On The Way

The Mass in Slowest Motion: The Collect

After the entrance antiphon and the Sign of the Cross and the greeting and the penitential rite and the Gloria... after all that, the priest says something very strange: Let us pray. Well, haven't we been praying already? Of course we have. But those were the Introductory Rites, which realize their proper purpose in the Collect.

The term Collect comes from the Latin for "things gathered together." Just so, the Collect gathers together into one prayer all the various prayers and intentions of the faithful at Mass. That is why the priest says (or chants), Let us pray prior to the prayer. That invitation focuses our attention on the prayer that he is about to say, a prayer that will wrap all of our intentions into one and present them to God. So, when the priest pauses after saying Let us pray, call to mind and unite to his prayer the intentions of your heart.

We can discern three distinct parts in the Collect: (1) the Invocation, which addresses God with a description of Who He is and/or what He has accomplished; (2) the Petition, which asks for some grace; (3) the Conclusion, which is always (with few exceptions) the appeal to the Father, through the Son, in the unity of the Holy Spirit.

The Collect also provides a wonderful text for meditation in private prayer. As Saint John Henry Newman says, in the Collects we put on the full character of a Christian. Take, for example, the Collect from last Sunday, the 7th Sunday in Ordinary Time. First the invocation: Grant, we pray, almighty God... This brief phrase makes a request – Grant, we pray – based on a common but underappreciated description: almighty God. In short, we pray to God in confidence because He is almighty and capable of answering our prayer. Such confidence in God should characterize all Christian prayer.

Second, the petition proper: that, always pondering spiritual things, we may carry out in both word and deed that which is pleasing to you. This is a nice summary of the Christian life. First, the primacy of meditation: always pondering spiritual things. In our culture it is so easy to get tugged into superficial, worldly things. Here is a reminder of the need to lift our minds upward, to the sacred. Second, meditation does not remain just meditation. It should so shape our lives that we carry out in both word and deed that which is pleasing to Him. Our words and deeds should be pleasing to Him...and that only happens when they flow from our meditation on divine truths.

Then the conclusion: Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. This is so common a phrase that we overlook its significance. In fact, it expresses the fundamental direction and power of our prayer, which is always to the Father, through the Son, Who is one with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit.

Stewardship

The Gift of Time, Talent, and Treasure

Thank you for your generous support during Commitment Weekend!

We are so grateful to the parishioners of St. James for their “steadfast and joyful” support of this year’s Bishop’s Lenten Appeal. Although the final results are not in, we can share that many generous pledges were made during Commitment Weekend. We will keep you updated on our parish results. If you would like to make a pledge, please fill out a BLA envelope in your pew or make a pledge online at <http://bit.ly/2GoJyVM>.

We hope to achieve 100% participation from our parishioners. Thank you again for your generosity and support!

Would you like to Support this year’s Emerald Gala for Saint James Catholic School?

If yes, then come to the March 14 event. Sponsored by the PTO, it promises to be a spectacular evening and provides our parishioners with a great chance to meet new people and show support for our amazing school. See page eight for more details.

This Week’s Second Collection is for the Black and Indian Missions

There was a misprint in our February 16 bulletin. The second collection for the Black and Indian Missions will take place on Saturday, February 29 and Sunday, March 1. The purpose of this collection is to help local African American and Native American Diocesan Communities throughout the United States spread the Good News of Jesus Christ and respond to real and pressing needs on the ground. May God bless you for helping this Mission.

Did you know?

Recently, we have been contacted by several parishioners who wish to make their offertory gifts via a qualified distribution from their IRA’s. This works well for older parishioners who are required each year to “spend down” or distribute a portion of their IRA once they turn 70 and a half. It’s actually a very simple process. If you would like to make an offertory gift with your IRA, please contact Kathleen Anderson, Director of Development, at 703-532-8815 Ext.131. She would be happy to assist you.

St. James Volunteers

Throughout the year, our parishioners generously share their time and talent in over 20 ministries and apostolates that serve people at Saint James Parish and School, Falls Church City, and beyond. But we are always in need of additional assistance! Please consider giving of your time to serve the poor, assist at Mass, or engage in other projects that bring Christ to others.

For more information on volunteer opportunities, visit us at:

<https://www.stjamescatholic.org/community/parish-ministries>

Or contact our Volunteer Coordinators at volunteer@stjamescatholic.org, or at 703-532-8815.

