Stewardship: Special Collection for Msgr. Paul V. Heller Hall Next Week!

Forty-five years ago Heller Hall was dedicated, and it has been in need of updating for some time. New flooring, paneling, and paint will make this busy room a campus showcase. Msgr. Paul V. Heller was our beloved pastor from 1953-1977. His gentle nature, love of the Church, and Saint James were hallmarks of his personality. Thank you for your generosity.

From Our Seminarian

I can hardly believe that as you all read this, my very last column, I've been here at St. James Parish for nine weeks! It still feels like I only just arrived.

As I sit down to write this farewell column, I look back on my summer assignment with overwhelming gratitude to God and the priests and parishioners here at St. James. In my introduction, I expressed my hope that I would be able to become a part of the parish community. I certainly did so, thanks to the surpassing generosity of the faithful at this parish. You all welcomed me to parish functions and even invited me into your homes. Although my time here was sadly short, I felt fully a member of the St. James family. I am deeply grateful to all of you.

I also wrote that I hoped to encounter Jesus through all of you, and I consider myself incredibly blessed to be able to have done just that. I found here a vibrant community, dedicated to growing in closeness to God and in service to His people. Only by keeping Jesus Christ and His Church at the center of community life can a parish function the way St. James does.

Many priests and seminarians have told me that we always fall in love with our first assignments. Even though I was only here for nine weeks that felt more like nine days, that adage has been true to my experience here. St. James Parish will always be very special to me. I am very fortunate that this extraordinary community has played a part in my priestly formation.

As I continue on, God willing, towards ordination to the priesthood, I hope and pray that this goodbye will prove to be a "see you later." The Diocese of Arlington is large and growing, but in some ways, still very small – so I'm sure to see many of you around in the coming years. Please never hesitate to say hello.

It has been a joy and a blessing to be with you all for this summer. Thank you, and God bless St. James Parish.

~Tim Courtney

August 15 – Feast of the Assumption of Mary

"My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord." Luke 1:46

This week we will celebrate the Feast of the Assumption, the conclusion of Mary's earthly journey. Strong in faith and character, let us look to her, as Pope Francis said last year, as someone who "brings a new ability to overcome with faith the most painful and difficult moments; she brings the ability of mercy, to forgive each other, to understand each other, and to support one another."

Let us join her in always proclaiming God's goodness.

Statement by Michael F. Burbidge, Bishop of Arlington, on the Accusations Related to Archbishop Theodore McCarrick

Over the past weeks I, alongside so many others, have been deeply upset to hear of credible and substantiated allegations of sexual abuse by then-Cardinal Theodore McCarrick. As more accusations have come forward, with stunning similarity and detail, Cardinal McCarrick offered his resignation from the College of Cardinals. Pope Francis directed now-Archbishop McCarrick to live in private, observing prayer and penance until a canonical trial is carried out.

While the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People (2002) altered the way the Church in the U.S. deals with allegations against priests, much more is needed. For 16 years, dioceses around the country have implemented unprecedented protocols to encourage reporting of allegations and suspicions of sexual abuse by priests and deacons, as well as to investigate such accusations thoroughly, independently and transparently. Clearly, these procedures and policies need to be reflected in the conduct of bishops as well and how we relate to one another. We all must be held accountable for our actions – bishops are no exception.

I ask all in the Diocese of Arlington to join me in prayer for our Church. Pray, most especially, for victims of sexual abuse, that they experience the healing presence of God.

We must remember that when it seems like the Church has failed us, it is the fallible human beings within the Church, and even some leading the Church, who have failed; not the Church itself. It is the Lord who leads, guides and protects his people and Church. It is only when we lose sight of him that we stumble. May we renew our commitment to the Lord and his power to heal us and to transform us in his saving love.

Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us.
