On The Way

The Mass in Slowest Motion: the Sanctus

The formal entrance to the most significant part of Mass is the Sanctus: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. Where does this come from and what does it mean?

The first part comes from Isaiah 6, the prophet's vocation story. Isaiah recounts a mystical experience in which he was in the Temple and saw the angels surrounding the Lord and singing Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory (Is 6:3). It is also what Saint John hears in the book of Revelation (cf. Rev 4:8). We are simply taking on our lips the same hymn as the angels, and in union with them.

But what does Holy mean? We usually think of it in moral terms: to be holy means to be moral. Although holiness does involve moral uprightness, that is not what holy means. God is holy in the sense that He is transcendent and completely other. Nobody can confine or restrict Him. Unlike the pagan gods, who were restricted to their localities or little temples or duties, the God of Israel is beyond man's power to control.

The word hosts means not just a gathering of many angels but a military group. The Lord of hosts presides over an enormous spiritual army. Thus, the Sanctus signals that we are entering the presence of the transcendent One, over Whom we have no authority, and Who battles against all that is unholy.

The second part of the Sanctus comes from Psalm 118, the great pilgrimage psalm. As the people ascended to the Temple they sang of the Lord's fidelity and goodness. When they reached the Temple gates, the priests would greet the pilgrims: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. We bless you from the house of the Lord (Ps 118:26).

Over the centuries, the phrase came to be associated with the long-awaited Messiah's coming to the Temple. By our Lord's time the verse was charged with Messianic meaning. For the crowds to cry out Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest! (Mt 21:9) was not just to greet Jesus, but to proclaim Him the Messiah. Finally, Jesus Himself applies the phrase to His second coming: I tell you, you will not see me again until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord' (Mt 23:39).

Our speaking or singing of these words incorporates all these meanings: of pilgrimage, because we are entering the holiest part of the Mass; of Christ's first coming, because He already entered His Temple; of His second coming, because He will return in glory; and of His immediate coming, because He is about to be made present under the humble form of bread and wine.

Finally, the word Hosanna is a Hebrew shout of joy and triumph meaning, "Save us, we pray!" it is taken from the Psalms and fittingly applied here as, in anticipation of His coming in the Eucharist, we cry out for salvation.

Novena to the Holy Spirit, May 22 to 30

Please join us in praying this Novena asking the Holy Spirit to shower us with His gifts and to fill our hearts and minds with the "peace of God that surpasses all understanding" (Phil 4:7).

The Novena this year will include daily emails and short video reflections by Father Scalia (So please sign up for Father's Constant Contact emails at rectory@stjamescatholic.org). We will conclude the Novena with a special live stream Mass on Pentecost Sunday, May 31 at 10:30am. We will also take up a special Pentecost Collection to help with lost offertory due to the suspension of public masses on March 17. Thank you in advance for your generosity. "Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Thy faithful and enkindle in them the fire of Thy Divine love."

Special Parish Needs Collection, Throughout May

Throughout the month of May, you can give to our Special Parish Needs Collection. This collection is used by our Pastor for the areas of greatest need in the parish. It is normally used for our vibrant Social Outreach efforts, such as our food distribution that WDMV News recently covered, <https://bit.ly/2WsOFMe>. It is also used to cover unforeseen parish expenses.

School Support/Virtual Gala Dates

The first "Virtual GALA Auction" was a huge success, raising over $13,000 for the school. The PTO has two more "QVC-style" auctions on the following Tuesday evenings via ZOOM beginning at 7:00pm: May 26 (Remaining tangible packages) and June 9 (Teacher packages). If you would like to participate, please contact Dawn Behrens at dawnyschiller@hotmail.com. She will send you a ZOOM invitation.

Saint James School's Annual Appeal

If you prefer not to participate in the ZOOM auctions but would like to help our parochial school, please consider donating to the Annual Appeal. Our fiscal year closes on June 30, and we still have not reached our $75,000 goal. Please help us keep our school financially solvent. If you would like additional information, please contact Kathleen Anderson, Director of Development at: kanderson@stjamescatholic.org.

News from St. James

Public Communion Services at Saint James

Thanks to Bishop Burbidge, we are able to offer Communion services outside the church after every Mass on Sunday. Unfortunately, due to social distancing norms and necessary safety precautions, we can allow only a limited number of parishioners at each service. To facilitate this, we have established a lottery system for all who desire to come to the Communion service and receive our Lord in the Eucharist. A limited number of lottery winners will be chosen at random to attend these services. If you would like to attend one of our Communion services this Sunday, please fill out our form found here: <https://bit.ly/2LwL1f7>, and submit it by Saturday morning.

We desire by these services to provide the Eucharist to Christ's flock in a manner both reverent and safe. Those coming to a Communion service should wear masks, observe proper social distancing, and bring hand sanitizer. The elderly (over 65 years old) and those with medical conditions are advised not to come. The priests will take every reasonable precaution in the distribution of Holy Communion. Nevertheless, please understand that no ceremony can be entirely without risk.

Please know that the dispensation from the Sunday obligation remains in place for all the faithful. If you begin to experience any symptoms of COVID-19 please do not attend the Communion service even if you are a lottery winner.

For additional information from the Diocese of Arlington, regarding safety at these services, and Masses, where permitted, visit: <https://bit.ly/2Z7zbcu>.

Masks for St. James Parishioners

Saint James Catholic School's American Heritage Girls Troop 0681 has worked very hard on creating cloth masks for parishioners who need one. The troop will be leaving the masks in the front vestibule of the Church, in a basket marked or them. If you need a mask, please take one. We thank the American Heritage Girls, especially Ms. Lucia Hunter, for organizing this vital project.

This retreat aims to help you know yourself and discover the amazing woman God has created you to be. It will also include tools to aid your prayer and discernment, as well as opportunities for prayer, confession and spiritual direction. Cost is $60 (financial assistance is available). Public Communion Returns to St. James

Public Communion returned to St. James on Sunday, May 17, with special Communion Services held at the Church after the 7:30am, 9:00am, and 10:30am live streamed Masses. The services were attended by 90 parishioners, selected by lottery on Saturday, May 16. To maximize social distancing and to ensure the safety of all recipients, the services were held in three different “shifts,” at three different locations around the outside of the Church. Many thanks to our hardworking maintenance staff, and all of the volunteers that helped with this special morning.

“Happy Are Those Called To His Supper.”

Helping the Wee Ones

On Saturday, May 16, the Saint James Catholic Church Social Outreach Committee held a “Pop & Go, Drive-Thru for the Wee Ones,” to gather donations of needed items for the young children of our community. Our wonderful parishioners responded generously, with an outpouring of diapers, bottles, formula, and other needed items.
