On The Way

Catholic Social Doctrine: Subsidiarity

Another principle in Catholic social doctrine is subsidiarity. By way of this principle “a community of a higher order should not interfere in the internal life of a community of a lower order, depriving the latter of its functions, but rather should support it in case of need and help to coordinate its activity with the activities of the rest of society, always with a view to the common good” (CCC 1883). In other words, the best level to address issues of social justice is the lowest level possible.

This principle derives from human nature. What is closest and most immediate to us is the most important and helpful. Those closest and most immediate to us know best how to help us.

Subsidiarity works both vertically and horizontally. Vertically, it means that matters of the common good should be addressed by the most local and immediate entity: the family, town, county, city, state, and so on. The upper levels of government authority should never displace the lower levels. Rather, they should provide assistance (subsidium) only when the lower levels cannot adequately address matters on their own.

The more the lower levels of society are left to address issues as they are able, the more people can and will be involved. “The principle of subsidiarity is opposed to all forms of collectivism. It sets limits for state intervention” (CCC 1885).

In the American system, this vertical subsidiarity is seen in the federalist structure by which the powers of the federal government are limited to those matters the states cannot assume on their own. Ideally, most matters are left to states and counties, for the more the federal government intrudes, the less local autonomy there is.

Indeed, it was in the face of such overreaching government power that Pius XI first articulated the principle of subsidiarity in 1931: “Just as it is gravely wrong to take from individuals what they can accomplish by their own initiative and industry and give it to the community, so also it is an injustice and at the same time a grave evil and disturbance of right order to assign to a greater and higher association what lesser and subordinate organizations can do. For every social activity ought of its very nature to furnish help to the members of the body social, and never destroy and absorb them.”

Another example of subsidiarity is our Electoral College. That feature of our presidential elections was put in place precisely to keep bigger populations from determining elections and effectively taking over smaller locales, depriving them of their rightful autonomy.

Horizontally, subsidiarity means that society should have many different volunteer organizations, societies, associations, and institutions. “Excessive intervention by the state can threaten personal freedom and initiative” (CCC 1883). Non-governmental organizations – parishes, private schools, clubs, service organizations – diffuse participation in the common good. By the services they provide, they also blunt the need for government intervention.

The Gift of Time, Talent, Treasure

October 3/4 – The Little Sisters of the Poor

This weekend's second collection will be for the Little Sisters of the Poor.

Their mission is to offer the neediest elderly of every race and religion a home where they will be welcomed as Christ, cared for as family and accompanied with dignity until God calls them to Himself. Thank you for your generous support of the Sisters and their important mission to serve all God's children.

To learn more about the Sisters, and their mission, visit: <http://littlesistersofthepoor.org/>

Contributions Needed by October 15 for Dan Day's Memory Book

Due to the pandemic, we were unable to have a retirement celebration for Music Director, Dan Day after his 30-years of dedicated service to the community of St. James. So, we are compiling a "Thank You - Memory Book" for Dan. We ask that you send a letter of appreciation, a retirement or thank you card or an email. Please ask your children to send drawings (max 8.5" x 11"), too. And, include a picture of yourself or of your family, if you like. Even if you did not know Dan personally, your "thank you" for his music ministry would be greatly appreciated." Send your contribution to the parish office (905 Park Avenue, Falls Church, VA 22046) or by email to dorimitchell3@gmail.com by October 15. We will present Dan with this parish gift on Sunday, November 22, the feast day of St. Cecilia, the Patron Saint of musicians.

Ushers Needed—Please Help

Because of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, we are currently short on ushers and in need of volunteers. If you can assist at the Mass you attend, please check in and speak with the head usher in the vestibule at the main entrance. Or go ahead and email our head usher, John Vrablik: Jvrablik@cox.net.

Thank you for prayerfully considering this call to this important service to our parishioners and guests here at St. James during these challenging times.

Saint James Catholic School Wins Third U.S. Department of Education National Blue Ribbon of Excellence Award

"It is an honor to be recognized at the national level for the third time! This is a solid testament to the quality work I see daily at Saint James Catholic School," said Principal Sister Mary Sue Carwile, IHM. "I am proud of our students, teachers, staff and parents. The 2020 National Blue Ribbon represents their continual efforts toward high achievement and success since we were last named a Blue Ribbon School in 2014. We have a school community that works together to ensure that students succeed at every level. Our students and teachers are engaged in the learning process, ever guided by the joyful message of Jesus Christ, our unique Teacher."

