On The Way

The Mass in Slowest Motion: The Lord's Prayer

The Eucharistic Prayer presents the sacrifice of Christ to the Father. The Communion Rite that follows prepares us for the reception of Christ in the Eucharist. The first step in this preparation is the Lord's Prayer.

There is an intimate link between the Eucharist and the Lord's Prayer. First, because His words most fittingly prepare us to receive Holy Communion. Second, because the Eucharist illuminates and answers every phrase and petition of the Lord's Prayer.

Our Father... The altar of Christ's Sacrifice is also the table of God's children. At that table more than anywhere else we experience God as Father, providing for us through spiritual fathers. We also experience one another as brothers and sisters, in common need of this spiritual food.

who art in heaven... At Mass heaven and earth are united and we join with the celestial assembly; the altar in our church becomes one with the altar in heaven. In the Eucharist heaven comes to us and we ascend to heaven.

hallowed be Thy name. We make His name holy when we carve out time and space in this world for worship of Him. When we shape our lives around the worship and reception of the Eucharist, then we proclaim that His name is holy and to be revered. Further, the Eucharist strengthens us to proclaim the Father's name as holy not only in Mass but throughout our lives.

Thy kingdom come. At every Mass God's kingdom comes to us. In a specific place and at a specific time, the Father's grace, mercy, and peace enter our world. The Eucharist is His Kingdom already present and in turn nourishes us to further the kingdom throughout our lives.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. His will is perfectly accomplished in the Sacrifice of the Mass. Whenever Mass is celebrated, the Father's will is done in this world. And again, the Eucharist nourishes and strengthens us to do His will on earth just as surely as the saints and angels do in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread. The Eucharist is our daily bread. Whether we receive Communion daily or not, the Eucharist nourishes us in our everyday struggle against sin and for holiness. Further, the Eucharist strengthens and prepares us for the day, the day of judgment.

And forgive us our trespasses... The Mass makes present the Sacrifice that merits for us the forgiveness of sin and reconciles us with the Father.

as we forgive those who trespass against us. The Eucharist gives us the grace to extend His mercy to others. None of us can forgive as He forgives...unless we are nourished by the very Sacrifice of divine forgiveness.

And lead us not into temptation... The Eucharist strengthens us to resist the temptations we encounter in daily life.

but deliver us from evil. The Eucharist is our deliverance, freeing us from those weaknesses that the evil one manipulates and leading us into the promised land.

Next week: The Communion Rite continued

Saint James

Shortly after the death and resurrection of Our Lord, His disciple James was preaching the Gospel in the Roman province of Hispania. James, called the Greater due to his taller stature than Jesus' other disciple of the same name, had enjoyed profound intimacy with Our Lord during His earthly ministry. Along with his brother John, James was among the first disciples called, and he was even among the three selected to witness Christ's glorious Transfiguration on Mount Tabor (Mt 17:1, Mk 9:1, Lk 9:28).

In Hispania, however, the "Son of Thunder" (Mk 3:17) felt far from Christ, and was ready to give up. As he attempted to bring converts into the nascent Church, he found the people of the province intractable, set in their ways, and stubborn. Completely discouraged, he planned to make the long journey back to Jerusalem in defeat. How could it be that one of Christ's own Apostles, a man who had witnessed countless miracles firsthand and who had once been so on fire for the faith, might lose heart and turn back?

In short order, something happened that would reinvigorate James' zeal for souls and change the destiny of the Church. On January 2, 40 A.D. in the city of Caesaragusta, Our Lady appeared to James atop a pillar of jasper. She urged him to continue his missionary efforts and asked that he see to the construction of a church at the site. James obeyed. Four years later, he would return to Jerusalem and die a martyr's death, but not before sowing the seeds of Christ's victory in Hispania.

To say that James' efforts turned out to be successful is an understatement. The Church in Hispania long outlasted the Roman Empire, and the Gospel came to define Spain throughout the ages. This Catholic identity withstood centuries of Muslim rule, an atheistic insurrection, and persists today in spite of growing secularism and antipathy towards the Church.

According to Our Lady's wishes, a beautiful basilica stands around that pillar of jasper in the city now known as Zaragoza. The pillar itself is still there, worn though it is from two thousand years of pilgrims' veneration. On the other side of the reredos from the pillar fly the flags of every present-day nation to which Spanish missionaries brought the Gospel (yes, Old Glory is included!). "Hispanidad," as the concept of international Hispanic culture has come to be known, is inseparable from Catholicism, and it now spans entire continents and millions of people. Imagine: James was ready to call the whole thing off!

As we here at the Greater Parish honor our patron Saint this weekend, perhaps many of us can sympathize with his initial discouragement. Time away from the Sacraments has made it difficult to even practice the faith, much less carry it forth to others. Each new day seems to bring yet another source of anxiety that can weigh on our souls and distract us from the grace of Christ. All this, in addition to the personal disruption and loss many in our community have faced.

Ultimately, our response must be that of Saint James. Like him, we must allow ourselves to be consoled by Our Lady, who does nothing but lead us to her divine Son. Under her protection and through her intercession, Our Lord will turn our discouragement and distress into triumph, conversion of hearts, and the upbuilding of His Kingdom. Even in the most desperate circumstances, Jesus never stops loving us and giving us what we need, even if it's difficult to see or understand. As we celebrate his feast, let us ask for Saint James the Greater's intercession; that he may share with us his devotion to the Mother of God, and that she may lead us to rejuvenation in Christ, who makes all things new.

Announcing our Sister Irene Award Winners!

Several years ago the Sister Irene McConnell, IHM Award was instituted to honor a boy and a girl from each grade who have demonstrated a capacity and willingness for service; in addition they would have shown an enthusiasm for mathematics, either in overall academic achievement, or improvement over the year, or served as Safety Patrols. Sister Irene was a beloved member of our community whose sudden death in 2013 was a shock to all. A true blessing, we are happy to honor her memory in this manner and are grateful to our anonymous donor who has funded this award since its inception. Please congratulate:

The Solemnity of the Assumption of Blessed Virgin Mary—August 15

This year, the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary will fall on Saturday, August 15. Unlike most years, however, this year the Solemnity is not a Holy Day of Obligation. However, it is still an important and solemn day in the Church's year. St. James will be offering Masses on August 15 at 6:30am, 8:30am, and Noon. Please note that the 5:00pm Vigil Mass on Saturday, August 15 counts toward your Sunday Mass obligation for Sunday, August 16, but will not count toward observance of the Solemnity.

The remaining Holy Days of Obligation for 2020 are as follows: the Feast of All Saints will be on Sunday, November 1; the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary will be celebrated on Tuesday, December 8; and the Nativity of the Lord (Christmas) will be celebrated on Friday, December 25.

We hope you will be able to join us at these Masses.
