On The Way

Catholic Social Doctrine: Christ the King

This Sunday we conclude our novena to Christ the King for the nation. May it bear fruit at this difficult time. Now, the actual feast of Christ the King is not until Sunday, November 22nd. But the original dating of the feast was the end of October and just before the feast of All Saints, which we celebrate this Sunday. So, although the intention was to wrap up just before election day, it is still fitting that we conclude the novena today.

We might make the mistake of thinking of Christ the King as a relic from the ancient world or middle ages, when kings were more common. Of course, devotion to Christ as King is ancient, from the earliest years of the Church. But the feast of Christ the King was established by Pope Pius XI in 1921, just as the monarchies of Europe were unravelling in the wake of World War I.

The Pope's goal was not to revive some antiquated political concept. It was to reassert the rights of God precisely in the modern context, when any acknowledgement or even discussion of him was being banished from the public square. The modern world speaks a lot about human rights. But those rights are incomprehensible and indefensible if the God who bestows them is not acknowledged. In order for human rights to be secure, the rights of God must be honored.

Or perhaps we make the mistake of seeing Christ's kingship as just a personal devotion, something for my private life but not my public. Of course, the devotion is intensely personal. But it is also about the rightful claim that Christ has to our fidelity in our public life. We cannot be Catholic privately and another thing publicly. The world is rightly confused and scandalized when a catholic claims to be "personally opposed" to abortion but publicly supportive of it. Devotion to Christ the King means an unwillingness to compromise one's faith in the public life.

It also places a check on the state, which always tends to expand and claim increasingly more power. Left to itself the state will intrude into every area of our lives, even into our conscience. The accounts of so many martyrs tell this story, of rulers that tried to compel the conscience.

In their fidelity the martyrs also reveal the One who is higher than the state. So, our devotion to Christ the King – not only privately but publicly – places a check on state expansion. It reveals an authority higher than the state's. Indeed, it reveals the One who will one day judge the rulers of the earth.

In a sense, Christ the King is the summary of the Church's social doctrine. He is the ultimate authority, because he is the teacher, the model, and the judge. The teacher, because we ought to shape society according to his words. The model, because in his sacred humanity he fully reveals to us the truth and dignity of the human person. The judge, because he himself will hold accountable all those to whom he entrusted his teaching and example.

Pius XI's motto was Pax Christi in Regno Christi – the Peace of Christ in the Kingdom of Christ. May we witness to Christ the King in our public life, and thus bring his peace there as well.

– Fr. Scalia

Retired Religious Fund – November 7-8

Next week's second collection will be for the Retired Religious Fund. St. James takes this collection up annually for our retired priests and religious. Sadly, changing demographics, rising health care costs, and lack of funding are making it increasingly difficult for religious orders to care for those who have given their lives to God.

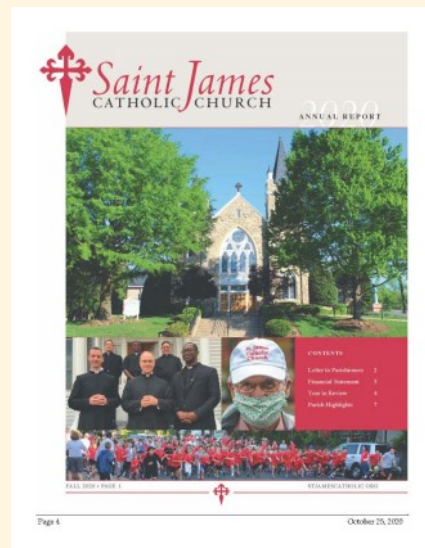

Please consider donating to this important fund. For more information, go to: <https://www.usccb.org/offices/national-religious-retirement-office>.

To donate via Faith Direct, go to: <https://church.faithdirect.net/org/appeals/50/1493>

Follow-Up to this Year's Annual Report

We hope you enjoyed this year's Annual Report. Please take a few minutes to fill out the new Stewardship envelope, including the brief parish survey. You can either mail or drop off your envelope at the Rectory office or place it in the usher's collection basket the next time you are at Sunday Mass. As always, thank you for your generosity and support.

