Stewardship

Next week, our second collection will be for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development.

Over 46 million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs to empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to lift themselves out of poverty. By supporting this collection you give people a hand up, not a hand out.

Ministry Highlight – PTO

This week we celebrate Discover Catholic Schools Week. What began as dream in the early part of the 20th century has become a central part of our parish and our community. Saint James School has produced generations of young men and women who have influenced countless lives. Their hopes are still alive today in the students who sit in the very same classrooms. I encourage you to stop by one of our Open Houses to see what your commitment has produced. See the vibrant art masterpieces, the interesting science experiments; read the thoughtful essays proudly displayed. See and Discover all that Saint James has been and continues to be. When you see one of the Sisters or our faculty stop and thank them for the tremendous work they do on behalf of our students. Read below for a glimpse of another important aspect: our dedicated parents. They are a true blessing.

~ Fr. Posey

It takes a village to raise any child, and the village we know as St. James School offers excellent administrators, teachers, and spiritual guidance from the rectory as well as the Sisters. Supplementing and sustaining these efforts are the many volunteers of the legendary St. James PTO.

Why legendary? Well, have you ever encountered another parent-teacher organization anywhere that operates a fund-raising school bazaar for four consecutive days, preceded by long preparations and followed by intensive clean-up assisted greatly the Scouts and their leaders? No, of course not; only the St. James PTO proves that gung-ho and dedicated, year after year.

If you visited the recent Bazaar on more than one night, you were probably surprised to see the faithful volunteers apparently glued to the same spots in the Knecht Gym or Heller Hall. A stalwart team of four staffed the check-out tables for the sprawling kids' toy and book sale, while security volunteers fanned out broadly to ensure everyone's safety. Next door in Heller Hall, legions of volunteers sporting ruby-red T-shirts helped customers find what they were looking for – whether children's Trick-or-Treat costumes, gently used high heels or boots, or bargains from someone else's kitchen or rec room. Everybody wins at the Bazaar: the PTO raises big bucks for the school, the school can finance additional enriching activities and services, and customers appreciate the good deals nabbed in their festive shopping.

Dawn Behrens currently serves as PTO president, and she credits all the PTO membership with their ongoing success in supporting the school. In addition to their signature bazaar, the PTO consults with the school's administrators and teachers to discern both old and new ways to help students at our Blue-Ribbon school.

Most PTO members are parents of St. James School students, but anyone who loves working with children and the adults who teach and support them is most welcome. To volunteer for PTO service, you could leave a message for the PTO leadership (pto@stjamescatholic.org or 703 533-1182). And next fall, you too could experience up-close and personally the joy and productivity of a unique St. James institution, the PTO-organized bizarre Bazaar! If you are too busy right now to volunteer, you could instead donate to the PTO and thereby help them stretch the dollars given by parents and the parish to support our top-notch school ministering to children's spiritual as well as intellectual and physical well-being.

We all benefit from the school, which hosts classes for PREP and immigrants learning English, facilitates our children's choirs and youth lector program and shares Jesus' teachings with parish children.

PTO supported projects include our new signage, the science lab and the school playground.

DURING THE FATHER HELLER YEARS (Part I)

1892–2017 Newsletters: A parish newsletter, Round & About St. James, was published monthly from 1973 to 1983. An almost complete file exists in our archives and these papers are a rich source for St. James history during those years. Thy Kingdom Come, a parish liturgy newsletter, belongs to a later era, published for the liturgical seasons from Lent 1986 to Easter 1993.

Parish Advisory Board: An elected Parish Advisory Board was established in the 1970s. In April 1977, more than 500 parishioners turned out to choose among 21 adult candidates and seven youth candidates for nine adult and three youth positions on the PAB. Committees headed by board members included Ecumenism/Evangelization, Education, Finance, Liturgy, Maintenance, Parish Activities and Social Development.

Liturgies: In addition to the charismatic Mass, contemporary and children’s liturgies were celebrated each Sunday in Heller Hall. Priests and lay people met weekly to prepare these liturgies and many people worked together on banners and other creations to enhance the celebrations. Some people, now in their 50s, mark the children’s liturgy as a formative influence on their lives of faith. Others, somewhat older, remember entering the chapel, as Heller Hall was called, knowing that something good was going to happen “because so much good had already happened before we arrived.” Folk musicians formed a choir for these liturgies. They crossed the street in 1980 when all Masses were moved to the church and continued to lead music in the church until the mid-’90s.

Celebrating Sacraments Together

An annual celebration of the Anointing of the Sick during Mass on a Saturday morning drew hundreds of parishioners during the ‘70s and early ‘80s. Those who were elderly, ill or disabled came with family, caregivers and friends to be anointed and to share a luncheon prepared by the Women of St. James. Communal celebrations of the Sacrament of Reconciliation took place during Advent and Lent in these years. Priests from neighboring parishes and religious houses joined St. James priests to hear confessions within a service of Scripture, reflection and penitential prayer and song.

WSJ & MSJ: The Women of St. James and the Men of St. James flourished during the Monsignor Heller years. Both organizations could claim ancient roots in the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Holy Name Society. The WSJ and the MSJ provided countless hours of service to the parish in myriad ways, and enriched the spiritual and social lives of their members.

Art Show: An annual Art Show, sponsored by the Women of St. James, featured the work of parish artists. At the first show, in 1979, 50 artists displayed their creations. The show continued at least through 1990.
