Reflection: Ask Jesus to show you what it means that he is the Life. Do you seek fullness of life in Jesus or in other things or people of this world?

Stewardship

Thank you for your support of our recent second collections. Next week, the second collection will be for the Catholic Communications Campaign. This campaign connects people with Christ, here and around the world in developing countries, through the internet, television, radio, and print media. Fifty percent of funds collected remains in our diocese to fund local communications efforts. Your support helps spread the gospel message! To learn more, visit www.usccb.org/cc.

Ascension Thursday: Mass Obligation is Sunday, May 28th

"And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth,... you know him, because he remains with you and will be in you." John 14:16-17

Thursday: The Ascension of the Lord
(transferred to Sunday)

Julian Calendar Ascension

Friday: St. Philip Neri

Saturday: St. Augustine of Canterbury

Today's Readings

First Reading – The people of Samaria accepted the word of God preached by Philip; they received the Holy Spirit (Acts 8:5-8, 14-17).

Psalm – Let all the earth cry out to God with joy (Psalm 66).

Second Reading – Act with gentleness and reverence toward all, so that when you are maligned those who defame you will be the ones put to shame (1 Peter 3:15-18) or 1 Peter 4:13-16.

Gospel – I will not leave you orphans, but will come to you (John 14:15-21) or John 17:1-11a.

Pray for Those Serving Overseas

Please pray for those serving in the military and foreign service, especially Col. George B. Walsh, USA, and Capt. Albert C. Young, USAF. Send names to bulletin@stjamescatholic.org. Let us know when your loved ones return.

"Let all on earth worship and sing praise to you, sing praise to your name! Come and see the works of God, his tremendous deeds among the children of Adam." Psalm 66: 1, 5

Today's Psalm reflects the gratitude felt by the people of Israel for God's actions on their behalf in the past and present. It is a fitting song that we all sing today as we gather to give thanks for the many blessings of this parish. It is here, in this beautiful stone building and in the classrooms across the street, that we have seen "his tremendous deeds." In Peter's letter last week we hear, "[B]ehold, I am laying a stone in Zion, a cornerstone, chosen and precious." We too have laid both a literal and figurative cornerstone at Park and Spring Streets. Together we have constructed more than just buildings; together we have built a community of faith.

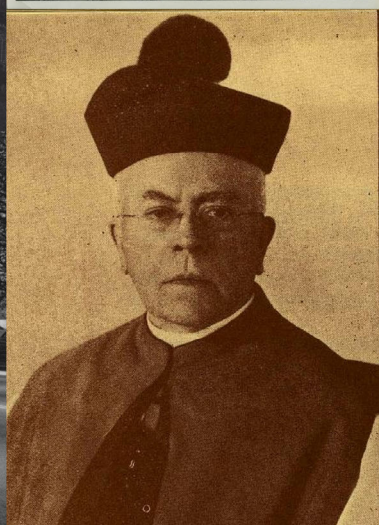

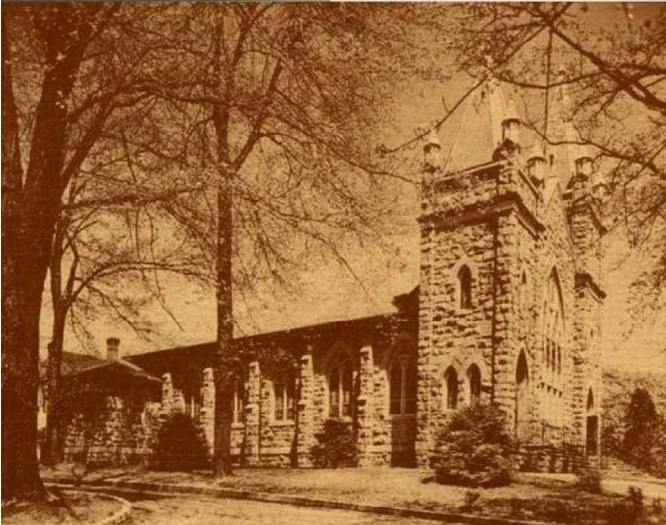

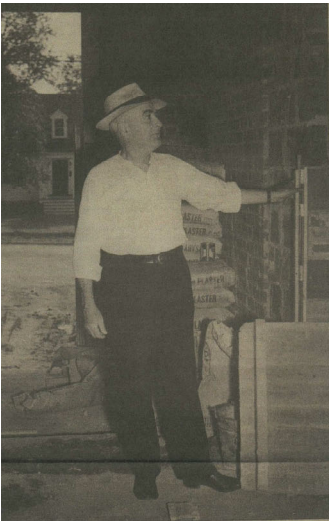

How can I do justice to 125 years of history? How can I do justice to the thousands of men and women whose faith and courage, sometimes in extremely difficult circumstances, have brought us to this moment?

