On The Way

Joseph: Model of Workers

In 1955 Pope Pius XII established May 1st as the Feast of Saint Joseph the Worker. Although the title was not new, the Pope chose the date as a deliberate rebuke to the socialist May Day celebrations. On May 1st, as Soviet Russia paraded its weaponry and arms in celebration of its workers' paradise, the Church celebrated the humble, simple man who brought more meaning to work than anyone else in history.

These were more than just competing celebrations; they were competing philosophies of work. The socialist nations viewed human labor in purely statist terms: work had worth because and to the degree that it helped the state. (Capitalism risks a similar tendency: work has worth because and to the degree that it turns a profit.) The Catholic view, as represented by Saint Joseph, is radically different. God Himself works (cf. Gen 2:2-3; Jn 5:17). The work of the human person, created in God's image and likeness, is a cooperation with and participation in His work.

Jesus was pleased to be known as the "carpenter's son" (Mt 13:55), thus bestowing a great dignity on human labor. According to the custom of the time, Joseph would have trained his Son in his trade. Eventually they would have worked side by side in the carpenter's shop. Joseph would have had a constant reminder of his simple work's dignity – in his case not only because he participated in God's ongoing work but also because God participated in his.

Saint Joseph is the Model of Workers not only because he worked hard but even more because he sanctified his labor with a sense of divine presence and purpose. What we find exceptional in Saint Joseph is to be normative for us. That is, we are to work with a sense of our working with God...and of God's working with us. No labor is so menial or small that it cannot be done with the sense of God's presence and the intention to engage in it with Him and for Him.

Joseph's example also means that we should work well. Sometimes this title is translated as the somewhat archaic "Model of Artisans." Now, most of us would not consider ourselves "artisans." We do not engage in that skilled craftsmanship that the word indicates. At the same time, we should approach our work with an artisan's attitude – wanting to do it professionally and well, seeking ways of improving and of crafting it better. Authentic human work is not just a matter of "Git-er-done." It is a way of showing love by doing things well.

Paradoxically, an essential element of work is...not working. Our work, although noble and even sacred, is not an end in itself. In the end, we are not created for work but for God. Indeed, God's own work was directed towards His rest on the seventh day (Gen 2:2-3). It is in that rest that His work reached its fulfillment. Our work, as a cooperation with and participation in His, should likewise be directed to rest. Therefore, just as it is helpful for us to imagine Joseph working side-by-side with Jesus, so also we should imagine the Holy Family, after a long day of labor, at rest and at peace in one another's company. May we find the same.

— Fr. Scalia

Church During COVID-19

In keeping with the Governor's executive orders, please observe social distancing and wear a mask when in the church.

Receiving Communion at the Communion Rail

Since the beginning of the pandemic, we have been distributing Holy Communion at the altar rail. We find this helps us distribute Communion both reverently and safely. As more people return to Mass it also might take some getting used to. Please make note of these instructions.

- There are Crosses six feet apart along the step of the rail.
- When coming forward for Communion, please go to the Cross farthest from you in your section (i.e. in the center or on the sides).
- Stand or kneel at that Cross.
- The minister will bring you Communion.
- If receiving Communion in the hand, please remove your mask first, then receive the Host.
- Consume the Host while at the altar rail and then return to your seat.
- Please remember that members of the same household do not have to practice social distancing and may stand (or kneel) together at the rail.
- Once those in the transepts have received, those coming down the main aisle should use the spaces on the sides of the communion rail as well as the front.

"I hunger for the bread of God, the flesh of Jesus Christ ..."

Lenten Fasting Requirements

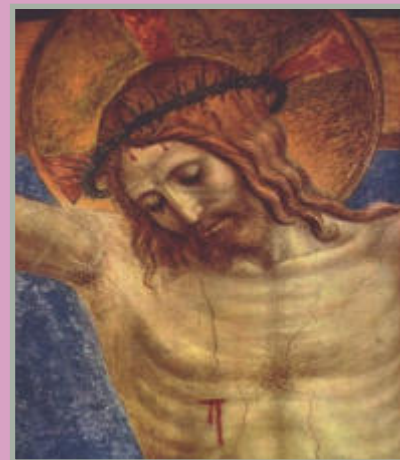

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. Also, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence.

For Roman Catholics, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal and two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon Roman Catholics from age 14 onwards.

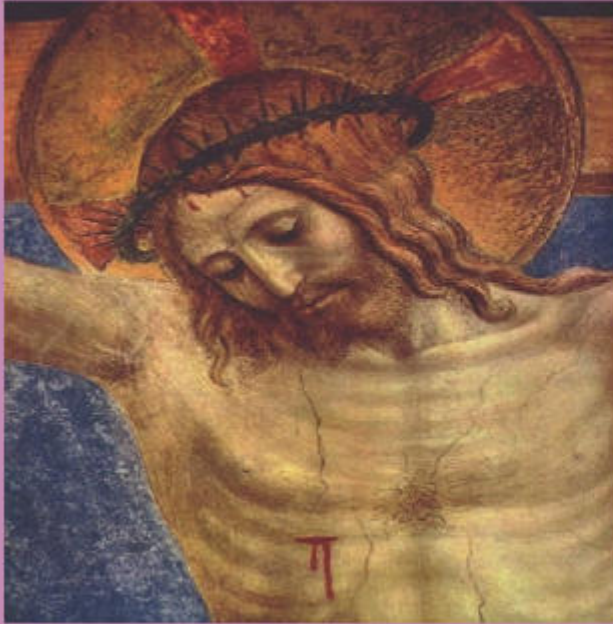

For more information on fasting during Lent, visit the United States Conference of Catholic Bishop's website at <http://j.mp/2UE6ubX>.

"Fasting cleanses the soul, raises the mind, subjects one's flesh to the spirit, renders the heart contrite and humble, scatters the clouds of concupiscence, quenches the fire of lust, and kindles the true light of chastity. Enter again into yourself."

WorkCamp 2021

Are you a high school student looking for a good way to spend some time this summer, helping others, learning, and growing in faith and service? Well, if so—the Diocese of Arlington’s WorkCamp Program is for you!

While the Diocese has yet to finalize the program's details, it will likely run from June 20 to June 26. Youth from St. James will join with other local parishes to meet at a local high school to begin each day with Mass, leave to work on projects in the local area and return to the high school for dinner and an evening program. Students would return to their homes each night after the program's conclusion.

Please send an email to Karen Graffam at klgraffam@gmail.com if you are interested in participating. Interested adults are also needed to volunteer as crew leaders and contractors.

We will send out more information when the Diocese finalizes its plans for the program.
