioners, "I visited Sunrise of Falls Church, the Chesterbrook Residences, and the Kensington nursing facilities, and about 20 private homes on a weekly or biweekly schedule." On all of the visits, Sister would hold a Communion Service, and then sit down have chats with folks. These visits were something the residents looked forward to, and Sister felt that "they really enjoyed the visits and the time spent meeting their spiritual needs."

While Sister will surely miss the people she visited on her rounds, she will also miss the rest of us at St. James. "St. James is a great parish! I will miss how people come together and work together to meet the needs of the parish."

"Sister Margaret's ever-present smile and kind words bring joy and comfort to all those she meets. Her faithfulness to her Ministry is inspiring and encouraging to me," said Sister Mary Sue Carwile, IHM, the Abbess of the IHM's Convent at St. James. Sister Margaret will miss her fellow IHM Sisters at St. James, "We have a great community here at St. James, and I am going to miss all the laughs and inside jokes." Sister, who is from Brookhaven, Pennsylvania, joined the IHM Order in September of 1962."

Sister Margaret wrapped up our interview, saying: "I have one more thing to tell you," a trademarked phrase of hers—"I sure will miss Shadow!"

Our Priests, Sisters, and parish staff had a going-away luncheon for Sister in Heller Hall on Monday, July 20, and while all had a good time, the parting of the ways was definitely sweet sorrow.

We wish Sister Margaret John Stichter the best as she transitions to her new role. We are confident that her smile, kindness, and dedication will indelibly mark all she works with at St. Aloysius and the surrounding community.

Saying Good Bye to Sister Margaret John Stichter, IHM

On Monday, July 20, the Priests, Sisters, and staff of St. James gathered in Heller Hall to have lunch, properly socially distanced of course, eat cake, and thank Sister Margaret John Stichter, IHM, for her service to the sick of

THANK YOU!