Holy Communion During the Pandemic

As many of you know, since the beginning of the pandemic we have been distributing Holy Communion at the altar rail. We find this helps us distribute Communion both reverently and safely. But as more people return to Mass it also might take some getting used to. Please make note of these instructions.

- We have placed Crosses six feet apart along the step of the rail.
- When coming forward for Communion, please go to the Cross farthest from you in your section (i.e. in the center or on the sides).
- Stand or kneel at that Cross and the minister will bring you Communion.
- If receiving Communion in the hand, please remove your mask first, then receive the Host. Consume the Host while at the altar rail and then return to your seat.
- Please remember that members of the same household do not have to practice social distancing and may stand (or kneel) together at the rail.
- Once those in the transepts have received, those coming down the main aisle should use the spaces on the sides of the communion rail as well as the front.

Some Words on Masks From Father Scalia

Yes, it remains my expectation that anyone coming to Mass at Saint James, wear a mask (no different from the airport or any store. This is the Bishop's expectation as well). Also, I ask that you keep your masks apolitical. Endorsement of a candidate or party is not appropriate in church.

Help Our Parish Seminarian!

The past several weeks I have mentioned Thomas Conroy, a young man who grew up at Saint James, went to our Parish School, and now wants to enter the Dominicans (the Order of Preachers). The only thing keeping him from entering formation are his student loans. He is currently working with the Laboure Society to remove that obstacle.

To see how you can help Thomas, visit www.rescuevocations.org/thomas. Or you can reach out to him directly for more information at thomas@rescuevocations.org. Most of all, please keep him in your prayers!

News from St. James

Annual Mass of Remembrance—Monday, November 2

St. James will celebrate our annual Mass of Remembrance at 7:30pm on Monday, November 2. This Mass remembers all those who have gone before us and who we hope to see again. Email the Rectory Office at rectory@stjamescatholic.org if you would like to arrange a candle to be placed at the altar in memory of your deceased loved one. Please note that this year the names will be printed in a program and will not be on the individual candles. Due to this change, all names must be submitted to the Rectory Office by Friday, October 23. We thank you for your help!

Two Events at St. James This Weekend

St. James will host two events this weekend to which we invite all parishioners who wish to take part.

On Saturday, October 3, we will have our annual Pet Blessing at the corner of Park Ave. and Spring St., at 9:30am. This event honors St. Francis of Assisi's observation that "All things of creation are children of the Father and thus brothers of man." All pets of the parish are welcome to be blessed.

On Sunday, October 4, the St. James Pro-Life Group will be hosting their annual Life Chain event, from 2:00pm to 3:00pm on Sunday, October 4, Respect Life Sunday, at the corner of Broad Street and Spring Street.

Our St. James group will have Pro-Life signs available at the corner. We will then pray along both sides of Broad Street until 3:30 PM

We hope to see you at each.

Voter Registration Drive Here at St. James on October 10-11

This is an important Election year, and we encourage all parishioners who are citizens to vote. Before and after Masses on October 10 and 11, St. James will be hosting a Voter Registration Drive.

If you are not yet registered, have moved, changed your name, or will be 18 by November 3rd, please stop by the red tent. There will also be additional information available about Early Voting locations and times to vote prior to Election Day on November 3rd. Please stop by to register to vote, or for more information.

Saint James Food Distribution In Need of Donations for November

The Saint James Social Outreach Committee's Food Distribution Program is in critical need of donations to serve the hungry in our parish and the City of Falls Church for the November 6 food distribution. Items most needed are the following “staple” items: canned chicken or tuna, cereal, dry beans (no larger than 3 lbs.), rice (no larger than 3 lbs.), peanut butter, jelly/jam, pasta, pasta sauce, hearty soups, canned fruit. Please no glass jars, bulk, or very large items because these items make it tough on our volunteers. Items can be left in the back of the church. May the Lord bless you for your generosity.

Matthew 25:35

Some Final Thoughts

“The inviolability of the person which is a reflection of the absolute inviolability of God, finds its primary and fundamental expression in the inviolability of human life. Above all, the common outcry, which is justly made on behalf of human rights – for example, the right to health, to home, to work, to family, to culture – it is false and illusory if the right to life, the most basic and fundamental right and the condition for all other personal rights, is not defended with maximum determination.” St. John Paul II