St. James Needs Lectors

St. James is recruiting Lectors for all weekend and daily masses. You do not need prior experience, just the call to proclaim the Word! We will provide training in a COVID-safe setting. For more information or to volunteer, contact Barbara Hannigan at barbhannigan@gmail.com.

Ushers Needed—Please Help

Because of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, we are currently short on ushers and in need of volunteers. If you can help, please email our head usher, John Vrablik: at jvrablik@cox.net.

Thank you.

Voter Resources for Election 2020

With the national election coming up on Tuesday, November 3 we have created a “Voting Resources” page. On the page are materials in both English and Spanish, covering the viewpoints and policy positions of each of the major party candidates as they relate to Catholic teachings. There is also a letter from Bishop Michael Burbidge, Bishop of Arlington, and Bishop Barry C. Knestout, Bishop of Richmond, giving their thoughts on the election. You can find the page at <https://www.stjamescatholic.org/current-events/election-2020-voter-education-resources>. We hope that each of you will make time to vote this year.

Annual Mass of Remembrance—Monday, November 2

St. James will celebrate our annual Mass of Remembrance at 7:30pm on Monday, November 2. This Mass remembers all those who have gone before us and who we hope to see again. Please note that this year the names of those the Mass is being offered for, will be printed in a program and will not be on the individual candle due to the COVID-19 Pandemic.

The Mass will also be live streamed at <https://www.stjamescatholic.org/current-events/livestreamed-masses>

Advent Begins on November 29.

How Are You Preparing Yourself For This Solemn Season of Preparation?

Father Hoyos Leaving For Sabbatical on November 15

Father Hoyos will be leaving his current assignment to take a sabbatical, effective November 15. For those of you who don't know him, Father Hoyos is the Director of the Diocesan Hispanic Apostolate. More important to us, he has diligently and generously cared for our Hispanic community for many years. Throughout the pandemic, he has given himself even more, not taking a break or missing a Sunday since the shutdown. Please keep him in your prayers.

El Padre Hoyos dejará su asignación actual para tomarse un año sabático, a partir del 15 de noviembre. Para aquellos de ustedes que no lo conocen, el Padre Hoyos es el Director del Apostolado Diocesano Hispano. Lo que es más importante para nosotros, ha cuidado con diligencia y generosidad a nuestra comunidad hispana durante muchos años. A lo largo de la pandemia el ha dado más, sin tomarse un descanso ni perderse un domingo desde el cierre. Por favor mantenlo en tu oraciones.

Calling All Men of the Parish—Join the St. James Men’s Group in Praying the Rosary on Wednesday Nights

Members of the St. James’ Men’s Group will gather at the statue of St. Mary at the corner of Park and Spring at 8:15pm Wednesday night to say the Rosary. All are welcome to join in this powerful devotion to our Lord and the Holy Mother. Contact Austin Middleton at austin_midd@hotmail.com.

Farewell to Dan Day on November 22, Christ the King Sunday

Join us on Sunday, November 22, at the 10:30am Mass to say farewell to Dan Day, and to celebrate his 30 years of service to St. James as our Director of Music. Right after the Mass, we will be presenting our parish gift memory book to Dan. Please join us for this presentation.

“He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God...”
Psalm 40:3

Scouting For Food—November 15

Pack/Troop 681 will be participating in Scouting for Food this year to benefit Saint James Social Outreach. We will accept non-perishable food donations (no glass) outside of Saint James Catholic Church on Sunday, November 15' during all Masses between 7:30am to 5:00pm.

Alternatively, donors who wish to schedule a Scouting For Food pickup anytime can email the Pack/Troop at 681scoutingforfood@gmail.com to provide your address and date/time for earliest pickup. Thank you for your help and generosity to help those in need.

