Stewardship

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love? Are you generous with your time, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you "fit it in" when it's convenient for you? Pray for a grateful and generous heart.

Last week we honored our wonderful volunteers who are so generous with their time and talents. To them we express our deepest gratitude. Check our website for ways that you can share your enthusiasm at Saint James!

From Our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The life of a priest has many blessings. To share in the lives of those he ministers to is a great and humbling honor. And yet we know this life is not our own to direct but to be directed by our Lord. To go where we are needed, “to act justly, to love tenderly and to walk with your God.” So it is with very mixed emotions that I announce that Fathers Bashista and Tran will be leaving us on June 28th. I am saddened to lose their faithful witness, their dedication to the people of our parish and their fraternal company. I know that they will bring their many gifts to others within our diocese.

Father Tran has been with us for five years and I am grateful for his service, good humor and yes, even bringing his dog Jamie into our lives. She will be equally missed. Father Tran took on new responsibilities with our youth while at the same time dedicating many hours to our Boy Scouts here and within the diocese. I would be remiss if I did not mention that he was a wonderful chef as well. Father will join Holy Trinity Parish in Gainesville as their new parochial vicar.

Father Bashista came to us last year from Marymount University and has done much with our liturgical ministers and altar servers. He was also involved with our School. His kind demeanor was perfect for our students as they learned from him the significance of the various parts of the Mass; but moreover it was his presence in their daily lives which had an even greater impact. I am thankful for his work with our RCIA program, bringing new souls to Christ through his own Gospel witness. Father will be stationed at Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish in Lake Ridge as Pastor.

Please join me in welcoming our new parochial vicars, Father Phillip Cozzi and soon to be ordained Father Steven Oetjen (Deacon Oetjen will be ordained to the priesthood on June 10th at the Cathedral of St. Thomas More), who will arrive on June 28th. Many of you may remember Father Cozzi from his days as the Chaplain at Bishop O'Connell. Father Oetjen is coming to us from his studies at the North American Pontifical College in Rome.

Please join me in a prayer of thanksgiving for Fathers Bashista and Tran and welcome to Fathers Cozzi and Oetjen.

In Christ,

Fr. Posey

From Our Bishop Regarding Church Teaching on Immigration

What does the Church teach about immigration?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states: "The more prosperous nations are obliged, to the extent they are able, to welcome the foreigner in search of the security and the means of livelihood which he cannot find in his country of origin.... Immigrants are obliged to respect with gratitude the material and spiritual heritage of the country that receives them, to obey its laws and to assist in carrying civic burdens" (2241). Not every individual American is prosperous, but our nation is indeed among the most prosperous in the world, and so we are called not to keep our blessings to ourselves, but to share our goods with our brothers and sisters.

To learn more about Church teaching on immigration and find resources for immigration advocacy, visit arlingtondiocese.org/immigration.

El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica dice: "Las naciones más prósperas tienen el deber de acoger, en cuanto sea posible, al extranjero que busca la seguridad y los medios de vida que no puede encontrar en su país de origen... El inmigrante está obligado a respetar con gratitud el patrimonio material y espiritual del país que lo acoge, a obedecer sus leyes y contribuir a sus cargas" (2241). No todas las personas estadounidenses son prósperas, pero nuestra Nación está entre las más prósperas del mundo y, por eso, hemos sido llamados a compartir nuestros bienes con nuestros hermanos y hermanas, sin reservar nuestras bendiciones solamente para nosotros.

This Week: Our Stained Glass Windows, Part II

In preparation for the 100th anniversary of St. James in 1992, pastor Msgr. William Reinecke was in correspondence with stained glass consultant George M. Sensenig. Mr. Sensenig's father, C. M. Sensenig, and grandfather, George Savage, were principals in the studio that created the St. James windows. P. J. Reeves Stained Glass Studio was located in Philadelphia and collaborated with architects Gleeson and Mulrooney who designed the church building.

Mr. Sensenig writes with great admiration for Anton Albers, Sr., the artist directly involved with the St. James windows. Mr. Albers, he says, offered full size cartoons of the saints for approval, then, Mr. Sensenig writes:

“He also painted the figurative portions of the window, each of which were applied to an easel in full with wax. The remainder of the painting – the grissaille work – trace lines – background were painted by Mr. Alexander Macchione, a truly outstanding craftsman who was with the studio for some 20 years. Alex would then apply a patina of this ‘brown-earthy’ paint over the total representation. Mr. Albers then orchestrated the shadowing – densities of color to a beautiful symphony of color by removing the paint where he so desired through a stroke of his brush. Mr. Albers was uncompromising almost to a fault. But yet, the window – whether at St. James... wherever – was his signature – his symphony. And, he was the conductor.

“Stubborn...aloof...uncompromising...self-centered are words I might associate with Mr. Albers although I would hope I would remember him as one of the finest stained glass artists of his period – one who truly understood and had a very special feeling for the medium of stained glass – an architectural art.”

P. J. Reeves Stained Glass Studio remained “particularly proud” of the windows at St. James.
