On The Way

The Mass in Slowest Motion: The Responsorial Psalm

The Responsorial Psalm comes between the first and second readings on Sundays, or between the reading and Gospel on weekdays. It might strike people as a pause in the action or, when sung, a musical interlude. In fact, the psalm is one of the most properly liturgical parts of the Mass. The other readings were written as history, poetry, or prophecy. But the Psalms – the “Praises” – were written specifically for liturgical use. (It merits mention that not every responsorial psalm is actually a psalm. Sometimes another canticle from scripture is used, such as Hannah’s prayer (1 Sam 2:1-10) or our Lady’s Magnificat (Lk 1:46-56).)

The psalm is responsorial in two ways. First, it is a response to the reading just heard. So, at last Sunday’s Mass Psalm 95 spoke of the miracle of the water at Meribah and Massah detailed in the first reading. Second, the psalm is sung (or, when necessary, recited) in a responsorial manner: verse and response, cantor and congregation. To pray the psalms better, keep several things in mind.

First, the psalms teach us about Jesus Christ. Sometimes this is rather clear. Psalm 1, for example speaks about the blessed man, who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, Nor stand in the way of sinners, nor sit in company with scoffers. Rather, the law of the Lord is his joy; and on his law he meditates day and night. This description is a prophecy about our Lord Himself. Psalm 22 – My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? – is clearly fulfilled in Christ’s interior agony on the Cross. And so on, for many psalms.

But other times the psalm’s reference to Christ is not so clear. Last Sunday’s Psalm says, let us acclaim the Rock of our salvation (95:1). That refers primarily to the rock Moses struck and that produced water for the Israelites. Saint Paul tells us that, the rock was Christ (1 Cor 10:4). That is, that rock in the wilderness was an image of Christ, the true Rock, Whose side is struck to produce blood and water for us, the New Israel.

Second, the psalms teach us about ourselves. We find in the psalms the whole gamut of human emotions: joy, sorrow, desire, anger, despair, and even vengeance. Their presence in the books of “praises” teaches us that every emotion we experience can be turned into an occasion to praise the Lord.

But we might not always relate to the emotions expressed in a given psalm. We might feel miserable while the psalm says, Come, let us sing joyfully to the Lord (95:1). We might feel joyful while the psalmist says, Hear me, Lord, as I complain (64:1). What do we make of this disjunction?

First, it forces us outside of ourselves. We have to consider the emotions of someone else – the psalmist’s initially...and Christ’s ultimately. More importantly, the psalms help to shape and form our emotions so that they are in accord with reality, so that we feel sadness, joy, desire, or anger appropriate to the situation.

Statement From Bishop Burbidge on the Suspension of Public Masses in the Arlington Diocese

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Please know I am aware of how the spread and growing concerns of the coronavirus are impacting all of you. Many are teleworking, schools are canceled, travel is restricted, and we have taken extraordinary precautions in order to reduce the spread of the coronavirus within our parishes, schools, ministries and charities.

During this time, I have been praying for each of you every day. I ask that you also keep in prayer those most impacted by the coronavirus: first and foremost, those who have died and their families, those diagnosed with the virus, those with loved ones suffering from the virus, and those who are enduring tremendous financial hardship as a result of the changes within our society. I also want to extend my appreciation and pastoral support to caregivers and those in the medical profession working to stop the spread of the coronavirus.

As a many of you are aware, we have been communicating with the faithful and the public almost every day about updates and the latest news related to our response to the coronavirus. We have posted statements on our website, and used social media, podcasts, emails, and other tools to bring you the latest information we have.

The White House Coronavirus Task Force recommends limiting gatherings to 10 people or less. This recommendation is consistent with CDC guidelines for events that serve “high risk” populations. That would certainly include public Masses.

Therefore, it is with great sadness that I announce that starting March 17, I am suspending the public celebration of all Masses in the Diocese of Arlington until further notice.

Suspending Masses may safeguard our physical health, but I understand that our spiritual health must also be maintained to the best of our ability. For that reason I have asked our pastors to keep our churches open to the public, so that those who choose to pray, are welcome to do so in the presence of our Eucharistic Lord, while keeping a safe distance from one another and not exceeding the 10-person limit.

I encourage you to go to ArlingtonDiocese.org for the latest changes and updates related to our parishes, schools, ministries and charities. If you sign-up for our e-newsletter, you can get those updates sent to you directly. For updates unique to your parish, please visit your parish's website.

As some of you know, the Diocese co-sponsors a televised Sunday Mass with the Archdiocese of Washington. It takes place at the Basilica Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, and is available at 10:30am on Sundays on two local TV stations as well as online. Go to ArlingtonDiocese.org/TVMass for more information or to view the Mass.

While this is clearly a confusing moment, we must remember Our Lord tells us: “Be not afraid!” We must remain rooted in, and unified by, prayer! We published a “Prayer to Jesus for Healing and Guidance” that is available on the diocesan website.

I ask each of you to pray that prayer with your family each day during this situation. And know that your priests will do everything they can to provide for your spiritual needs.

Also consider how you can use your time. Many people at home have more free time than before; ensure you use this time productively. Find ways to spend time alone in prayer and silence with the Lord. Pray with your children. Teach them more about the Faith. Spend quality time as a family. Get some exercise. It is important that we not simply sit and worry. We must be active in keeping our bodies and our souls healthy until the coronavirus passes. And it will pass.

