Stewardship

*"Think of what is above, not of what is on earth."
Colossians 3:2*

On this day we thank God for His Son, Jesus, who died and rose for us. We celebrate and sing "Alleluia." Let's try to keep the joy of this Easter season in our hearts throughout the year! Pray daily and listen for how He is calling each of us to joyfully use our gifts to fulfill His salvation plan.

From Our Bishop

April 1, 2018

Dear Brothers and Sisters
in Christ,

May Our Savior's triumph
fill your hearts with peace, joy and hope this sacred day and always!

The Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus manifests His saving victory over the powers of sin and death. This sacred event filled the Apostles with new life and grace, which gave them hope after experiencing grave fear at His crucifixion. In turn, the Apostles spread the message of this wondrous mystery so that others might experience the freedom of His saving grace and joy and consolation in His promise of eternal life.

As disciples of Jesus, we are renewed once more in the hope that Christ's triumph brings to us. He reminds us of the new life of grace that we have received, which no darkness or despair can overcome. He assures us that all sufferings united to His will lead to glory and that not even death can defeat us. May we spread this Good News by our commitment to the faithful and consistent living of our faith and the compassion we extend to others, especially those most in need.

I pray that you and your families will be filled with God's abundant blessings during this sacred Season of Easter and always. Through the intercession of Mary our Mother, may you live in the newness of life that we share in Our Risen Lord, now and forever.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge
Bishop of Arlington

Weekly Reflection

Readings: Acts 10:34a, 37-43; Ps 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23; Col 3:1-4 or 1 Cor 5:6b-8; Jn 20:1-9 or Mk 16:1-7 or (at an afternoon or evening Mass) Lk 24:13-35

Reflection Question: How can you live the reality of the Resurrection more deeply?

From Our Pastor

Jesus Christ is Risen Today!

Today, on the greatest feast of our Catholic faith, my mind actually turns to a Christmas song. As I write this column, re-reading the Scriptures and forming my message, I am listening to a You Tube compilation of the Piano Guys – a group comprised of a cellist and one pianist. Their music is a mix of modern with classical and is truly inspirational. This may sound strange and completely out of season, but I was struck listening to their version of O Come, O Come Emmanuel. Its message resonated with me so profoundly.

O Come, O Come Emmanuel and ransom captive Israel, that mourns in lonely exile here until the Son of God appears

What have we just experienced this Lenten season but our own ransom, our own rescue from the knots of sin which bind us? This song, heard during a time of earnest anticipation, resounds with joy anew at Easter. The Son of God did appear and with His life won our ransom. My sisters and brothers, we have been saved! We have been freed from all that bars us from a loving relationship with God and with each other.

Jesus Christ is Risen today... who endured the cross and grave... sinners to redeem and save

So roll away the stone; allow the light of the Resurrection in; strive to be worthy of the liberation so hard won. "We are witnesses of all that he did," Peter recounts in Acts. Now it is our turn; we are His witnesses. Christ's mercy and forgiveness did not stop at the Cross where our salvation was secured, but continues today.

May the Risen Christ bless you this Easter and may we look always to Jesus and His Blessed Mother to undo the knots of our hearts.

~Fr. Posey

UNDO THE KNOTS IN YOUR LIFE

During Lent, we asked Mary, Undoer of Knots to help us undo the knots in our lives. This devotion, a favorite of Pope Francis, has been fruitful for many in our parish. An executive shared with us her story of Mary's miraculous intervention during a major public project at a Fortune 500 company. Several people have told us how this devotion has been a deeply meaningful experience. We have not been able to keep the prayer cards in stock.

We would like to create a grotto for this devotion on our grounds to provide a space for comfort and meditation. If you would like to participate in this project, please contact our volunteer committee at 703-532-8815 or volunteer@stjamescatholic.org.

Mary, Undoer of Knots

Pray for us

Mother of fair love,
I look to you.

Take into your hands
the ribbon of my life and see the snare of knots that keeps me bound to sin, anxiety, and hopelessness.

I beg you, Mother, by your powerful intercession and long fingers
of love and grace, undo the knots
in my heart and in my life.
Free me to love
as Christ loves.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES
