Catholic Social Doctrine: Option for the poor

A fair gauge of a society's health is how it treats its poor and vulnerable. Pope Leo XIII observed that society cannot exist or be conceived of without "differences and inequalities of condition." As he warned, and as we have seen over the past 150 years, the attempt to eliminate all inequality makes everybody equally miserable. Rather than helping the poor, Marxist and statist solutions both deprive the wealthy of their means to assist and dispense them from their obligation to do so.

Nevertheless, just because inequality is inevitable doesn't mean we can ignore the poor. Indeed, inequalities of condition obligate the wealthy to assist the needy. This obligation holds for the Church, her members, and all of society. It is a matter not only of charity but also of justice. "Love for others, and in the first place love for the poor, in whom the Church sees Christ himself, is made concrete in the promotion of justice" (St. John Paul).

Thus public authorities have a particular duty to the poor and vulnerable. The shaping of legislation and execution of laws should give them special consideration. "The richer class have many ways of shielding themselves, and stand less in need of help from the state; whereas the mass of the poor have no resources of their own to fall back upon, and must chiefly depend upon the assistance of the state" (Leo XIII). "The function of the rulers of the state... is to watch over the community and its parts; but in protecting private individuals in their rights, chief consideration ought to be given to the weak and the poor" (Pius XI).

Now, the mistake commonly made here is to think that this always requires direct state action. In fact, society's care for the poor does not necessarily or always mean state assistance. Here again we encounter the principle of subsidiarity: the state assists only when and where more immediate and local organizations cannot fulfill a need. A healthy state will free up the charitable, volunteer, and private organizations and initiatives that can serve the poor in a more direct, organic, and efficient manner.

This touches on two other principles of social teaching. First, religious freedom. Outside the federal government, our nation's largest provider of social assistance is the Catholic Church. The Church insists on religious freedom for her members so that they can fulfill her Lord's twofold command: to worship (love of God) and to serve (love of neighbor). Employment and health care laws that deny the Church the freedom to serve according to her faith simply sideline our nation's greatest servant of the poor.

Second, the right to life. If we take seriously that the life in the womb is indeed a person, then we have to acknowledge that the poorest and most vulnerable members of our society are the unborn. The most recently available statistics show that 18% percent of pregnancies (excluding miscarriages) in 2017 ended in abortion, a total of 862,320 abortions that year. Taking seriously the rights of the poor demands that we seek justice not only for those we can see but also – and especially – for those hidden in the womb.

– Fr. Scalia

The Gift of Time, Talent, Treasure

Second Collection This Weekend is for World Mission Sunday

In 1926 Pope Pius XI instituted World Mission Sunday for the whole Church with the first worldwide Mission Sunday collection taking place in October 1927. Since that time, the World Mission Sunday collection is always taken on the next to last Sunday during the month of October.

This year's collection is in support of over one thousand local churches in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe. Through the work of these missionary churches and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love, mercy, hope, and peace. World Mission Sunday is celebrated in all the local Churches as the Feast of Catholicity and universal solidarity. Please be as generous as you can this weekend. For more information, go to:

<https://www.mission.org/resources.aspx>.

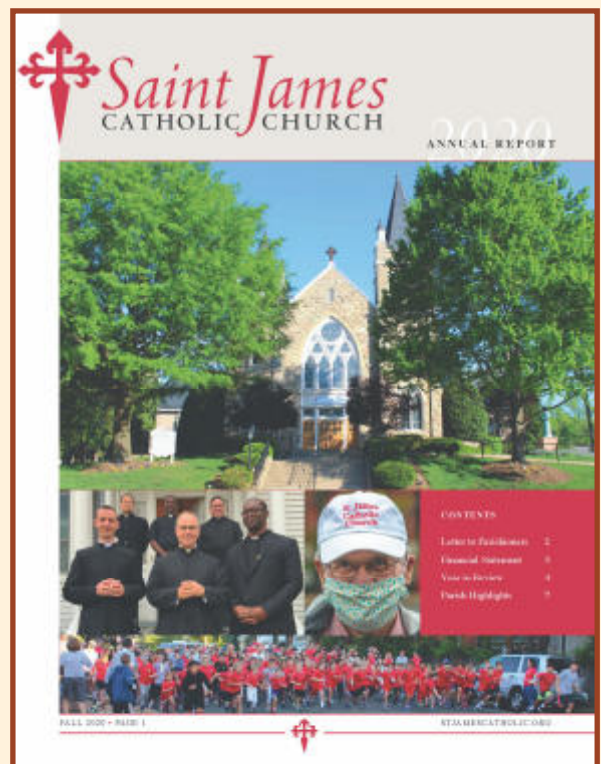

Ushers Needed—Please Help

Because of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, we are currently short on ushers and in need of volunteers. If you can assist at the Mass you attend, please check in and speak with the head usher in the vestibule at the main entrance. Or go ahead and email our head usher, John Vrablik: Jvrablik@cox.net.

Thank you for prayerfully considering this call to this important service to our parishioners and guests here at St. James during these challenging times.

St. James Annual Report for FY2020

This year's Annual Report for Fiscal year 2020 will be mailed to all registered parishioners this week. Please take a few moments to read the report, entitled "Our Year in Review."

In the report's pages, you will find not only financial and statistical information about FY20, but also a timeline of our parish's activities and new initiatives during this unprecedented year. Father Scalia will speak about it in more detail during the Sunday Masses on October 25.

We hope you enjoy it! And, we thank you again for the gift of your time, talent and treasure this past year.

Saint James Food Distribution In Need of Donations for November

The Saint James Social Outreach Committee's Food Distribution Program is in critical need of donations to serve the hungry in our parish and the City of Falls Church for the November 6 food distribution. Items most needed are the following “staple” items: canned chicken or tuna, cereal, dry beans (no larger than 3 lbs.), rice (no larger than 3 lbs.), peanut butter, jelly/jam, pasta, pasta sauce, hearty soups, canned fruit. Please no glass jars, bulk, or very large items because these items make it tough on our volunteers. Items can be left in the back of the church. May the Lord bless you for your generosity.

Voter Resources for Election 2020

With the national election coming up on November 3, we have created an “Election 2020 Voter Education Resources” page. On the page are materials in both English and Spanish, covering the viewpoints and policy positions of each of the major party candidates as they relate to Catholic teachings. There is also a letter from Bishop Michael Burbidge, Bishop of Arlington, and Bishop Barry C. Knestout, Bishop of Richmond, giving their thoughts on the election.

You can find the page at <https://www.stjamescatholic.org/current-events/election-2020-voter-education-resources>. We hope that each of you will make time to either vote early or in-person this year.
