23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"—that is, "Be opened!" - Mk 7:32-34

On The Way

Typing Lessons: Abel as a Type of Christ

Jesus Christ is throughout the Old Testament. We encounter Him in the prophecies about His coming. But perhaps even more we encounter Him in the types – the prefigurements that point to Him. The first type we encounter after the Fall is Abel, the second son of Adam and Eve (cf. Gen 4).

Scripture tells us that Abel was shepherd who brought to the Lord “the firstlings of his flock and of their fat portions” (Gen 4:4). In other words, he gave to the Lord the first born of his flock (in our economic terms, he sacrificed his capital). In particular, he offered a lamb (firstling). The Lord was pleased with his offering but not with his brother Cain's. Out of envy, Cain murdered his brother, whose blood later cries out to God.

So, we have these essentials about Abel: he is a shepherd, who offers a pleasing sacrifice, who is murdered out of envy, and whose blood cries out. Although his story is very brief, it has a profound significance in Israel's narrative. He is the first to offer firstlings, as the Israelites were later commanded to do (cf. Ex 13). He is the first to suffer for his devotion to the Lord, as the Israelites later would. His blood cries out to the Lord, as the groaning of the Israelites would later rise to the Lord's ears (cf. Ex 3).

At the same time, and in a mysterious way, Abel already announces Jesus Christ, Who fulfills the story of Abel in a surpassing manner. Everything that we see in preliminary form in Abel we find writ large in Jesus Christ: sacrifice, murder, and blood.

First, on the Cross our Lord is both shepherd and sheep. He is the definitive shepherd, the Good Shepherd, Who lays down His life for the sheep. At the same time, as an Israelite He is a member of the Lord's own flock – the Lamb of God. Thus, on the Cross He offers Himself as the best of the flock, the Lamb of God, in an act of worship perfectly pleasing to the Father.

Second, although Christ offers His own life on the Cross, He does so through the hands of His persecutors. He is the victim of envy, as was Abel. “It was out of envy that the chief priests had handed him over” (Mk 15:10).

Third, the Blood of Christ cries out to the Father. We are redeemed by His Blood. He establishes the New Covenant (New Testament) in His blood. The letter to the Hebrews makes the Jesus/Abel connection explicit. It speaks of Jesus as “the mediator of a new covenant” whose “sprinkled blood... speaks more eloquently than that of Abel” (Heb 12:24).

In noting these similarities, we should appreciate even more the differences. Abel offered a sacrifice apart from himself; Jesus offered Himself as the Lamb. Abel lost his life; Jesus gave His. Abel's blood cried out for vengeance; Jesus' appeals to the Father for mercy.

The next time at Mass you hear the words “the gifts of your servant Abel the just,” keep in mind the ancient and profound reference to a figure who announces Christ and whose simple offering helps us to appreciate Christ's divine offering.

Next week: Melchizedek as a type of Christ

Parish Religious Education Program (PREP) for High School

This fall, the St. James high school PREP program will be exploring the “Altaration: The Mystery of the Mass Revealed” program for teens. It will be a wonderful way to help our teens understand Mass on a deeper level. All in grades 9-12 are invited to join us for this free program...please contact Dcn Ed Gliot (dcned@stjamescatholic.org) for more information or to sign up.

The program will be offered on Tuesday evenings from 7:00pm-8:15pm in the School Library so that siblings attending K-8 PREP can come into class together. Understanding the stress of teens in high school, especially in these times, we will not meet during busy times for teens (i.e., the last week of the school’s academic quarter). Here is the schedule for the program:

- Tuesday, September 28th: More Than Meets the Eye
- Tuesday, October 5th: Our Father’s Plan
- Tuesday, October 12th: The Mystery Revealed
- Tuesday, October 19th: What is Our Response?
- Tuesday, November 9th: The ‘Whys’ Behind the ‘Whats’ (part 1)
- Tuesday, November 16th: The ‘Whys’ Behind the ‘Whats’ (part 2)

Come join us as we dive more deeply into the great mystery of the Mass and what it means for us today! Watch the following video trailer for the program from Ascension Press, <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nwqpan7umwQ>.

ALTARATION
THE MYSTERY OF THE MASS REVEALED

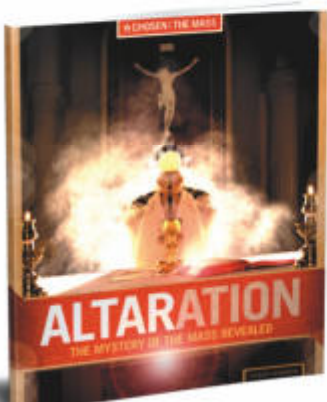

The Answer to
“Why Do I Have to Go to Mass?”

The goal of Altaration is not to fill teens' heads with information but to pierce their hearts with transformation and get them to appreciate the awesome beauty and mystery of the Mass.

Through a unique five-part learning experience, teens will come to see the Mass and the priesthood in a dramatically new way.

After experiencing the “whys” behind the “whats” of the Mass, Catholic teens will:

- Enter prepared,
- Participate with sincerity,
- And exit with purpose!

Stewardship-The Gift of Time, Talent and Treasure

Second Collection for Catholic University September 4-5

This weekend, September 4-5, parishes across the diocese will take up a special collection to raise funds for The Catholic University of America, the national university of the Catholic Church. Located in the heart of the nation's capital, Catholic University, founded in 1887, offers graduate and undergraduate courses in more than 180 academic programs. It is the only higher education institution founded by the U.S. Bishops, and this is the only national collection taken for higher education in Catholic churches across the country. By giving to this special collection, you will help support more than 6,000 students who are seeking a faith-filled education at an institution that supports cutting edge research in multiple fields. Many in the Arlington diocese, as well as Virginia and the Mid-Atlantic region, attend the university; about 16 percent of alumni live in Virginia. Your investment will enable the University to continue to support the Church and to advance its work of preparing the next generation of leaders, both religious and lay, of our Church and nation. Thank you for your generosity.

To donate online, visit <https://membership.faithdirect.net/givenow/VA50/1491>.

Second Collection for St. James' Religious Education Program September 11-12

Next weekend, September 11-12, we will be taking up a second collection in support of our Parish Religious Education Program, affectionately known as "PREP." Under Sister Regina Rosarii's leadership, our PREP program continues to thrive with a team of dedicated catechists and assistants who diligently work to prepare our parish children to receive the Sacraments and increase their knowledge of our Catholic faith so that they may "know, love, and serve the Lord" more fully in this life. Please be as generous as you can and keep all of our PREP teachers and children in your prayers as they return to the classroom.

If you have any questions or would like to volunteer in some capacity to support the PREP program, please reach out to Sister Regina at dre@saintjameschool.org or 703-533-1182 x103.
