Forty-five years ago Heller Hall was dedicated, and it has been in need of updating for some time. New flooring, paneling, and paint will make this busy room a campus showcase. Msgr. Paul V. Heller was our beloved pastor from 1953-1977. His gentle nature, love of the Church, and Saint James were hallmarks of his personality. Thank you for your generosity.

From Our Pastor

For weeks John's Gospel has focused on food, specifically bread. If this is not enough, Jesus practically shouts to His audience in each reading: "Amen, Amen I say to you..." In other words, PAY ATTENTION! In an agrarian society, so dependent on the land and what it could yield, grain was a vital source of life. In our day, what is the clarion call of meteorologists at the first snowflake? BREAD! We rush headlong to the nearest grocery store to ensure that we will be fed during the storm.

Christ knew then, as we do now, our bodies need the sustenance only bread can give and uses this to reveal the ultimate truth of our faith: without Him, we cannot truly live. It confused His audience then as it often does some today: "Eat of my flesh? You'll live forever?" It can sound somewhat ominous. Yet as we know, it is not cannibalism Jesus advocates, but taking His entire being into ourselves. It means truly allowing Him into our hearts. It doesn't mean that taking Communion will make you superhuman; it doesn't mean that even every time you come to the Lord, you will feel renewed. But Jesus finds His way into our lives, and the more we open ourselves in Sacrament to this this truth the more fulfilled we can become.

In the Book of Kings last week we read how an angel tells Elijah to "eat... or the journey will be too long." Parents tell their children to "Eat! You need the energy." Athletes of all levels know they must fuel their bodies before the big race, match, or game. So too, we must fuel ourselves with the Body of Christ to run our race. Gaining strength, as Saint Paul reminds us, to make "the most of the opportunity" to live now as Christ taught, and ultimately forever with Our Father in heaven. ~Fr. Posey

A Big Thank You to All Who Made the Summer Picnics Possible!

Since food is our Gospel theme, now is a good time to thank those who made our summer picnics such a success. Rain only stopped us once, thank God. We had wonderful times; look for their return next summer! Thank you to my brother priests, sisters for their support; my staff, facilities crew, and student workers. Most especially, thank you to our rectory cook, Gabriella Abruzzi, who cheerfully cooked for upwards of 80 people at each picnic in the sweltering summer sun. Now we turn our attention to our Parish Community picnic just weeks away. Save the date! September 8th 5:00-8:00pm!

Second Collection to Benefit Bánica Mission on August 25-26

Next weekend, August 25-26, the second collection will benefit the Bánica Mission. Since 1991, the Arlington Diocese has provided clergy to two parishes in the rural highlands of the Dominican Republic. The two parishes, in the neighboring towns of Bánica and Pedro Santana on the Haitian border, minister to over 13,000 souls, most of whom live in extreme poverty. Your generosity will allow the diocese to continue to provide spiritual and material assistance to those who need it most. For more information on how you can support the Bánica Mission, go to <https://bit.ly/2KIpfTy>.

From our Bishop: Assisted Suicide is WRONG For Virginia!

Suicide rates in the U.S. are at a 30-year high. On average, someone commits suicide every 8 hours in Virginia. Government should not be promoting suicide by any name. It is bad public policy to license doctors to kill by lethal prescription. It would be irresponsible and dangerous for Virginia to send the message that suicide is dignified or compassionate. Virginia legislators have asked for a study about whether physician-assisted suicide should be legal in Virginia. They will soon make a policy recommendation based on that study. A public comment period opens on August 22, visit <https://bit.ly/VCCassistedsuicide> , on or after that date, to make your voice heard!

To read more about the distortions advocates of assisted suicide use to spread this insidious practice, and to learn more about the realities of assisted suicide, please visit: <https://bit.ly/2BceokI> .