In the midst of this pandemic, God is with us! Draw near to him, the one who promises to deliver and to protect his people.

May our Lord Jesus bless you with his healing love, and keep you steadfast in faith and joyful in hope, now and always.

Stewardship

The Gift of Time, Talent, and Treasure

How do I continue to make my offertory contribution to St. James when there is no public Mass?

Dear Friends in Christ,

We have received several calls from parishioners regarding how to give their weekly offertory if they can't attend Mass during the corona virus pandemic. First off, thank you for your generosity and concern. The most important thing, of course, is to maintain your prayer life and devotion to the sabbath. Pray – for your families, for one another, for our parish, our diocese, our country and the world at large. It is also important that you take care of your health and your family. Keep the sabbath — by meditating on the Sunday readings, praying the Rosary together, making a spiritual communion, and simply being with each other as you are able.

We greatly appreciate your care and concern for the needs of our parish. In terms of weekly offertory, Faith Direct is the best option: <https://membership.faithdirect.net/VA50> You can also mail in your gift to the parish office: 905 Park Avenue, Falls Church, VA 22046.

Again, thank you for your calls, prayers, well wishes and desire to continue to support the mission of Saint James Catholic Church which exists to bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ to all souls in need. May God Bless you and your families during this time of difficulty.

St. James Pro-Life Ministry Updates

Happening Now... The Lent 40 Days for Life campaign (www.40DaysforLife.com) is underway in 507 cities around the globe, including at the Falls Church abortion facility, 900 S. Washington Street, Falls Church. For 40 days and nights, people of faith and conscience will stand in constant, peaceful vigil outside hundreds of abortion facilities ... to do the single most important thing we can do: PRAY. Join other St. James parishioners on Wednesdays – or any day you are available – for this prayerful witness to life. So far, at least 150 babies have been saved during this campaign. The first baby was saved within the first hour of the campaign in El Paso, Texas. See for yourself how prayers from the 40 Days for Life vigil led this mother to get off the table and choose life! <https://youtu.be/pdESmROT>

The St. James Pro-Life Ministry will next meet on Thursday, April 5, at 7:30pm in Knecht Conference Room (Doors 8 & 9). Please join them and “take a stand for life!”

There is a Holy Hour on the second Tuesday of every month at St. Leo Catholic Church, 3700 Old Lee Highway, Fairfax, from 7:30pm—8:30pm. The next one will be held on April 14. The purpose of the Holy Hour is to pray for the healing of our culture and for those who hold the secret sorrow of abortion deep within their hearts—that grace will break through. For more information, visit: <http://bit.ly/2IXloTZ>

There is a monthly “Third Saturday Rosary” at 9:00am at Landmark Towers, the busiest abortion center in the diocese, located at 101 S Whiting Street, Alexandria. The rosary follows 8:00am Mass at Queen of Apostles, 4401 Sano Street, Alexandria.

We welcome all parishioners to take part in the defense of life, and hope you will join us at one or more, of these events.

Things For Folks To Do During This Period of Quarantine

Just because we'll all be stuck at home over the coming weeks, doesn't mean we can't learn more about our world. Here are some activities for everyone to enjoy:

Catholic Gospel Coloring Worksheets

Being stuck indoors is not fun, but why not liven the mood a little with these Catholic Gospel Coloring Worksheets? Each one allows kids to be creative, while also teaching them important Gospel based lessons. Visit <http://j.mp/2WjIw6t> to learn more and to access the sheets.

Virtual Tours of Famous Churches and Cathedrals

Who says that travel restrictions can stop you from "visiting" some of the world's most famous, and beautiful, houses of worship? Well, maybe not in person during these times, but you can certainly tour them from your couch, visit <http://j.mp/3908AGq> and find out how.

Virtual Tours of Museums

Ever wanted to walk through the Uffizi Gallery? To stand and marvel at the collection of the Art Institution of Chicago, or walk down the Hall of Mirrors at Versailles? Now you can, from the comfort of your own house, visit <http://j.mp/393ihnO> and find out how.

A Range of Activities From Scholastic Magazine

The creative folks at Scholastic Magazine have created a wide range of daily learning activities for kids during this period of quarantine. Visit <http://j.mp/393jEms> and find out more.

Catholic Arts and Crafts

Want arts and crafts ideas for these long days ahead? Visit <http://j.mp/39WJcmd> for a wide array of Catholic arts and crafts projects, that reinforce learning and knowledge of the Gospel.

Free Books!

If your favorite bookstore is shuttered, but you need to read, here are a few book repositories online. Best of all, everything in them is free, and all the books are online.

For books on our Catholic Faith, visit: <http://j.mp/38VIJ2C>.

For public domain fiction and non-fiction literature, visit: <https://www.gutenberg.org/>

For classic children's literature, visit

Venerable Fulton J. Sheen

Take this time to acquaint yourself with, or re-acquaint yourself, with the Venerable Fulton J. Sheen, and his classic TV program from the 50's and 60's. You can find episodes on YouTube at <http://j.mp/2xLpfgk>. Laugh and learn with this soon-to-be Saint.

Savior, heal and comfort the sick, so that, with health restored, they may give you praise. Divine Physician, accompany our caregivers so that, serving with patience, they may heal wisely. Eternal Wisdom, guide our leaders so that, seeking remedies, they may follow your light. Christ, the Anointed, protect us in body and spirit, so that, freed from harm, we may be delivered from all affliction. Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever, Amen
