On The Way

On the Way: Catholic Social Doctrine; Solidarity

The human person is by his very nature a social being. From this truth comes the principle of solidarity: the awareness of our common human nature and shared responsibility to one another – what used to be called the “brotherhood of man.” Our common human nature binds us to one another in a manner that transcends our economic, racial, ethnic, and national identities. We all share the human condition.

Terence, the ancient Roman playwright and former slave, famously wrote, “I am a man; I regard nothing human as alien to me.” That is a great summary of solidarity. Because we are all human, we cannot regard anyone or any group as so distant or far off as to be of no concern to us.

In 1939, in the face of Nazi racism, Pope Pius XII lamented the “disregard for the law of human solidarity and charity.” That law or principle, he said, is “dictated and imposed both by our common origin and by the equality in rational nature of all men, whatever nation they belong to” (CCC 1939). If we do not appreciate the reality of our shared human nature (as the Nazis did not), then we will fail to appreciate solidarity and our responsibility to one another.

It is natural for us to gravitate to those similar to us in terms of ethnicity, economics, religion, etc. But in considering the good of society as a whole, we cannot remain concerned only about our own kind. Poland's Solidarity movement bore that name because it was composed of not just one group or another but a broad cross section of Polish society. The power of Solidarity's, well... solidarity was revealed in the fall of the Soviet Union. By refusing to limit itself to this group or that, Solidarity presented a united front to the Soviets that proved to be their undoing.

Related to solidarity is the principle of the common good. “By common good is to be understood ‘the sum total of social conditions which allow people, either as groups or as individuals, to reach their fulfillment more fully and more easily.’ The common good concerns the life of all” (CCC 1906).

Notice again the importance of the truth of the human person. To shape those “social conditions which allow people, either as groups or as individuals, to reach their fulfillment more fully and more easily,” we must know what the human person is and what constitutes his fulfillment. A mistake about the nature of the human person inevitably leads – as history has continuously shown – to a disordered and ultimately violent society.

For example, serving the common good requires a concern for economics. But the human person needs more than money for fulfillment. Thus, serving the common good means shaping laws and a society in keeping with the deeper, spiritual truths of the human person. It means laws that promote the family and respect for life. This is the grave error of Marxism (in forms both past and present): it reduces the human person to just a material entity and thus builds a society hostile to him. - Father Scalia

Next week: solidarity's necessary complement, subsidiarity.

Holy Communion During the Pandemic

As many of you know, since the beginning of the pandemic we have been distributing Holy Communion at the altar rail. We find this helps us distribute Communion both reverently and safely. But as more people return to Mass it also might take some getting used to. Please make note of these instructions.

- We have placed Crosses six feet apart along the step of the rail.
- When coming forward for Communion, please go to the Cross farthest from you in your section (i.e. in the center or on the sides).
- Stand or kneel at that Cross and the minister will bring you Communion.
- If receiving Communion in the hand, please remove your mask first, then receive the Host. Consume the Host while at the altar rail and then return to your seat.
- Please remember that members of the same household do not have to practice social distancing and may stand (or kneel) together at the rail.
- Once those in the transepts have received, those coming down the main aisle should use the spaces on the sides of the communion rail as well as the front.

News from St. James

Life Chain - Oct 4 (Respect Life Sunday)

The St. James Pro-Life Ministry invites you to take a stand for life and join in their annual Life Chain event, from 2:00pm to 3:00pm on Sunday, October 4, "Respect Life Sunday at the corner of Broad Street and Spring Street.

This will be the 33rd annual Life Chain event, taking place in over 1,500 communities across North America. Life Chain may be the simplest pro-life witness every conceived, and one of the most popular. Participants congregate for 90 minutes at busy intersections holding pro-life signs and praying, forming a veritable chain of life in solemn witness for the preborn individuals lost to abortion every day of the year.

Our St. James group will have Pro-Life signs available at the corner. We will then pray along both sides of Broad Street until 3:30 PM. Please bring your whole family! You are also welcome to bring water, lawn chairs, umbrellas, and strollers with you as your needs dictate.

If you have Questions? Please contact Rich Hunter at stjameslife@gmail.com or 571-423-6482.

Voter Registration Drive Here at St. James on October 10-11

We will be hosting a Voter Registration Drive in preparation for the 2020 Elections, after all Masses on Saturday, October 10, and Sunday, October 11.

