On The Way

Typing Lessons: Melchizedek as a Type of Christ

One of the most enigmatic figures in Scripture is Melchizedek. We know very little about him and yet he has great importance. The only actual account of him is a mere three verses: "And Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was priest of God Most High. And he blessed him and said, 'Blessed be Abram by God Most High, maker of heaven and earth; and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand!' And Abram gave him a tenth of everything" (Gen 14:18-20).

From this one passage, Melchizedek would occupy Israel's imagination for centuries. Later the Psalmist would write, in a prophecy about the Messiah, "You are a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek" (Ps 110:4). So, this mysterious figure was understood to be an image or type of the Messiah; what we know about him would be fulfilled in the Messiah. The letter to the Hebrews applies this to Jesus explicitly: "Jesus has gone as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek" (Heb 6:20).

So, what constituted the priesthood of Melchizedek? What are the awaited qualities of the Messiah that he foreshadowed? Well, the little that we know from Genesis provides important information about the One Who is to come: Melchizedek is a king; he is king of Salem, which would later be Jerusalem; since he is king of Salem (i.e. Shalom) he is king of peace; in addition to being a king, he is also a priest; he offers bread and wine.

The letter to the Hebrews adds one more quality: Melchizedek is "without father or mother or genealogy, and has neither beginning of days nor end of life" (Heb 7:3). He appears and disappears from Scripture without any reference to his origin or end.

What we see faintly in Melchizedek we find perfectly and surpassingly in Jesus Christ. First, He is the King of Jerusalem. On Palm Sunday He enters Jerusalem to claim authority over the city. He is also King of Peace. He enters Jerusalem on a donkey, a sign of peace, not on a warhorse. But He establishes peace in a manner never considered or imagined before. By His death He establishes peace between God and man and therefore the possibility of peace among all men.

Jesus Christ is also the Priest, Who offers not just bread and wine but the bread and wine that have become His Body and Blood. At the Last Supper and on the Cross, the true meaning of offering bread and wine is revealed. Melchizedek's humble offering points to Christ's definitive Sacrifice.

Finally, like Melchizedek, Jesus has a priesthood not based on genealogy or inheritance. He "has become a priest, not according to a legal requirement concerning bodily descent but by the power of an indestructible life" (Heb 7:16). Melchizedek's lack of origin and end pointed to a priesthood that was more than human, that had its origins in the Divine. And that is precisely the priesthood of Jesus Christ. It comes to us not by human generation, inheritance, or will, but by the initiative of God Himself.

Creation Care Ministry Meeting

Each year, the Catholic Church celebrates the Season of Creation, held from September 1st to October 4th, the feast day of St. Francis of Assisi.

You can learn more by going to seasonofcreation.org, but you can also commemorate the month by joining the Creation Care Ministry meeting on Monday, September 20th at 7:30pm at the Parish House. Feel free to email Zoey Maraist, zoeydimauro@gmail.com, for more information or to join the email list.

Hurricane Ida Special Collection

Thank you to all who contributed to the special collection for Haiti at the end of August. Your generosity was appreciated and will help so many.

Bishop Burbidge has requested the support of our parishes again by conducting a second special collection this weekend, September 18-19, to help the victims of Hurricane Ida. Once again, we are called upon to help those who have faced loss and devastation. If you can support this effort, donate online, <https://membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/44624>.

Pro-Life Events

The 40 Days for Life, September 22 to October 31, prayer vigil is taking place outside the abortion clinic in our parish (900 S. Washington Street). Sign up for a time slot at prayforlife.org. Our goal as a parish is to maintain the vigil on Wednesdays from 7:00am to 7:00pm, but you can sign up for time slots on other days as well.

On October 3rd, the first Sunday in October, from 2:00pm to 3:00pm is Respect Life Sunday. It is a time to stand in peaceful, prayerful public witness alongside other local believers in our annual Life Chain. Contact Rich Hunter, StJamesLife@gmail.com, with questions.

Maintenance Fund Second Collection

Next weekend, September 25-26, we will have a second collection for our Parish Maintenance Fund. Your faithful support of our beautiful, historic Church and School—both over 100 years old—is greatly appreciated.

It is a challenge for our facilities staff to maintain a campus with seven buildings, all of which are in a constant, heavy use. As always, thank you for your kindness and generosity!

If you prefer to donate online, visit <https://membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/3365>.

Forming A Divine Mercy Cenacle

This fall, Saint James will be forming a Divine Mercy Cenacle. A cenacle is a group devoted to praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet for the sick and dying and to growing in holiness through the study of scripture, the Catechism, and the Diary of Saint Faustina. The group will also take on a particular work of mercy for the parish. The cenacle would meet twice a month. To learn more, visit, www.thedivinemercy.org/eadm/about-eadm.

If interested, email Yvonne McCool at YMMcCool@outlook.com and come to an informational meeting on Thursday, September 30 at 10:00am in the Knecht conference room.

