On The Way

Catechesis on Creation: The Promise of a Savior

Attentive readers will have noticed that in the reflections on the consequences of original sin, I omitted a rather crucial verse. Namely, the promise of a Savior. But this was not an oversight! That promise is so important, it deserves its own reflection.

The first person to be punished after sin is the serpent (yes, he's a person: the serpent is the devil, an angelic person). God says, "Because you have done this, cursed are you above all cattle, and above all wild animals; upon your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat all the days of your life" (Gen 3:14). Then God promises the serpent's ultimate defeat and how it will happen: "I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel" (Gen 3:15). Notice that even before pronouncing the consequences for our sin, God promises us a Savior. First in His mind is not punishment but salvation.

The punishment of the serpent will come from the woman's offspring (seed), who will bruise (or crush) the serpent's head. From this point on, the entire world awaits the fulfillment of that promise. Israel preserved the memory of the divine promise that a descendent of the woman will triumph over the evil one who had led us into sin. From this point on, God is directing all of history to the fulfillment of His promise.

Jesus fulfills the promise: "When the time had fully come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman" (Gal 4:4). He, the descendent of Eve, crushes the head (or power) of the devil. The movie The Passion of the Christ depicts our Lord literally crushing the head of a snake in the Garden of Gethsemane. Although not factual, that depiction is theologically true. By surrendering His will to the Father in the Garden (precisely what Adam did not do), our Lord deprives the evil one of any power; He decapitates Him.

Now, an alternate translation of this crucial verse is "she shall bruise your head." For centuries Christians have understood this as a reference to our Lady, who through the conception and birth of her Son crushes the devil's head. She doesn't accomplish this by herself, but by way of her divine motherhood she participates in our Lord's redemptive work.

Interestingly, Old Testament has some prefigurements or "types" of the woman who shall crush the evil one's head. In Judges 4, Jael slays Israel's foe Sisera by putting a tent peg through his head. In Judges 9, an unnamed woman crushes the head of Israel's persecutor Abimelech with a millstone. Judith entices the Assyrian General Holofernes to be alone with her, and then cuts off his head. In each instance, a woman of Israel steps forward and crushes the enemy's head when the strength of men has failed.

These women point to our Lady's perfect cooperation in the overthrowing of evil. No, she does not physically behead anyone. But by her humility and obedience, she undoes Eve's pride and disobedience. By her perfect cooperation with her Son's Sacrifice, she participates with Him in crushing the serpents head and in fulfilling the promise.

A St. James Parishioner Takes Her First Vows

Allison Gliot, the daughter of our very own Deacon Ed Gliot and Jean Gliot, our parish office manager, received the habit of the Daughters of St. Paul and made her first vows the last weekend in July at the Daughters of St. Paul in Boston, Massachusetts.

She chose Sister Allison Regina as her religious name. Regina is Latin for Queen, and it is a title for the Blessed Mother as well as her own mother's name.

History of The Bánica Mission

On August 21 & 22nd, we will take up our annual collection for the people of Bánica. To donate online to the Bánica Mission Annual Appeal, go to: membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/39242.

Here is a brief history of the Banica Mission. In 1991 the Diocese of Arlington adopted the parishes of Bánica and Pedro Santana, with the welcome and support of the Bishop of San Juan de la Maguana, in the Dominican Republic. Since then, the Diocese has provided priests, volunteers, and material support, and donations to the more than 13,000 faithful people living in the towns of Bánica, Pedro Santana, Sabana Cruz, and the more than 60 surrounding rural communities known as campos. The first missionary sent by Arlington was Rev. Gerard Creedon. Fr. Creedon organized the new parish of San Francisco de

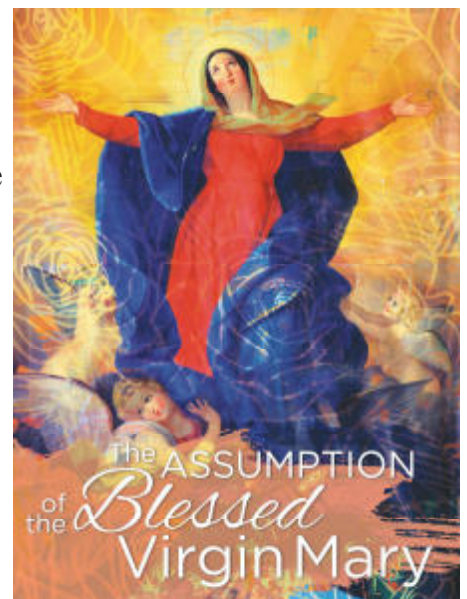

Asis in Bánica, and assisted in the reorganization of the existing parish of San Juan Bautista in Pedro Santana. Since Fr. Creedon, the following nine priests have served the Bánica Mission: Msgr. Thomas Cassidy, Rev. Donald Rooney, Very Rev. Patrick L. Posey, Rev. John O'Hara, Rev. Daniel Gee, Rev. Christopher Murphy, Rev. Keith O'Hare, and Rev. Jason Weber. Currently, Rev. Stephen McGraw and Rev. Jeb Donelan are assigned to the mission. To learn more about the Bánica Mission, go to: <https://arlingtonmissions.org/banica-mission/>

Sunday, August 15-Feast of the Assumption of Mary

The Feast of the Assumption of Mary falls on a Sunday this year. We will have our normal Mass schedule on this day. Because of this, the second collection in honor of this Feast will be combined with our normal offertory collection. To donate online to this special offertory collection, go to: membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/3363.

In reflecting on the Solemnity of the Assumption, Pope Francis said that Mary “is the model of faith and virtue,” and in contemplating her Assumption into heaven, we give her thanks “because she always precedes us on the pilgrimage of life and faith.”

St. James Feast Celebration

On Sunday, July 25th, the Parish celebrated the Solemnity of the Feast of St. James at the noon Mass. Following Mass there was a “Mini Camino,” going virtually to some of the principal sites along the Way. In imitation of the Camino pilgrims over the centuries, children and adults went to different stations, learned about Saint James, got their “passport” stamped, and concluded with nice refreshments at the end. After the Spanish Mass, parishioners enjoyed pupusas.

Thank you to the Young Professionals who helped coordinate our celebration.