When I learned of my assignment to Saint James I was thrilled and not a little anxious. As one of the oldest parishes in the diocese, her history loomed large. Her pastors were men of vision, her religious women and men stationed here enthusiastic in their faithful commitment to live the Gospel; most especially, though, it was her people, the families who knelt in prayer of thanksgiving or supplication who made a vision a reality. Generations call Saint James "home." Children, grandchildren and now even great-grandchildren have worshipped at the same altar, some walking the same classroom hallways. This sense of stewardship has never been lost on me and it remains one of the great blessings of my life to serve you.

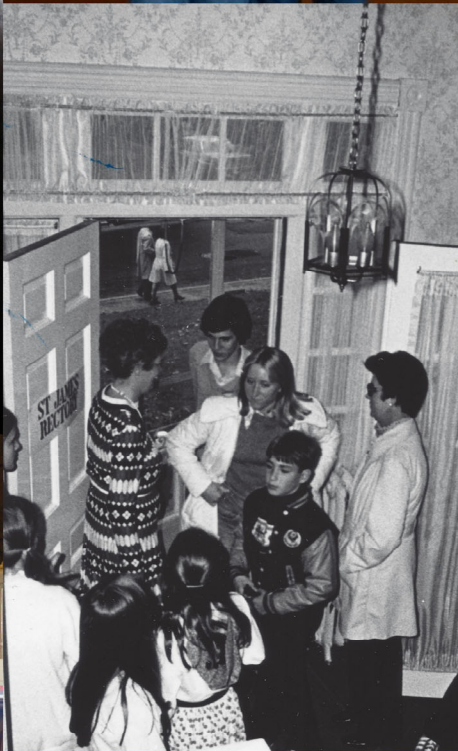

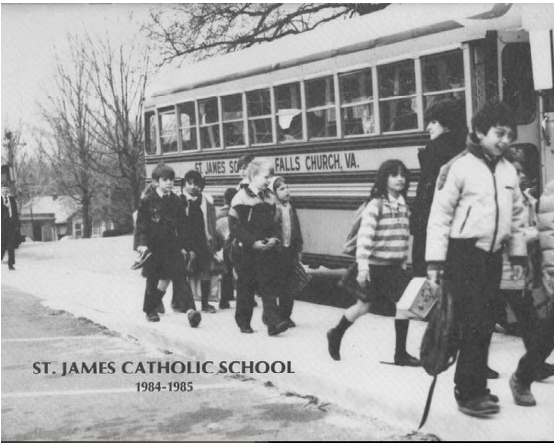

In our reflection series this week, we are asked to "watch for evidence" of God's works and His presence in our lives. I can think of no more fitting example than our parishioners who continue to nurture the seeds planted by Father Tierney. In Sacrament and good works, the people of Saint James do not just know the Beatitudes, they live them. They feed the hungry and care for the poor and the lost; they are merciful, and they are just. They care not only for those within our community, but for our sisters and brothers throughout the world. Through prayer and financial sacrifice they continue to move, as Pope Francis exhorts, beyond the pew. And through their example, they inspire my brother priests and me to move beyond the pulpit. It is your faith in each other and in our God which has enabled us to carry out our educational charism, to teach the youth academics, yes, but more importantly, the beauty and responsibility of our Catholic faith.

John reminds us of Jesus' promise: "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you." Christ kept the faith with His people; we in turn keep it alive today. We are not and have never been far from the memories and works of those who built this parish. We honor them and their sacrifices today just as future generations will gather to give thanks to you. With the grace of the Holy Spirit and the love of our God, the people of Saint James today will continue to live the evangelist's words to be "doers of the word and not hearers only."

I hope you enjoy the pictures which appear on the following pages. They seek to encapsulate all that we are at Saint James. A community of faith, gathering in fellowship and the love of Christ, prepared to spread Christ's saving message of mercy, compassion and love. ~Fr. Posey

1892-2017

This year we are celebrating our 125th anniversary with events, our oral history project and a weekly history lesson in our bulletin! Return here to relive our growth from a small frame church to our present iconic building which is home to thousands of parishioners.

1950 - FURTHER EXPANSION OF THE SCHOOL

Even as the new St. James School was completed in 1948, it was obvious that the new school would still be too small to accommodate the growing Catholic population. In 1950 Father Mullarkey purchased additional land and committed himself to further expansion of the school. This further enlargement of the school came in stages.

The building of the next wing to the school was completed one year later in 1951. This new two story wing provided a new principal's office and nine classrooms which were filled immediately. This wing of the school currently provides the classrooms for the 6th-8th grades and Spanish language program.
