On The Way

The Mass in Slowest Motion: The Entrance

Mass begins with the entrance of the sacred ministers (bishop, priest, deacon) and servers. This is a more formal procession on Sundays and a simple entrance on weekdays. Three things accompany this entrance.

Entrance Antiphon. This verse, typically from the Psalms, constitutes the first words of the Mass. It is recited either as the priest processes in or (as we do at daily Mass) when the priest arrives at the altar. The antiphon is a remnant of the ancient practice of singing a Psalm during the procession. Indeed, so ancient and familiar are the antiphons that some Sundays have come to be known by the first Latin word of that day's antiphon. Laetare and Gaudete Sundays, for example, draw their names from the Latin words for Rejoice! that begin and characterize the Mass. (Trivia: a certain orphan was discovered at Notre Dame Cathedral on the Sunday following Easter and was named for the first word of that day's antiphon: Quasimodo.)

At daily Mass the people recite the antiphon with the priest. On Sundays we commonly have an entrance hymn in place of the antiphon. Although almost universally done, this practice is actually a concession. The standard, and the practice of the Church in ancient Rome, is that the entrance antiphon be chanted at that time. The hymn is a secondary alternative to the antiphon. Whatever the case, whether antiphon or hymn, the purpose is to set the tone for the Mass and dispose us for the sacred mysteries.

Kissing the altar. Upon arriving in the sanctuary, all genuflect to reverence our Lord's Eucharistic presence in the tabernacle. Then the sacred ministers reverence the altar with a kiss. This sacred gesture is a clear sign that the Mass is not merely a meal and the altar is not simply a table. The priest kisses the altar for two reasons. First, because the altar symbolizes Jesus Christ, the source of all prayer and sacrifice. Second, because the altar contains relics of the saints, who are members of Christ's Body. This reverence for the saints calls to mind at the very start that we worship in union with them. The worship they offer perfectly and face-to-face with God in heaven we offer by signs and symbols here below. By this solemn kiss the priest greets both Christ the High Priest and the saints who are members of His Body.

Incense. On more solemn occasions, the priest incenses the altar. The rising of the smoke of incense is a sign of our prayers rising up to heaven: Let my prayer be incense before you (Ps 141:2). In the traditional blessing of incense, the priest addresses the incense in these words, May you be blessed by Him in Whose honor you will be burned. Thus the incense is sacrificed — burned — for the purpose of worship. Such blessed burning hints at the sacrifice involved in all prayer and the Sacrifice soon to be offered on the altar.

Next week: The greeting and penitential rite.

Stewardship

Be On The Lookout For A Letter From Bishop Burbidge

In January, the mailing for the 2020 Bishop's Lenten Appeal (BLA) will be sent to all registered diocesan households. The theme for the 2020 BLA is "Steadfast in Faith and Joyful in Hope." We will learn more about this theme in the weeks and months ahead. After reflecting upon the blessings that God has given you, please prayerfully consider making a pledge to this important appeal that funds many programs and ministries that serve thousands of people in our diocese. Together, through the BLA, let us renew our personal commitment to furthering the Lord's work in our diocese.

St. James School Annual Appeal Update

Thank you to all who donated to our Annual Appeal. We are almost halfway to our goal of $75,000. In addition to an online donation feature on our website, we now have a Text-to-Give link at:

Simply text the amount that you would like to give and a Faith Direct link for the St. James School Annual Appeal will appear. Fill in your name, address and credit/debit card details, then hit the green "Register & Give" button and you are done!

Using the Text-to-Give Link for the St. James School Annual Appeal

You can use the Text-to-Give link during the 24 hour Day of Giving for National Catholic School's Week, which is Tuesday, January 28th to Wednesday, January 29th, 2020. If you would like to give via the NCEA website, please go to www.NCEA.org and look up St. James Catholic School (Falls Church, VA). Thank you for your support!

Don't Forget About Volunteer Opportunities at St. James Catholic Church.

Stewardship is more than just generosity of financial resources and gifts. It is also about sharing the gift of one's time and talents with the parish community. There are many ways to serve Our Lord at St. James Catholic Church. Please take a look at the volunteer opportunities mentioned on page six of this bulletin and prayerfully consider helping one of our ministries. You won't regret it!

Share Your Faith—Help the Church in Latin America

The Second Collection next Sunday will be for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean region, rural terrain and a lack of ministers are obstacles to practicing their faith. Your support of the collection provides lay leadership training, catechists, Priestly and religious formation, and other programs that help share our faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more about how your contribution will help, please visit <http://j.mp/30f4cAA>

St. James in Action

St. James in Action

On Sundays over the next few months, this page will highlight the various ministries that help make our Parish an active and thriving one. We hope that these capsules will explain what our ministries are striving to achieve and that you may feel spurred to add your own talents and energies to one, or more, of these ministries. You will also find opportunities to volunteer your time and talents to support causes around the Parish.

St. James Finance Council

Saint James Parish Finance Council is an advisory board to the Pastor required by Canon Law. It assists the Pastor in all matters concerning parish and school finances. Council members exercise careful stewardship over the precious resources entrusted to the parish by the faithful. The Finance Council assists in developing the annual parish budget; reviews the monthly parish financial statements; and assists in preparation of an annual financial report for the September bulletin to update parishioners about the parish's financial condition. The Council meets 8-10 times per year. For more information about the St. James Finance Council, please contact its Chairman, Sam Starr, at samuelpstarr@gmail.com.
