On The Way

The Mass in Slowest Motion: the Preface, I

Clearly, I was in a hurry to get through Mass: I omitted consideration of the Prayer over the Offerings. As it is the actual prayer of offering, this is the most important dimension of the offertory! This simple prayer asks both that God receive what is offered and that we benefit from the offering.

With the Prayer over the Offerings concluded, the priest begins the Preface Dialogue. You will notice that whenever the priest addresses God in a solemn manner, he either announces it (Let us pray) or asks assistance (Prayer, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours...).

In the Extraordinary Form of the Mass this is even more pronounced: the priest turns from the altar to the people, asks their prayers, and then turns back to facing God. This is to remind the priest of the awesomeness of addressing almighty God. If, as Scripture says, It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God (Heb 10:31), then a priest should not approach him casually or haphazardly. He should prepare and ask assistance.

Since the Preface brings us into the most sacred part of the Mass – into the Holy of Holies, in effect – the dialogue between priest and people is longer and more solemn. It begins with the familiar The Lord be with you/ And with your spirit. Again, the people's response is not a greeting of the man but a prayer that the Lord be with the priest as an ordained minister – with his priestly spirit as he addresses God on their behalf.

Again, because we are about to enter the most sacred part of the Mass, the priest invites the people to a higher, nobler kind of prayer: Lift up your hearts. They respond, We lift them up to the Lord. This beautiful exchange is both ancient and universal, found early in the Church's history and in most every form of the Mass.

Then the priest extends a further, more detailed invitation to prayer: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. Now, the Eucharistic Prayer is more than just thanksgiving. It also includes adoration, petition, and contrition. But the Eucharist – from the Greek for thanksgiving – folds the other kinds of prayer into the Son's sacrifice of thanksgiving to the Father.

The people give a brief but significant response: It is right and just. This is more than just an affirmation that the priest had a good idea. It is a profound theological statement that righteousness and justice demand that we offer thanks to God. As the author of all good, as the One Who sets into motion even our desire to praise and thank Him, He has a right to our thanksgiving. Not to give Him thanks would be unrighteous and unjust.

This is a statement about us as well. The proper worship of God also perfects us as His creatures and His children. If we interiorize this exchange and live always as those seeking to give Him thanks, then we gradually become people of constant thanksgiving to God.

Stewardship

The Gift of Time, Talent, Treasure

Second Collections for Sunday, May 10

May is a special month bringing beautiful weather and an overall feeling of hope. As Catholics, we also consider May as the “Month of Our Lady.” The entire month is dedicated to honoring our Blessed Mother. It is also the month where we honor our earthly mothers. Finally, from a Stewardship perspective, May is also a month filled with special collections. If we were physically gathered in the church, you would hear about two collections for this Sunday: The first is for Mother’s Day and the second is for our Parish Needs.

Our Special Parish Needs Collection occurs only during May and can be used by the Pastor for the areas of greatest need. We typically use it for our Social Outreach efforts, such as our food distribution program that DVM News recently covered, <https://bit.ly/2WsOFMe>, but is also used to cover other unforeseen parish expenses.

You can donate to our Parish Needs collection throughout May (You can find the fund listed on the donation page of our website). Please be as generous as you can and be especially attentive to all of the mothers in your life, particularly the Blessed Mother, whose maternal love and protection are a source of great strength for us during this time of trial.

School Support/Virtual Gala Dates:

The COVID-19 outbreak resulted in the cancelation of the PTO’s Emerald Gala that was to take place on March 14. The PTO has many wonderful auction items, including fun baskets that they would like to “auction off” to our school and parish families. There will be three “QVC-style” auctions on the following Tuesday evenings via ZOOM beginning at 7:00pm:

- May 12 (High School baskets and class baskets)
- May 26 (Remaining tangible packages)
- June 9 (Teacher packages)

If you would like to participate, please contact Dawn Behrens at dawyschiller@hotmail.com

Saint James School’s Annual Appeal

If you prefer not to participate in the ZOOM auctions but would like to help our parochial school, then please consider donating to the Annual Appeal. Our fiscal year closes on June 30, and we still have not reached our $75,000. Please help us keep our school financially solvent. If you would like additional information, please contact Kathleen Anderson, Director of Development at: kanderson@stjamescatholic.org.

St. James Food Distribution

Every First Friday during the year, with the exception of August, the St. James Food Distribution program helps ensure that the people of Falls Church have the food they need to make it through the month. Here are some pictures from the May 1 distribution. Don't forget—your generosity makes this vital program possible. To learn more about the program, visit: <https://bit.ly/35t4PcD>.

News From St. James and the Arlington Diocese

Novena to the Holy Spirit—Starting on Friday, May 22

As we prepare to celebrate the Feast of Pentecost, our Priests will be leading a Novena to the Holy Spirit, starting on Friday, May 22. The Novena will be said after each Mass during that period. You can find the order of prayers for the Novena here: <https://bit.ly/2SA0wqE>. There will also be special video messages from our Priests during this time. We hope you will join in the Novena, and that the Holy Spirit will kindle a blaze in our hearts for God's word and guidance in these troubled times.

St. James Food Distribution In the News

The May 1 St. James Food Distribution was recently featured by DVM News, a local news network covering events throughout the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Northern Virginia. To watch the video, visit: <https://bit.ly/2xyqwvj>. Thank you for your Continued generous support of the Saint James First Friday Food Distribution Program!

Masks for St. James Parishioners

Saint James Catholic School's American Heritage Girls Troop 0681 has worked very hard on creating cloth masks for parishioners who need one. The troop will be leaving the masks in the front vestibule of the Church, in a basket marked for them. If you need a mask, please take one. We thank the American Heritage Girls, especially Ms. Lucia Hunter, for organizing this vital project.
