Stewardship Notes

Saint James Catholic Church is an iconic figure in our local landscape. Generations have found Christ here in Sacrament and community. As we prepare to celebrate our 125th Anniversary, we must turn our attention to this beautiful structure whose signs of aging are all too apparent: worn pew cushions, broken kneelers, cracked plaster and stained glass windows. We are entrusted to be good stewards of this historic building. As such we have begun a limited initiative to raise $125,000 by early spring to address these concerns: to date more than $74,000 has been donated. Every gift is important donations of $1,250 and above will be recognized on a plaque in the St. Anthony's chapel and can be paid throughout the year. Brochures can be found in the back of the Church; questions can be directed to Christine Hughes at advancement@stjamescatholic.org. Thank you for your prayers and support as we continue to maintain our spiritual home.

January 29, 2017

Greetings Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

United with all dioceses across the country, we celebrate National Catholic Schools Week beginning on Sunday, January 29th and concluding on Saturday, February 4th. This is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the great gift of Catholic education here in the Diocese of Arlington. The theme this year from the National Catholic Education Association is once again: Catholic Schools: Communities of Faith, Knowledge and Service. Our diocese is blessed with 37 elementary schools, four high schools, four stand-alone preschools, and four independent Catholic schools that educate over 17,600 children from Winchester to Arlington and from Fredericksburg to Alexandria. Catholic Schools Week is a perfect time to learn more about our Catholic schools and I encourage you to attend one of the many Open Houses throughout the Diocese.

We have much to celebrate here in our Diocese regarding Catholic Education. Our elementary schools are innovative, faith-filled, and exciting places to learn. Over sixty percent (60%) of our schools are U.S. Department of Education Blue Ribbon Schools which honors schools with top academic programs. Our Catholic schools are guided by gifted pastors and principals and with the dedicated service of over 1,400 educators who provide a quality, Christ-filled education each and every day.

We are blessed, too, with vibrant, Catholic high schools that truly live the theme of communities of faith, knowledge and service. We graduate 100 percent of students from our high schools and 98 percent are accepted into colleges and universities. Last year, our students received $83.2 million in scholarships and provided over 350,000 hours of service both at home and abroad. Our students truly embrace the Gospel message as reflected in their generous service on behalf of others and our communities and by the fact that over 130 vocations to Priesthood and Consecrated Life have come from graduates of our high schools.

I am grateful to all those in our Catholic schools who assist parents in the education and formation of their children and to the many people throughout our diocese who give of their financial resources and time to support our schools. Your generosity is deeply appreciated.

May Our Lord Jesus continue to shower his blessings upon our Catholic schools so that they may remain Communities of Faith, Knowledge and Service.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge
Bishop of Arlington

Weekly Reflection

Adapted from Opening the Word, an Augustine Institute Program available on FORMED.org

January 29 Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings: Zephaniah 2:3, 3:12-13; Psalm 146:6-7, 8-9, 9-10; 1 Corinthians 1:26-31; Matthew 5:1-12a
<http://usccb.org/bible/readings/012917.cfm>

In this week's video, Michel Therrien reflects on the paradox of the beatitudes. In Greek, the word for blessed means someone so fortunate they should be to be envied. Yet in the beatitudes, Jesus tells us that those who are suffering are blessed. This is a reversal of the world's understanding of happiness and blessings which are temporary and lead to emptiness. Jesus tells us that true happiness is found in God. Instead of seeking power, we should be meek. Instead of wealth, we should strive for poverty of spirit. Instead of pleasure, we can find comfort in our sorrow. The beatitudes help us imitate God's ways through total attachment to him. Throughout history, various saints have modelled this dedication to God that radiates happiness despite suffering and challenges. Each of us can find happiness by being one with the attitude of God.

Reflection: Which of the beatitudes do you think Jesus might be asking you to practice in your life right now?

