Stewardship – Emergency Special Collection for Hurricane Irma Recovery Efforts

Today there will be a special collection to help those affected by Hurricane Irma. Cardinal Dinardo writes, “These funds will be used in the affected areas to support humanitarian aid, assistance with long-term efforts to restore communities after widespread destruction, and for the pastoral and reconstruction needs of the Church in US and the Caribbean.” The regularly scheduled second collection is for parish maintenance.

From Our Pastor

Due to Hurricane Irma, our bulletin for September 17th had to be sent early as our publisher has printing facilities in Florida. As such, we were unable to highlight two important parish activities: our Food Drive for Hurricane Harvey victims and our annual parish picnic.

Thank you to all those who donated and helped collect food for the victims of Hurricane Harvey: Maureen and Ned Hannan who coordinated the effort, Lori Koch, Kathryn and Gary Hosford, Sara Tindall, Ron Brousseau and all the volunteers who helped collect and organize the donations, and most especially Bill, the parishioner who drove a full truck to the Houston area. Our principal, Sister Mary Sue Carwile, helped us reach out to our community and students in the school responded quickly and generously to the call for donations. Thanks as well to my staff, especially Lisa Helene Bacalski, who publicized the food drive. Because of your generosity, we sent over 10,000 pounds of much-needed items to a food bank in the Houston area.

I would also like to thank everyone who made our Parish Picnic such a success. Many, many thanks go to the Knights of Columbus, who supplied the food, and the PTO volunteers who served it with a smile. We also had significant help from our Parish Religious Education Program, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, American Heritage Girls, and many other volunteers. Big thanks also go to my assistant Vivian Alfaro, who planned this year's picnic, and Lisa Helene Bacalski, who helped Vivian manage things during the event. Once again we could not provide an event of this nature without our fantastic facilities staff -- thank you to Shane Briggs, Miguel Cruz and Francisco Ayala. We served over 1,000 members of our community good food and fellowship on a beautiful September day. God bless.

Isaiah tells us today that we should "seek the Lord where he may be found." Truly our Savior is found here at Saint James in the "fruitful labors" of our parishioners who give so freely and generously of their many blessings. Our 2016-2017 Parish Annual Report is included in this bulletin. Please refer to pages 5 to 8. More than a recitation of numbers, this report attempts to put flesh to paper; it seeks to reveal our common humanity as well as our common drive towards the eternal. You are in these pages. You are reflected in every word, picture and chart. Through your prayers, your time and your blessings you live the Gospel. You become the Beatitudes. You are "doers and not hearers only."

It is because of you and the grace of the Holy Spirit that we continue, as we have for 125 years, to bring Christ to all who seek Him. For this and so much more, I am grateful and humbled to journey with you to our Father. Thank you and may God bless our parish.

We have been "doers of the Word" for 125 Years

My Sisters and Brothers,

You will see from this report that we have been truly blessed at Saint James. Our 125th year has seen incredible acts of compassion, justice and generosity. Moreover, you have given of yourselves in ability, prayer and sacrifice. Thank you. We are a growing parish both in people and programs. Our offertory supports both; without your commitment we could not be both "sower and seed." Without your investment we could not fulfill our responsibility to each other. I quoted the song, "We are Called," on page 7 because caring for our parish, financially and spiritually, entails a promise. We were promised a home where we could meet one another in faith and fellowship. Our benefactors fulfilled their duty to us. It is our turn: to care for one another now and for those who will sit in our lovely new pews for years to come. So I humbly ask you to consider your promise; review your personal situation and consider increasing your offertory support. Together we will continue to minister in sacrament, education and service. Together we will answer the call and be "doers of the word."

I also encourage you to take advantage of our easy and secure online giving by utilizing Faith Direct. An enrollment form is enclosed. This is an ideal vehicle to ensure that your desired contributions are received regardless of weather or travel. You can log on to <https://membership.faithdirect.net/VA50> and sign up today. Our parish number is VA50.

To everyone who has made our 125th Anniversary Year so special, I am grateful.

1892-2017

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

1892–2017

During our parish's first half century and more, the people of St. James came to Mass hungry – first for the Body of Christ, but also because the current law required fasting from any food or drink, even water, from midnight (causing many scrupulous souls to agonize over whether they might have swallowed a drop of water while brushing their teeth). In 1953, Pope Pius XII began the process of mitigating that requirement. The current rules of fast were introduced by Pope Paul VI on November 21, 1964.

Now we fast for only an hour before receiving Holy Communion. Water and medicine can be taken anytime.

In the wake of Vatican II and the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, the Church provided further adaptations for the distribution and reception of Holy Communion. No longer did we kneel around the outside of the altar rail as the priest moved along the inside, placing the host on our tongues. We began to join in procession to the sanctuary, our hands outstretched, if we wished, to receive the Body of Christ. Communion under both kinds was possible, and for some years was the practice here at daily Mass. The Church also recovered the ministry of lay people assisting in the distribution of the Eucharist.

Father Heller requested Bishop Welsh's permission to name 12 extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion in 1977. The original class included four sisters, two lay women and 6 lay men, appointed for a three-year term. Sister Helen Maureen Campbell was a member of that class. After many community assignments including Principal of St. James School (1976-1984), Sister returned to St. James to minister to the sick. She followed Sister Mary Jo McDonald, IHM, who came at Father Posey's invitation to be the first administrator of ministry to the sick and homebound of the parish. This past summer Sister Helen Maureen left St. James and retired to Camilla Hall. Sister Margaret John, IHM, now serves the parish in this ministry.

Now 60 extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist serve at St. James, helping at Sunday and daily Masses. More than a dozen bring Communion to parishioners unable to come to Mass. They coordinate with Sister Margaret John who has her own long list of St. James people who need the Eucharist and a friendly visit. Catholics at Chesterbrook and Sunrise residences also count on Sister and St. James ministers to bring Communion weekly, and our new neighbors at the Kensington who now visit us for Mass will receive visits should the need arise.

Each year, new extraordinary ministers are invited by the pastor to serve for a five-year term. And we still come to Mass hungry for the Body of Christ.