If you have not yet registered to vote, please consider registering and exercising this right that people have died and suffered for so that we may have it. Thank you.

Blessing of Pets—Saturday, October 3

We will have our annual Pet Blessing on Saturday morning, October 3, outside the Church, at the corner of Park Ave. and Spring St., at 9:30am. This event honors St. Francis of Assisi's observation that "All things of creation are children of the Father and thus brothers of man."

The blessing ceremony is open to all the pets of our parish—we do request that all Alligators, Crocodiles, Velociraptors, and large snakes are well fed prior to the blessing, as we cannot be held liable for any mishaps that might otherwise occur.

It's Not Too Late to Join High School PREP and Explore the Lord of the Rings

This fall, the High School PREP class will be taking a Catholic-focused look at the 2001 film, "The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring," based on the writings of celebrated Catholic author, J. R. R. Tolkien.

Using the Holy Bible and the Catechism of the Catholic Church, we will explore how the Catholic faith is woven into our culture by Tolkien.

The class meets on Wednesdays from 7:00pm to 8:15pm in Heller Hall (Door 13).

Memory Book for Dan Day—Please Contribute Your Best Memories of Dan!

Given the pandemic, we were unable to have a retirement celebration for music director Dan Day after his 30 years of dedicated service to the community of St. James. So, we are compiling a memory book for Dan filled with letters of appreciation and retirement cards from parishioners, as well as drawings from our youngsters (max 8.5" x 11"). You may include pictures of yourself or of your family too if you like. Send your memory book contributions to the parish office (905 Park Avenue, Falls Church, VA 22046) by September 30th. We will present Dan with our parish gift on Sunday, November 22nd, the feast day of St. Cecilia, the patron saint of musicians.

How Will You Begin to Prepare For This Season of Reflection and Preparation?

Saint James Youth Lector Program Needs Volunteers

The Youth Lector Program provides opportunities for children to grow closer to Jesus through active participation in the Mass as messengers of His Word. Youth lectors proclaim the first and second readings from Sacred Scripture and announce the petitions during the Prayer of the Faithful at the 9:00am. Sunday Masses. The program is open to students in grades 5-12. The time commitment is one hour on Sundays every 4-6 weeks.

Youth lectors should be able to read above grade level and speak in a way that can be clearly heard and understood. Public speaking experience is a plus but not required. Training is provided. Parents of youth lectors take an active and collaborative role by helping their children rehearse the readings at home on their scheduled week. For more information on joining the program, please, contact the Youth Lector Coordinator, Mrs. Kimberly Aubry, at kaubry1@gmail.com. Thank You!

Courage

Courage is a group that me regularly meets to offer fraternal, moral, and spiritual support for those who experience same-sex attractions and desire to live chaste lives according to the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church.

For more information, please contact Courage@arlingtondiocese.org or visit www.couragerc.net.

A Word on Masks From Father Scalia

Yes, it remains my expectation that anyone coming to Mass at Saint James, wear a mask (no different from the airport or any store. This is the Bishop's expectation as well). Also, I ask that you keep your masks apolitical. Endorsement of a candidate or party is not appropriate in church.

Adorers Needed!

We're still in need of adorers for Tuesday and Thursday afternoon Eucharistic Adoration, from 12:30pm to 6:30pm.

If you are interested, please contact Julie Marx:

Help our Parish Seminarian!

The past several weeks, I have mentioned Thomas Conroy, a young man who grew up at Saint James, went to our Parish School, and now wants to enter the Dominicans (the Order of Preachers). The only things keeping him from entering formation are his student loans. He is currently working with the Laboure Society to remove that obstacle.

Click here for more information, to hear his story, and to see how you can help: www.rescuevocations.org/thomas

Or you can reach out to him directly for more information on his vocation and how you can help: thomas@rescuevocations.org

Most of all, please keep him in your prayers!

40 Days for Life Kicked Off on Wednesday, September 23—But You Can Still Get Involved

Our local 40 Days for Life campaign is now taking place through November 1 on the sidewalk outside the abortion clinic at 900 South Washington Street, Falls Church. Please use our new online scheduler to sign up for a vigil hour: <https://prayforlife.org>.

If you have any questions about the “40 Days for Life” event, please contact Rich Hunter at stjameslife@gmail.com or at 571-443-6482.