Presentation of the Lord – Candlemas Thursday, February 2, 2017

Since the early centuries, Christians have marked the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord by blessing candles for use in church and home. This year, we will bless candles during the daily Masses on February 2. You will be able to take a candle home (one per family, please.) to use during the year for special celebrations and feast days.

We will keep the seasons of the year together in the Light of Christ, a Light no darkness can overpower.

This year we are celebrating our 125th anniversary with events, our oral history project and a weekly history lesson in our bulletin! Return here to relive our growth from a small frame church to our present iconic building which is home to thousands of parishioners.

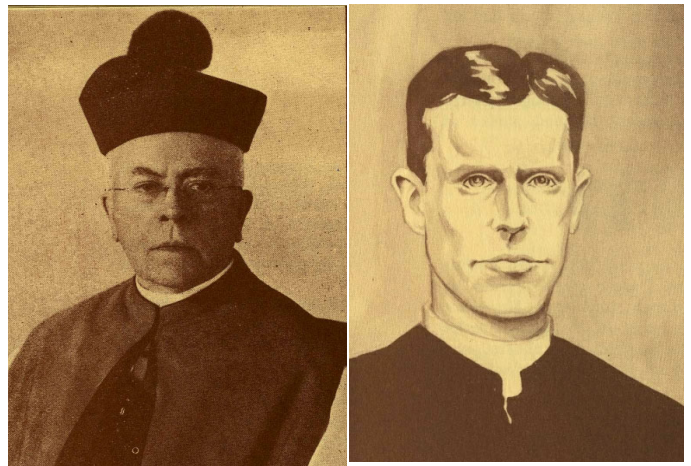

Save the date for our celebratory Mass & Reception on Sunday, May 21 at the noon Mass!

1892–2017

1892 – St. James Parish is Established

After 18 years as a mission from Alexandria, St. James was formally established as a parish in 1892. Father Edward V. Tearney, the first chancellor for the Richmond Diocese, came north at the direction of Bishop Augustine van de Vyver to be the first pastor. The only priest between Alexandria and his home town of Harper’s Ferry, Father Tearney also inherited missions in Fairfax Station and Leesburg. Father Tearney led St. James until 1910, except for two years (1897-99), when he was rector of the cathedral in Richmond.

Father Tearney built the new stone church on Spring Street in 1902, and the original schoolhouse in 1905. At his invitation the Sisters of Perpetual Adoration from Louisiana opened the school in September 1906. In 1907, Father Tearney blessed the new convent the Sisters built. The next year, he wrote to the bishop about the plight of the Catholics in the Ballston/Clarendon area who could not afford the 20-cent trolley fare to Falls Church or the pew rents at Holy Trinity across the river in Georgetown. He was concerned also for the Catholics at Ft. Myer and in the “little hamlet” of Ingleside, all of them numbering around 232. “These people are like sheep without a shepherd,” he wrote, “...living within my boundaries but living beyond my reach.” Father Tearney thus planted the seed for St. Charles Borromeo, the first daughter parish of St. James. Before he left St. James for Lynchburg where he died in 1935, he sold the new pastor his horse.

Join our Oral History Project!

Whether you love asking questions or have a great story to tell, we welcome all parishioners, former parishioners and alumni of our school and religious education programs. You can choose to be interviewed by a family member, friend or even one of our young confirmandi. Interviewers can take notes and/or record audio and video files for our archives. Your story will become part of our future. The upcoming holidays are a great opportunity to talk to family members. We hope you’ll participate. Questions? Contact Lisa Helene Bacalski at 703-532-8815 or lhelene@stjamescatholic.org.

Some sample questions to spark a conversation:

- What has been your favorite experience as a parishioner?
- How has Saint James walked with you on your spiritual journey?
- If you are new to the parish (here less than 2 years), what brought you here?
- If you’ve been a parishioner longer than 2 years, what keeps you coming back?
- What else about your experiences at St. James would you like to share?
