“Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.”

We hear the familiar story of “Doubting Thomas” in today’s Gospel, the most well-known case of “seeing is believing.” In encountering the Risen Christ, Thomas finally understands. For this Thomas gets a bad rap – seemingly faithful only when presented with hard facts – facts that he could actually see and touch. Those who follow are given high praise from Jesus: blessed for believing without seeing. But even we, an Easter people as St. Pope John Paul II called us, can still doubt.

It is fitting then that today the Church celebrates the Feast of Divine Mercy. Christ, who has already won our salvation through His death and resurrection, offers still more: His unparalleled forgiveness. Given freely, this mercy enables us to experience Him today, erasing little by little this lingering doubt. Through our relationships and most profoundly through the Sacraments, we encounter Christ as active participants in salvation history. We come to know Him; and by our actions, allow others this same experience.

Quoting from St. Faustina’s diary, St. Pope John Paul II reminds us, “Jesus said: ‘Humanity will never find peace until it turns with trust to Divine Mercy.’ ... This is the Easter gift that the Church receives ... and offers to humanity.”

Let us be grateful recipients and generous givers of this gift.

Please join us tonight at 5:00pm in the church for a special Holy Hour of prayer and meditation with music and reflections from renowned Irish tenor Mark Forrest. It promises to be an inspirational evening.

~Fr. Posey

UNDO THE KNOTS IN YOUR LIFE

During Lent, we asked Mary, Undoer of Knots to help us undo the knots in our lives. This devotion, a favorite of Pope Francis, has been fruitful for many in our parish. An executive shared with us her story of Mary's miraculous intervention during a major public project at a Fortune 500 company. Several people have told us how this devotion has been a deeply meaningful experience. We have not been able to keep the prayer cards in stock.

We would like to create a grotto for this devotion on our grounds to provide a space for comfort and meditation. If you would like to participate in this project, please contact our volunteer committee at 703-532-8815 or volunteer@stjamescatholic.org.

Mary, Undoer of Knots

Pray for us

Mother of fair love,
I look to you.

Take into your hands
the ribbon of my life
and see the snare of knots
that keeps me bound to sin, anxiety, and hopelessness.

I beg you, Mother, by your powerful intercession
and long fingers
of love and grace,
undo the knots
in my heart and in my life.
Free me to love
as Christ loves.
