On The Way

On the way: The Church's Social Doctrine 3/9: the Family

"The history of mankind, the history of salvation, passes by way of the family" (St. John Paul II)

Last week's column considered the inviolable, transcendent dignity of the human person as a principle of the Church's social teaching. A society is just to the degree that it recognizes and reveres the truth of the human person.

This week we consider that the human person is intrinsically social. Each of us is unrepeatable. But that does not mean that we are to live individualistically. We are meant to live in community. Aristotle describes man as a "political animal." What he meant by that phrase is not that we are made for politics in the modern sense (God forbid!), but that we are meant for the polis, the city-state, the community – to live in common with others.

This is not as self-evident as it seems. Certain philosophies see the human person as an atomized, radically autonomous individual. Thomas Hobbes famously described man as "solitary, poor, nasty, brutish, and short." He saw us as individuals at each other's throats. Government is thus established to mitigate our brutal, selfish existence.

Jean-Jacques Rousseau had the opposite view but ended up in the same place. For him our natural state is blissful freedom and innocence. Our living together forces us to give that up and puts us in chains. Notice that both Hobbes and Rousseau view society as something foreign to us, an imposition. These views of man as radically individualistic must be rejected.

The truth is that the human person is intrinsically communal and social. We come into the world only by way of union between a man and woman. Our very existence comes from a community. Likewise, we cannot realize our full purpose and fulfillment except in community. Society is not an imposition on or enslavement of the human person; it is necessary to human flourishing. "The human person needs to live in society. Society is not for him an extraneous addition but a requirement of his nature. Through the exchange with others, mutual service and dialogue with his brethren, man develops his potential; he thus responds to his vocation" (CCC 1879).

The most fundamental society is the family: "the original cell of social life" (CCC 2207). G.K. Chesterton describes the family "the one anarchist institution" – not because it lacks order or rules (although, sometimes one wonders...) but because it precedes every government in the world. The family thus serves as another check on the government's power. "Civil authority should consider it a grave duty 'to acknowledge the true nature of marriage and the family, to protect and foster them, to safeguard public morality, and promote domestic prosperity'" (CCC 2210).

Thus, the Church rejects the definition or acceptance as "marriage" anything other than the union of one man and one woman. This is not because of an irrational animus, as some have claimed. Rather, it is because the truth of the family – man, woman, children – precedes the state and – must always be respected and promoted by the state. – Fr. Scalia

Holy Communion During the Pandemic

As many of you know, since the beginning of the pandemic we have been distributing Holy Communion at the altar rail. We find this helps us distribute Communion both reverently and safely. But as more people return to Mass it also might take some getting used to. Please make note of these instructions.

- We have placed Crosses six feet apart along the step of the rail.
- When coming forward for Communion, please go to the Cross farthest from you in your section (i.e. in the center or on the sides).
- Stand or kneel at that Cross and the minister will bring you Communion.
- If receiving Communion in the hand, please remove your mask first, then receive the Host. Consume the Host while at the altar rail and then return to your seat.
- Please remember that members of the same household do not have to practice social distancing and may stand (or kneel) together at the rail.
- Once those in the transepts have received, those coming down the main aisle should use the spaces on the sides of the communion rail as well as the front.

Blessing of the New Saint James Catholic Preschool

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This year of religious education is different than any other. On this year's Catechetical Sunday, I have a special message for all parents: Thank you for answering the call to be the primary educators to your children. Our Lord will provide you with every grace necessary to share and nurture the faith in your families. Remember, the greatest gift you can give to your children is your faith, which aligns with this year's theme for Catechetical Sunday, "I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you." The ultimate goal is to help your child become a saint.

I ask that you join me on this Catechetical Sunday in thanking our Pastors, Directors of Religious Education and their Faith Formation teams. I commend the parishes for ensuring that the religious education classes and instruction are offered to all families in a safe and accommodating manner this year. Our parishes are always ready to support you and to provide you with any resources you need for this great ministry.

Please be assured of my continued prayers for you, your families, and your parish communities. May Our Lord Jesus bless you and keep you in His care.

