On The Way

Catechesis on Creation: Man and Woman, II

Last week we considered God's observation that it is "not good that the man should be alone" and then His decision to make a "helper fit for him." But then a curious thing happens in the narrative: God does not immediately create woman. Instead, He "formed out of the ground... every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name" (Gen 2:19). And at the end of all that, "there was not found a helper fit for him" (Gen 2:20).

It's a strange transition, as if God engaged in a trial-and-error process to find the "helper fit" for man. What's going on here?

By bringing that parade of animals to the man, God teaches him the difference between him and the rest of creation. The man is distinct and different in kind from all other creatures. Nothing in creation can ease his loneliness. The man is created for relationship with an equal, with someone like himself. He cannot find that companionship for which he was created in anything else.

There is a lesson here for all of us: created goods do not satisfy. Many people try to ease their loneliness with material things. It never works. Indeed, it only leads to further loneliness. Only one like us can ease our loneliness.

After imparting this lesson, God causes a deep sleep to fall upon the man, takes one of his ribs, from it makes woman, and brings her to the man. This action signifies the fundamental equality between man and woman. As an old interpretation observes, woman is not created from man's head, because she's not above him. Neither is she created from his foot, because she's not below him. She is created from his side, because she is his equal and his companion.

Unlike so many different religions and ideologies (both ancient and modern) that posit an inequality and thus a rivalry between man and woman, Genesis clearly teaches their equality. Man and woman are not meant to be in competition.

Yet at the same time, this equality does not mean man and woman are identical. The companion for man is equal to him, so that he can share his life with her. At the same time, she is also unlike him, so that he must give himself to someone different from himself. Because she is different, the man is called out of self-referential and selfish thinking. He cannot think of her as just the same as he, or as simply an extension of himself. Because she is different, he must think of another and not only himself. He must go out of himself, forget himself, to enter into relationship with her.

These ancient passages never lose their relevance. Contrary to some ancient myths, the difference between man and woman is not a punishment. Sexual differences are a gift from God. Contrary to the modern myths of transgender ideology, the difference between man and woman is real, not imagined. We do not choose our identity but are either male or female from the moment of our conception.

STATEMENT OF THE BISHOPS OF THE PROVINCE OF BALTIMORE AND THE ARCHDIOCESE OF WASHINGTON

Lifting the General Dispensation from the Obligation to Attend Mass

We, the Catholic Bishops of the Province of Baltimore and the Archdiocese of Washington, give thanks to Almighty God for the progress our country has made in curbing the coronavirus pandemic. The average number of new cases of COVID-19 continues to decline due to the observance of safety protocols and the increase of the availability of the vaccine. At this time, many places in our region are enjoying a return to some sense of normalcy.

Therefore, we are lifting the dispensation of the Sunday and Holy Days Mass obligation in the Archdiocese of Baltimore, the Archdiocese of Washington, and the Dioceses of Arlington, Richmond, Wheeling-Charleston, and Wilmington and reinstating that obligation beginning on Saturday, June 26, 2021 and Sunday, June 27, 2021. We welcome and encourage the Faithful to return to full in-person participation of the Sunday Eucharist, the source and summit of our Catholic faith (cf. Code of Canon Law, canon 1246-1247 and Catechism of the Catholic Church, n. 2180).

This obligation does not apply to those who are ill; those who have reason to believe that they were recently exposed to the coronavirus, another serious or contagious illness; those who are confined to their home, a hospital, or nursing facility; or those with serious underlying health conditions. One should consult his or her local pastor if questions arise about the obligation to attend Mass (Canon 1245 and the Catechism of the Catholic Church n. 2181).

Safety protocols and other liturgical directives in each diocese remain in effect until modified or revoked by the respective Diocesan Bishop.

Let us continue to be united in prayer for one another and for an end to the global pandemic.

DECLARACIÓN DE LOS OBISPOS DE LA PROVINCIA DE BALTIMORE Y LA ARQUIDIÓCESIS DE WASHINGTON

Levantamiento de la Dispensa General de la Obligación de Asistir a Misa

Nosotros, los obispos católicos de la provincia de Baltimore y la Arquidiócesis de Washington, damos gracias a Dios Todopoderoso por el progreso que nuestro país ha logrado para frenar la pandemia de coronavirus. El número promedio de nuevos casos de COVID-19 continúa disminuyendo debido a la observancia de los protocolos de seguridad y al aumento de la disponibilidad de la vacuna. En este momento, muchos lugares de nuestra región están disfrutando de una vuelta a la normalidad.

Por lo tanto, levantamos la dispensa de la obligación de la misa dominical y de los días santos de precepto en la Arquidiócesis de Baltimore, la Arquidiócesis de Washington y las Diócesis de Arlington, Richmond, Wheeling-Charleston y Wilmington, y restablecemos esa obligación a partir del sábado 26 de junio y el domingo 27 de junio de 2021. Damos la bienvenida y animamos a los fieles a que regresen a la plena participación en persona en la eucaristía dominical, fuente y cumbre de nuestra fe católica (cf. Código de Derecho Canónico, cánones 1246-1247 y Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, n. 2180).

Esta obligación no se aplica a los enfermos; quienes tengan motivos para creer que estuvieron expuestos recientemente al coronavirus, otra enfermedad grave o contagiosa; aquellos que estén confinados en su hogar, un hospital o un centro de enfermería; o aquellos con problemas de salud graves. Se debe consultar a su párroco si surgen preguntas sobre la obligación de asistir a la misa (canon 1245 y Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica n. 2181).

Los protocolos de seguridad y otras directivas litúrgicas en cada diócesis permanecen vigentes hasta que el Obispo diocesano respectivo los modifique o revoque.

Sigamos unidos en oración los unos por los otros y por el fin de la pandemia mundial.

Welcome to Saint James!

What influenced your decision to apply for seminary entrance?

Fr. Planty gave me the book "To Save a Thousand Souls," and I knew that further discernment of the vocation to the priesthood needed to be done in the seminary environment.

Why do you want to be a priest?

To save souls.

What are your favorite pastimes?

I love basketball! I like playing Frisbee a lot too, and I have an interest in economics as well.

What is your favorite quote?

"To know Jesus, Eternal Wisdom, is to know enough. To know everything, and not know Him, is to know nothing." - St. Louis-Marie de Montfort

Who is your favorite Saint and why?

St. John Paul II. In every aspect of his life, he lived with a constant zeal for the Church. Every person who encountered him was touched in a way that they remembered for the rest of their life. His relationship with Our Lady has demonstrated to me the importance of a loving relationship with Mary.
