On The Way

Typing Lessons: Isaac as a Type of Christ

Perhaps the most difficult story in scripture is the account in Genesis 22 traditionally known as the "Binding of Isaac." It is the telling of Abraham's bringing Isaac to Mount Moriah to offer him in sacrifice, in obedience to God's command. The story is practically impossible to explain fully. But one way – indeed, the best way – to make sense of it is to understand Isaac as a type or prefiguration of Christ.

In the account, God commands Abraham, "Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering upon one of the mountains of which I shall tell you." Note that Isaac is described as Abraham's only and beloved son. He is also the son of the covenant, the one promised by God and through whom God will continue the line of Abraham and fulfill His promises.

Abraham travels with Isaac three days. Which means that Isaac is as good as dead for three days. When Abraham ascends the mountain, Isaac follows him carrying on his back the wood for the fire. At one point Isaac asks, "Where is the lamb for the burnt offering?" Abraham mysteriously replies, "God will provide himself the lamb for a burnt offering." When they arrive at the sight of sacrifice, Abraham binds Isaac, goes to cut his throat, but is stopped at the last moment by the angel of God. Spying a ram in the thickets nearby, Abraham offers that animal in sacrifice instead.

This chapter is strong medicine, meant to break Abraham and his descendants of any notion of human sacrifice. But more than that, it also looks to the future. By way of the account, God prepares the minds and hearts of the readers to grasp what He Himself does later. Abraham bluntly prophesies the coming of Christ: "God will provide." But the entire narrative announces by types the sacrifice of Christ.

Remember, every type and fulfillment have similarities that enable us to associate them with each other and differences between them that highlight Christ's superiority. Isaac is clearly a type or figure of Christ – Who is the eternal Father's only and beloved Son...Who carries the wood of the Cross up the mountain of Calvary...Who is bound to the Cross for sacrifice.

Isaac is the only and beloved son who was not sacrificed. Thus, the primary and obvious lesson of the story is that, unlike the gods of the surrounding nations, God will never ask His people to offer their children in sacrifice. They can place complete trust in Him because He does not desire their destruction.

But the differences between them reveals even more. Christ is the only and beloved eternal Son of the Father Who in obedience to His Father allows Himself to be bound and sacrificed. Thus, the ultimate meaning of this type is, as Abraham says, that God Himself provides. He is not a god who desires human sacrifice. Rather, He is the God Who Himself provides the Sacrifice of His beloved and only-begotten Son. Just Isaac's deliverance from death preserved the covenant with Abraham, so our Lord's sacrifice established the new and eternal covenant.

Parish Religious Education Program (PREP) for High School

This fall, the St. James high school PREP program will be exploring the “Altaration: The Mystery of the Mass Revealed” program for teens. It will be a wonderful way to help our teens understand Mass on a deeper level. All in grades 9-12 are invited to join us for this free program...please contact Dcn Ed Gliot (dcned@stjamescatholic.org) for more information or to sign up.

The program will be offered on Tuesday evenings from 7:00pm-8:15pm in the School Library so that siblings attending K-8 PREP can come into class together. Understanding the stress of teens in high school, especially in these times, we will not meet during busy times for teens (i.e., the last week of the school’s academic quarter). Here is the schedule for the program:

- Tuesday, September 28th: More Than Meets the Eye
- Tuesday, October 5th: Our Father’s Plan
- Tuesday, October 12th: The Mystery Revealed
- Tuesday, October 19th: What is Our Response?
- Tuesday, November 9th: The ‘Whys’ Behind the ‘Whats’ (part 1)
- Tuesday, November 16th: The ‘Whys’ Behind the ‘Whats’ (part 2)

Come join us as we dive more deeply into the great mystery of the Mass and what it means for us today! Watch the following video trailer for the program from Ascension Press, <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nwqpan7umwQ>.

ALTARATION
THE MYSTERY OF THE MASS REVEALED

The Answer to
“Why Do I Have to Go to Mass?”

The goal of Altaration is not to fill teens’ heads with information but to pierce their hearts with transformation and get them to appreciate the awesome beauty and mystery of the Mass.

Through a unique five-part learning experience, teens will come to see the Mass and the priesthood in a dramatically new way.

After experiencing the “whys” behind the “whats” of the Mass, Catholic teens will:

- Enter prepared,
- Participate with sincerity,
- And exit with purpose!