Catechetical Sunday

Each year, the Catholic Church in the United States designates the third Sunday in September as “Catechetical Sunday,” — a day on which to celebrate and pray for the Church’s mission to teach the Gospel to all people. Our parish catechists and their assistants as well as our Catholic School teachers are responding to a call to share the gift of faith with others, even as they deepen their own faith. They know that this calling ultimately comes from God, whose Holy Spirit inspires and guides them. Therefore, we will recognize them in a special commissioning ceremony at the 12:00pm and 2:30pm Masses today. We ask God’s blessing on them as they begin this new school year, supporting the parents of their students in their responsibility to educate their children in the Catholic faith.

This year’s theme for Catechetical Sunday is: “Say the Word and My Soul Shall be Healed.”

Guided Family Holy Hour

Have you wanted to introduce your children to Adoration of the Eucharist, but were afraid that they might not “get it”? If so, make plans to attend our “Guided Children’s Adoration” program with Father John Paul next Saturday, September 25th at 10:00am.

All families are invited. The Holy Hour will include a guided meditation for the whole family.

Future Saturday dates at 10:00am:

- October 23, 2021
- November 27, 2021

See you there!

Supporting Our St. James' Religious Education Program During The Month of September

If you did not get a chance to donate to our Parish Religious Education Program, affectionately known as "PREP", last week, you can still donate. Under Sister Regina Rosarii's leadership, our PREP program continues to thrive with a team of dedicated catechists and assistants who diligently work to prepare our parish children to receive the Sacraments and increase their knowledge of our Catholic faith so that they may "know, love, and serve the Lord" more fully in this life. Please be as generous as you can and keep all of our PREP teachers and children in your prayers as they return to the classroom.

If you have any questions or would like to volunteer in some capacity to support the PREP program, please reach out to Sister Regina at dre@saintjameschool.org or 703-533-1182 x103. To donate online, visit <https://membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/1490>.

Apoyando nuestro Programa de Educación Religiosa aquí en St. James durante el mes de septiembre

Si no tuvieron la oportunidad de donar a nuestro Programa de Educación Religiosa Parroquial, cariñosamente conocido como "PREP", la semana pasada, todavía se puede hacerlo. Bajo el liderazgo de la Hermana Regina Rosarii, nuestro programa PREP continúa prosperando con un equipo de catequistas y asistentes dedicados que trabajan diligentemente para preparar a los niños de nuestra parroquia para recibir los sacramentos y aumentar su conocimiento de nuestra fe católica para que puedan "conocer, amar y que sirvan al Señor" más plenamente en esta vida. Por favor sea tan generoso como pueda y mantenga a todos nuestros maestros y niños de PREP en sus oraciones cuando regresen al salón de clases.

Si tiene alguna pregunta o le gustaría ser voluntario de alguna manera para apoyar el programa PREP, comuníquese con la Hermana Regina en dre@saintjameschool.org o al 703-533-1182 x103. Para donar en línea, visite <https://membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/1490>.

Parish Religious Education Program (PREP) for High School

This fall, the St. James high school PREP program will be exploring the “Altaration: The Mystery of the Mass Revealed” program for teens. It will be a wonderful way to help our teens understand the Mass on a deeper level. All in grades 9-12 are invited to join us for this free program. Please contact Deacon Ed Gliot (dcned@stjamescatholic.org) for more information or to sign up.

The program will be offered on Tuesday evenings from 7:00pm to 8:15pm in the School Library so that siblings attending K-8 PREP can come into class together. Visit our website, for the complete schedule, <https://www.stjamescatholic.org/religious-ed/religious-ed-calendar> and to watch a video preview of the program.

Come join us as we dive more deeply into the great mystery of the Mass and what it means for us today!

ALTARATION

THE MYSTERY OF THE MASS REVEALED

The Answer to
“Why Do I Have to Go to Mass?”

The goal of Altaration is not to fill teens’ heads with information but to pierce their hearts with transformation and get them to appreciate the awesome beauty and mystery of the Mass.

Through a unique five-part learning experience, teens will come to see the Mass and the priesthood in a dramatically new way.

After experiencing the “whys” behind the “whats” of the Mass, Catholic teens will:

- Enter prepared.
- Participate with sincerity.
- And exit with purpose!

Knights of Columbus/INOVA Blood Drive

The Knights of Columbus are holding their next blood drive on Sunday, September 26th, from 8:30am to 2:30pm, at the Knights of Columbus Council 2473 Main Ballroom, 5115 Little Falls Road, North Arlington. INOVA's five hospitals are experiencing a critical blood shortage for all their patients, including cancer patients, surgeries and emergencies, and need help to replenish their blood supply. Remember, your one blood donation could actually save up to three lives. As always, INOVA will ensure that the strictest safety procedures are followed so that your donation is safe and efficient. The Knights and INOVA would be grateful for your humanitarian gift of life. To schedule your appointment: go to <https://bit.ly/Knights0926>, use Sponsor Code 6216 and call 1-866-BLOODSAVES (1-866-256-6372), or email Bob Muschamp at bobpatmuschamp@yahoo.com and provide your name and your preferred time to donate. For any questions, call Len Sese, a Knight and St. James parishioner, at 703-641-4843.
