THIRD SUNDAY OF

Easter

APRIL 15, 2018

Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations.

Stewardship

3rd Sunday of Easter

"Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' But they were startled and frightened..."

Luke 24:36-37

Throughout the day we have many opportunities to "see the face of Jesus" in others and to "be the face of Jesus" to others. Do we take that opportunity to provide "peace" to those we encounter or are we afraid of what others will think of us and do nothing? Pray for the strength to live a "God-centered" life and not a "self-centered" life.

From Our Pastor

"While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost."

Have you ever seen someone you knew out of context and not recognized them? Perhaps a teacher that you see daily, bumping into them in a store and you catch yourself doing a double-take. For those who know me first as a priest, seeing me around the area in "civilian" clothes can be jarring. Even my staff who has seen me in the mall has said, "Oh it's you! I didn't recognize you."

These past few weeks our readings have focused on this very thing: disciples and followers unable to comprehend the Risen Christ, even as He stood before them in the flesh. He was out of context. He was dead; they saw Him crucified. His bodily Resurrection was not something their minds were ready to accept; no matter how much they loved Him. For us, those who have never seen Jesus, we seek other methods to enter into relationship with Him: pilgrimages, devotions, and of course, the sacraments.

We can also touch the living Christ through our relationships with each other. St. Francis of Assisi famously said, "Preach the Gospel, and if necessary use words." Our actions can be that powerful moment when we can touch the hand of Jesus. We must strive to be the witnesses Luke describes. We must be recognizable faces of the Risen Jesus to all. We must allow others to "know we are Christians by our love" regardless of context.

~Fr. Posey

My deepest thanks to everyone who made our Holy Week and Easter liturgies beautiful expressions of faith. I am grateful to Dan Day, our musicians, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, ushers and my staff. Special thanks to Linda Doyle, Cathy Tresnicky-Wilbur, Lori Koch, Vivian Gilleo, Laura DiJoseph, DonnaMaria Duatschek, Jonie Lisbeth, Anita Clark and Linda DiMartino for the fantastic job they did decorating the church. As always, I am thankful for my brother priests, deacons and our IHM Sisters in whom I always recognize the face of Christ, regardless of context.

Once again, our Fish Fry Working Group produced a community event not once, but six times! Lent is "O-FISH-ALLY" over, but my gratitude is not. So many people came together in fellowship. More than 3,000 meals were served and I dare not estimate the pounds of coleslaw made. Thank you to Head Angler Tim Aubry and his fantastic crew:

Bishop's Lenten Appeal Update

THANK YOU! As of early April we surpassed our BLA goal of $295,000 with more than $298,000 in donations. It is still not too late to support this important diocesan effort. Your gifts enable Bishop Burbidge to meet the needs of our diocesan family. From our youngest students, to our seminarians, to our more "senior" members, all are cared for through the Bishop's Lenten Appeal.

Mock Trial

Last month, our 8th grade students got a lesson in jurisprudence as parent Christine Michaelis guided them through the process during a mock trial. The students were very engaged, taking their roles seriously. Perhaps we have some budding attorneys in our midst! Thank you to Mrs. Michaelis and Mr. Bracken for their assistance that day.

PARISH NEWS

Please know that Father Cozzi will be away from the parish for the next several months. He remains Parochial Vicar here at Saint James but will be providing much needed support in the pastoral work at another parish.

THANK YOU!

Our American Heritage Girls troop thanks you for your generous food and cash donations! On March 26, we packed donations into 196 packs, each of which contained 2 drinks, 2 breakfasts, 2 lunches, 2 dinners and 2 snacks. The packs were taken to Food For Others, which distributes them to local school students who are at risk of going hungry over the weekend. A few of the girls received a tour of the Food For Others facility in Merrifield. We were shocked to learn how many children go hungry in our community.

Pro-Life Committee Update

678 lives were saved during the Lenten 40 Days for Life campaign (www.40daysforlife.com), which finished on Palm Sunday. There are ongoing opportunities for people to stand in peaceful vigil and pray outside the local abortion facility (Falls Church Healthcare Center, 900 South Washington Street). You may join prayer novenas through Priests for Life (www.priestsforlife.org) any time. Consider spending an hour in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament for an end to abortion, protection of the unborn, and conversion of those who participate in abortion, especially in our community.

Preborn Baby Facts:

At twenty-two weeks old a preborn baby is about a foot long, and keeps growing taller and putting on more weight. The baby's hearing also improves.

The St. James Pro-Life Committee meets for action planning on first Thursday of each month at 7:30pm in the Knecht Conference Room. Our next meeting will be on May 3. For more details of upcoming activities, please email stjameslife@gmail.com.

Rejoice and Be Glad: On the call to holiness in today's world

Gaudete et Exsultate, the latest apostolic exhortation from Pope Francis was released on Monday, April 9. In the document, Pope Francis explores the Beatitudes and offers a guide to living Christianity in the 21st century.

Read the document online now at <http://bit.ly/GE-2018>.

Follow our social media channels for more excerpts like the one at right, or visit www.stjamescatholic.org/easter for a visual collection of the document's highlights.

We are frequently tempted to think that holiness is only for those who can withdraw from ordinary affairs to spend much time in prayer. That is not the case.