St. James Young Professionals

St. James Young Professionals strives to form an authentic and integrated parish community. Through regular formative activities and social events, we seek to build relationships, grow together in faith, and support the mission of the Church.

Our ministry meets several times a month (usually on Thursday evenings) for social, formative and volunteering events. Our bread and butter is Holy Hour and Happy Hour on the 3rd Thursday of each month and Mass & Brunch one Sunday each month. We also partner with other young adult groups in the diocese to host talks and events and build up the greater Catholic community.

All young adults are welcome to join - no commitment is required. However, for those looking to get more deeply involved, our core team meets once a month to plan. If you are interested in learning more about St. James Young Professionals, please contact Aaron Tishkoff at aarondt@umich.edu.

St. James Social Outreach Focus on Hunger—St. James Food Distribution

“I see Jesus in every human being. I say to myself, this is hungry Jesus, I must feed him.”
Mother Theresa

On the first Friday of the month 125-150 families come to pray together and receive groceries from St. James Parish. Several years ago, the Social Outreach Committee became aware of many needy families living within a 10-minute walk of St. James Church. A census conducted by committee members determined that their chronic need was food—especially at the beginning of the month when rent was due. The monthly food distribution was begun to partially address this need. Today, the families who are in need live throughout the Falls Church Area.

Please consider donating one-pound bags of rice or kidney beans, boxes of cereal, tuna, peanut butter, jelly, and hearty soups. Your donations can be placed in the boxes near the doors of the Church after any Mass. Besides donating food, this program can use your help in two ways: 1) If you have a large vehicle and can help us transport food, or 2) If you are an individual who speaks Spanish who can help us with registration. Please contact Gay Fantozzi by email at motzof4@gmail.com or by phone at 571-205-1498 for more information.

Silent Prayer: An Encounter with Christ—Sundays in March

Dawn Keeler, OCDS, who has spoken at St. James many times in past years, will return to St. James this March to teach a four-part course entitled, "Silent Prayer, An Encounter With Christ." The classes will meet from 6:00pm to 8:00pm, in the Knecht Conference Room (Doors 8 & 9) each Sunday in March. (Why not attend the 5:00pm Holy Hour at the Church before coming over to class?). Please note that there is a suggested donation of $5 to cover Ms. Keeler's photocopying costs.

Ms. Keeler will be focused on teaching the importance of silent prayer in the tradition of St. Teresa of Avila, and will help all attendees become proficient in their practice of silent prayer. This class is free and open to all parishioners who wish to learn more about this spiritual discipline. For more information on the class, or to register, e-mail Dawn Keeler at dmk6353@gmail.com. St. James Pro-Life Ministry Updates

The St. James Pro-Life Ministry will next meet on Thursday, March 5 at 7:30pm in Knecht Conference Room (Doors 8 & 9). Please join them and "take a stand for life!"

The Lent 40 Days for Life campaign (www.40DaysforLife.com) is underway at the Falls Church abortion facility, 900 S. Washington Street, Falls Church. For 40 days and nights, people of faith and conscience will stand in constant, peaceful vigil outside hundreds of abortion facilities ... to do the single most important thing we can do: PRAY. Join other St. James parishioners on Wednesdays – or any day you are available – for this prayerful witness to life. Prayers from the 40 Days for Life vigil led this mother to get off the table and choose life!
<https://youtu.be/pdESmROTS5A>

On Saturday, April 4, the Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge, Bishop of Arlington, will celebrate the 8:30am Mass at St. James, and then lead the First Saturday Rosary at 9:30am at the Falls Church Abortion Clinic, 900 S. Washington Street, Falls Church. Be sure to join the Saturday Morning Rosary Team for this event. We will, of course, have our 9:30am meeting at the facility on Saturday, March 7, we hope you will also join us at.

There is a Holy Hour on the second Tuesday of every month at St. Leo Catholic Church, 3700 Old Lee Highway, Fairfax, from 7:30pm—8:30pm. The next one will be held on March 11. The purpose of the Holy Hour is to pray for the healing of our culture and for those who hold the secret sorrow of abortion deep within their hearts—that grace will break through. For more information, visit: <http://bit.ly/2IXloTZ>

Please, also, join prayer novenas through Priests for Life (www.priestsforlife.org) at any time.

We welcome all parishioners to take part in the defense of life.
