On The Way

Technology and the Tree: The Cult of Technology

The word culture comes from cult, meaning worship. A culture always arises from its form of worship and devotion; from those things to which people dedicate themselves and by which they fashion their lives. The cult of Christ produced Christendom, the cult of Allah produced Muslim culture, the cult of Hindu another culture, and so on. The technological culture comes from the cult of technology.

Now, "cult of technology" doesn't mean that we bow down before our iPhones and burn incense to our laptops. It means that our technology has become the organizing principle of our lives. The instrument has become the master. We're rarely ever without our devices. I've heard that the original iPhone was designed according to the shape and size of the human hand, adapted to human existence. Now the opposite seems to be true, that we are expected to fashion and adapt our lives to technology.

Every culture in history has had some form of technology, and technology itself is not bad. Ours, however, is a culture determined by technology, not a culture with technology but a technological culture. Technology really is the new cult that forms the culture. So, what does that look like? What are some characteristics of this culture?

Efficiency in place of maturation. As the most primitive tools indicate, man has always sought how to do things more efficiently. But now efficiency has an outsized importance. We take it to be an end in itself. And this is at the cost of deeper human values. The most important things to the human person – relationships, virtues, prayer (not to mention good cheese and wine) – all take time. Trying to speed them up only ruins them. In many regards, we need to be slower and more deliberate, not more efficient.

An essential part of this efficiency is availability, the ability to be reached at any time. Which means that the space reserved for friends, family, and God is drastically reduced. It's hard to be present to others when you're willing to be interrupted by something else.

Data in place of wisdom. We live in the "information age." The amount of raw information available to us is staggering. But with all our "Big Data" and information, we haven't become any wiser. That's not technology's fault; it's not designed to make us wise. Information, data, and the empirical sciences in general can only tell us what and how. They cannot tell us why.

Problem is, the easy availability of all this information gives us the impression of being more learned and advanced. But the more important dimensions of human life – truth, charity, justice, mercy – cannot be captured by an algorithm. They cannot be gauged or measured by any technology. Only wisdom – that form of knowledge that receives and contemplates truth – can perceive them. And without such wisdom, all the information in the world is not only useless but dangerous.

Novelty in place of tradition. The rate of technology's advance in the past one hundred years is staggering. Now we receive regular and frequent updates to every device we own. Thus, we have come to equate new with better. This manner of thinking is hostile to anything that has come before. Our exaltation of the latest thing creates a hostility to the wisdom of the past. In the guise of increasing our knowledge, our technology actually reduces it.

November Prayer Intention of Pope Francis

People Who Suffer from Depression- We pray that people who suffer from depression or burn-out will find support and a light that opens them up to life.

Car Raffle Volunteer Liaison

St. James is looking for a volunteer to serve as our liaison with All Saints Catholic Church for the upcoming annual Five-Car Raffle. Duties include attending a virtual training on December 9th; serving as the main email contact with All Saints for St. James; and overseeing Car Raffle activities performed by St. James staff. Email Rich at rblickendorfer@stjamescatholic.org if you are interested.

Boy Scout Christmas Tree Sale

Due to a nationwide supply shortage, Boy Scout Troop 681 regrets that we will not be selling Christmas trees this year. We thank all of our loyal patrons for 40+ years of support. We hope to see you next year. We wish your family a merry Christmas.

Social Outreach Advent Season Gift Card Donations

The number of requests for gift cards has tripled from last year. Part of the reason for this is that Afghanistan refugee families will be helped with this effort as well. Gift cards can be accepted from Walmart, Target, Giant, and Safeway. However, Walmart and Target are strongly preferred. The options for contributing to our Social Outreach Gift Card Project are donate $25 gift cards or send a check so gift cards can be bought on your behalf.

Make checks payable to St. James. On the memo line, write SOC gift card donation. Place a card or check in an envelope marked Social Outreach Gift Card Project. Put the envelope in the collection basket, hand deliver to the Rectory Office, or mail the envelope to: St. James Catholic Church, 905 Park Avenue, Falls Church VA 22046. Thank you for your generosity in bringing joy to families during this Pandemic period.

New Ecumenical Event Planning and Study Group Forming

At the Last Supper, Jesus prayed for his disciples, “Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are” (John 17:11). The unity of all Christians continues to be the will of our Lord. We are forming a group at St. James to pray for and study ecumenism (Christian unity) and to plan prayer services and ecumenical events with other churches. Email Julie Conroy, jmtconroy@gmail.com, with questions.

Youth Ministry—Devotion, Dine, and Decorate

Come to the Holy Hour with Father John Paul for some Advent Reflection, then dine together and decorate cookies on Sunday, December 5th from 5:00pm-7:00pm. Youth Ministry will start in the church and then go to the Parish House.

To sign up for any event or if you have questions, email Karen Graffam, klgraffam@gmail.com. Follow Youth Ministry activities on the parish website, <https://www.stjamescatholic.org/youth> as well as on Instagram at @stjamescatholic.

Seeking 2022 Calendars & Note Cards

The Social Outreach Committee is collecting donations for 2022 calendars, all sizes, for the Kairo Project for Women Prisoners and for families enrolled in Food Distribution. No calendars with spiral metal binding or note cards with glitter please. Drop off the calendars in the food collection baskets at the Church entrances or box in the rectory office before Thanksgiving. Stewardship—The Gift of Time, Talent and Treasure

Giving Tuesday is November 30th, 2021. Support the 2021-2022 SJS Annual Appeal

Established in 2012, the SJS Annual Appeal keeps our 100+ year old school competitive and affordable to all who desire a Catholic education.

$40,000 Challenge Match!

They believe that our teachers are the finest educators they have ever encountered and that through them, our students are able to not only thrive academically but grow in the virtues of service.

By providing this matching gift, this couple hopes to inspire many donations to Saint James Catholic School. Every dollar you donate will be matched up to $40,000. It is our hope that this matching gift will help us achieve our $80,000 goal in record time.
