2017 Bishop's Lenten Appeal
Offering hands to serve and hearts to love

Next weekend, every family in our parish will be asked to complete a Bishop's Lenten Appeal (BLA) pledge form at Mass. If you have already donated through the mail or online or are not able to participate, there will be a place to note that on the form. Please read the BLA newsletter inserted in today's bulletin with information about how the BLA funds are distributed throughout our diocese to help thousands of people each year. Then, prayerfully consider joining in support by making a pledge. Through your support of this important appeal, you become the hands and heart of our Lord Jesus!

From Our Pastor

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; it is in dying that we are born again to eternal life.

—Prayer of St. Francis

As we heard in today's readings, we are charged as Christians to love and serve one another in a profound way. At St. James that charge has been met manifold. You do not turn away from the needy or forsaken here; rather, you open your hearts to them time and time again. I see it in large ways and small, as you help each other cope with illnesses, the weather, and offer your time to our ministries.

As we ready ourselves to begin our Lenten journey, Bishop Burbidge has invited us to walk with Christ during his first diocesan Lenten Appeal, which has the theme "Offering Hands to Serve and Hearts to Love." The BLA provides funding for many diocesan programs: supports our seminarians, the programs of Catholic Charities, tuition assistance for our Catholic Schools, our Spanish Apostolate as well as evangelization efforts. This endeavor seeks to aid all segments of our diocese: young, old and those of us "in between."

You should have, by now, received a mailing from the Bishop asking for your support. Next weekend, you will have the opportunity to make your 2017 pledge with our "in pew" effort. You will be able to note on the form you receive that you have already donated by mail or online, or that you are not able to participate. Please read the BLA insert in today's bulletin for more information.

I am immensely grateful for your commitment to this parish, our school, and our diocese. Christ has blessed me with your support and I know the many who will benefit from our financial gifts will be blessed by you as well.

February 19 -- Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings: Leviticus 19:1-2, 17-18, Psalm 103: 1-2, 3-4, 8, 10, 12-13, 1 Corinthians 3:16-23, Matthew 5:38-48

In this week's video, Tim Gray says that the Truth is strong, like iron, but to be shared it must be warmed and heated with Love. Converting a secular culture requires a radical love of our enemies so that their hearts can be open to our message that Jesus loves them. Reflection: Pray to the Lord about how you can share love radically, particularly if there is someone you consider an "enemy."

Comfort for the Afflicted.

That all those who are afflicted, especially the poor, refugees, and marginalized, may find welcome and comfort in our communities.

URGENT: Sacredness of Life. We pray for the children who are in danger from the interruption of pregnancy, as well as for persons who are at the end of life – every life is sacred! – so that no one is left alone and that love may defend the meaning of life.

Pray for Those Serving Overseas

Please pray for those serving in the military and foreign service, especially Col. George B. Walsh, USA, and Capt. Albert C. Young, USAF. Send names to bulletin@stjamescatholic.org and let us know when your loved ones return safely!

IT'S TIME FOR OUR ANNUAL CAR RAFFLE

All Saints Parish in Manassas has invited St. James once again to participate in their 5-car and cash raffle. Prizes this year include five brand new 2017 vehicles from Koons of Manassas (Honda Civic, Buick Verano, GMC Sierra Truck, Honda CRV Sport Utility and Honda Odyssey Van). You will soon receive your car raffle tickets in the mail.

This raffle allows the purchaser of a single $5.00 ticket the prospect of winning a vehicle or a share of the $20,000 in cash prizes. This makes "selling" the tickets at work or to family, friends, and neighbors more like an opportunity – just show them the ticket – it will sell itself! The odds of winning with this raffle are far better than winning the Lottery or Power Ball. So please participate in this year's car raffle. Our parish ministries will benefit! Last year, the car raffle earned nearly $12,000 for the parish.

Please direct any questions to Rich Blickendorfer at 703-532-8815.

Good luck!

Dedicatory Services Conducted by Bishop Van de Vyver.

Ryan, of New York—Is a Handsome Edifice.

The new St. James Catholic Church at West Falls Church, Va., was dedicated yesterday morning by the Right Rev. Van de Vyver, Bishop of Richmond. The ceremonies were performed in the presence of a large congregation from West Falls and neighboring churches, and a large committee of clergy from near-by parishes in Virginia, the District of Columbia, and Maryland.

The new edifice, a handsome structure of light stone with stained glass windows, is the gift of Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan, of New York. It cost $17,000, and the entire sum was contributed by Mrs. Ryan. The first church of St. James at West Falls was built in 1871 on ground donated for that purpose by Mrs. Sarah Sewell. This church was under the control of the Jesuits until some time in the '80's, when it passed under the management of the Diocese of Richmond, and the parish was assigned to Rev. Father Cutler of Alexandria, Va. In 1892 Rev. E. M. Tearney, the present pastor, was assigned to the station, and has remained there ever since. From the funds set aside by her every year for charitable, philanthropic, and religious work, Mrs. Ryan gave Bishop Van de Vver, the sum of $17,000 to expend as he desired. He concluded to erect a church for the congregation at West Falls and transferred the funds to the officers of that congregation. The handsome structure is the result.

DEDICATION ON MAY 17, 1903

The dedicatory services began yesterday morning at 10:00 o'clock. Bishop Van de Vyver proceeded with the dedication by the recitation of the litany, and the blessing of the church. The celebrant of the Mass was Rev. Charles Donahue, of Martinsburg, W. Va. The deacon, assisting him, was Rev. Michael Dineen of Baltimore, and the subdeacon, Rev. James Donahoe of Baltimore. The master of ceremonies was Rev. Joseph Mallon, of Tennallytown.

The dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. T. X. McCarthy, of St. Aloysius Church, Washington. He first dwelt on the building as the temple of God, and the means by which the congregation could secure the blessings of the various sacraments. "The church," he said, "is the foundation of all religious and civil faith." Bishop Van de Vyver spoke briefly after the conclusion of the address by Father McCarthy. Without mentioning the name of the donor, he asked the congregation to remember the benefactress in their prayers, especially since she expected no material return from this expenditure. He exhorted the members to be faithful to their vows and to be punctual in their attendance to Mass on Sunday and through the week.

The music was under the direction of Miss Ada Jones. Miss Katharyn Lackey, of Tennallytown, was the organist. The members of the choir were Mrs. M. Saxton, Misses Ada Jones, Louise Jones, Lillian Burke, Mr. M. Saxton and Mr. Howard Burr. The church choir was assisted by the choir from Tennallytown. During the services Gounod's mass was sung. The offertory consisted of Giorza's "Regina Coeli." 7 o'clock, Rev. Father Elliott, Paulist, of the Catholic University, preached in the new church. At the services, the choir rendered Giorza's solemn high vespers.