Donations Needed to Support St. Lucy Diocesan Warehouse

The Catholic Charities Diocesan St. Lucy Warehouse is in desperate need for food donations. Donor fatigue has set in with recent collections down 28% and demand for food up 90% from this time last year. The donated food supports multiple food pantries and lunch packs for children.

The St. Lucy truck came to our parish in May and will return in the Spring. In the meantime, due to the serious lack of food available to program participants, please consider making food donations online using the Amazon Gift Wish List Link: ccda.net/SLPAmazonWishList. The food will be sent directly to the warehouse and St. James parish will be recognized for any online donations.

The social outreach committee endorses this easy way to donate food, and we thank you for your generosity.

“For I was hungry, and you gave me food...”
Matthew 25:30

Volunteer Wedding Coordinators Needed

Wedding coordinators work with the celebrant at the wedding rehearsal and the wedding by assisting with the set-up of the church, and the organization of the wedding party regarding the order of the procession, seating, and order of events as they will take place during the wedding.

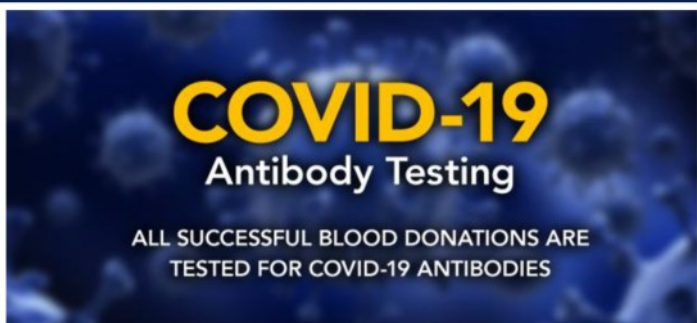

If you are interested or have additional questions please email Elizabeth Hatch at ehatch72@gmail.com.

Preparation for Total Consecration according to Saint Louis Marie de Montfort November 5 - December 8, 2020

Have you been considering doing St. Louis Marie de Montfort's Total Consecration to Jesus through Mary? Join the parish as we make this consecration together! We will begin the 33 days of preparation on November 5 in order to make the consecration on December 8, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Fr. Oetjen will give a talk to begin each phase of the preparation and lead the prayers of the preparation for that day:

- Thursday, November 5 at 6:30pm — Introduction to the Total Consecration and Part I: Spirit of the World
- Tuesday, November 17 at 6:30pm — Part II: Knowledge of Self
- Tuesday, November 24 at 6:30pm — Part III: Knowledge of Our Lady
- Tuesday, December 1 at 6:30pm — Part IV: Knowledge of Jesus Christ
- Tuesday, December 8 at 7:30pm — Mass with the Consecration to follow

For the 33 days of preparation, we will use the readings and prayers from Preparation for Total Consecration according to Saint Louis Marie de Montfort by Montfort Publications, which can be found here: <https://www.amazon.com/Preparation-Total-Consecration-Louis-Montfort/dp/0910984107>. These readings and prayers can also be found online here: <http://www.quies.org/True-Consecration-33-Day.pdf>.

Saint James Food Distribution In Need of Donations for November

The Saint James Social Outreach Committee's Food Distribution Program is in critical need of donations to serve the hungry in our parish and the City of Falls Church for the November 6 food distribution. Items most needed are the following “staple” items: canned chicken or tuna, cereal, dry beans (no larger than 3 lbs.), rice (no larger than 3 lbs.), peanut butter, jelly/jam, pasta, pasta sauce, hearty soups, canned fruit. Please no glass jars, bulk, or very large items because these items make it tough on our volunteers. Items can be left in the back of the church. May the Lord bless you for your generosity.

Some Final Thoughts

“The inviolability of the person which is a reflection of the absolute inviolability of God, finds its primary and fundamental expression in the inviolability of human life. Above all, the common outcry, which is justly made on behalf of human rights – for example, the right to health, to home, to work, to family, to culture – it is false and illusory if the right to life, the most basic and fundamental right and the condition for all other personal rights, is not defended with maximum determination.” St. John Paul II