Sincerely in Christ,

Estimados hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Este año de educación religiosa es diferente de cualquier otro. En el Domingo Catequético del presente año, tengo un mensaje especial para todos los padres de familia: Gracias por responder al llamado a ser los principales educadores de sus hijos. Nuestro Señor les concederá toda la gracia necesaria para compartir y fomentar la fe en sus familias. Recuerden que el mayor don que pueden darles a sus hijos es la fe, lo cual se alinea con el tema del Domingo Catequético de este año: “Recibí del Señor lo que también te entregué a ti”. La meta definitiva es ayudar a sus hijos a llegar a ser santos.

Les ruego que se unan a mí en este Domingo Catequético para darles las gracias a nuestros Párrocos, a nuestros Directores de Educación Religiosa y a sus equipos de Formación en la Fe. Felicito a las parroquias por asegurar que las clases y la instrucción sobre educación religiosa se ofrezcan a todas las familias de una manera segura y flexible este año. Nuestras parroquias están siempre listas a apoyarlos y a proporcionarles todos los recursos necesarios para este gran ministerio.

Tengan la seguridad de que ustedes, sus familias y sus comunidades parroquiales estarán continuamente en mis oraciones. Que Nuestro Señor Jesús los bendiga y los cuide.

Fielmente en Cristo,

Monseñor Michael F. Burbidge
Obispo de la Diócesis de Arlington

September 19/20 - Parish Religious Education Program (PREP)

Today's second collection is in support of the St. James Parish Religious Education Program, affectionately known as "PREP." Under Sister Regina Rosarii's leadership, our PREP program continues to thrive with a team of dedicated catechists who diligently work to prepare our parish children to receive the Sacraments so that they may "know, love and serve the Lord" more fully in this life. Please be as generous as you can and keep all of our PREP teachers and children in your prayers. Our little ones in particular have been hit hard by the restrictions imposed by COVID-19.

If you have any questions or would like to help in anyway, please reach out to Sister Regina Rosari, IHM, at dre@saintjameschool.org.

In case you missed it!

A special word of thanks to all parishioners who contributed to the second collections for the Catholic University of America and to the Holy Land Shrines. Your generosity is greatly appreciated. #### Sunday, September 20, Is "Catechetical Sunday"

Each year, the Catholic Church in the United States designates the third Sunday in September as "Catechetical Sunday" - a day on which to celebrate and pray for the Church's mission to teach the Gospel to all people. This year's theme is "I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you." Our Parish Catechists and Catholic School.

Teachers are responding to a call to share the gift of faith with others, even as they deepen their own faith. They know that this calling ultimately comes from God, whose Holy Spirit inspires and guides them. We ask God's blessing on them as they begin this new school year, supporting their students' parents in their responsibility to educate their children in the Catholic faith.

Scenes From a New School Year

The 2020-2021 School Year has begun, and it is unique in the history of Saint James Catholic School. The COVID-19 pandemic has brought new procedures and rules; the students have a new uniform requirement, and we opened our brand new Saint James Catholic Preschool to three classrooms of our youngest "Rockets." Please continue to keep our school's administration, teachers, staff, and students and their families in your prayers as we go through this unprecedented time.

This will be the 33rd annual Life Chain event, taking place in over 1,500 communities across North America. Life Chain may be the simplest pro-life witness every conceived, and one of the most popular. Participants congregate for 90 minutes at busy intersections holding pro-life signs and praying, forming a veritable chain of life in solemn witness for the preborn individuals lost to abortion every day of the year.

Our St. James group will have Pro-Life signs available at the corner. We will then pray along both sides of Broad Street until 3:30 PM. Please bring your whole family! You are also welcome to bring water, lawn chairs, umbrellas, and strollers with you as your needs dictate.

This event will be a peaceful and prayerful witness to life!

The ministry conducts fundraisers to support pro-life causes, including a yearly Christmas greens sale to support the local crisis pregnancy center (A Woman's Choice). Ministry members also pray in front of the two abortion facilities in our parish's boundaries and organize the March for Life bus trip, the annual Life Chain event, and the 40 Days for Life campaign. The ministry sometimes organizes rosary processions from St. James to one of the local abortion facilities.

If you would like to get involved with the ministry, or if you have questions about its programs, please contact Rich Hunter at stjameslife@gmail.com or at 571-443-6482.
