Stewardship

What can we do to accomplish the works of God?" John 6:28

What can we do to bring God's kingdom to those around us? It can seem daunting, perhaps even impossible. But Saint Paul takes Jesus' words and reminds us that we can do "all things through Christ." Through our service, support and sacrifice we bring Jesus to our community and indeed our world. What can we do? We can be the face of Christ in compassionate service; we can be the loving Christ through our supportive talents; we can be the merciful Christ in our sacrificial financial gifts.

Join us as we continue to be "doers of the Word." Thank you for all you do for Saint James and our sisters and brothers in Christ.

The last several Sundays have seen readings focused on bread. Old Testament and New Testament, bread from heaven and Bread of Life. It's a great liturgical stretch in which to think about Eucharistic Adoration.

For those who may not be familiar, Adoration is when the Blessed Sacrament is placed on the altar in view, and the faithful come to sit or kneel in the pews to spend time in prayer with Jesus physically present. There are some prayers that traditionally begin and end whatever time is designated. Pretty simple!

So what's the point of it? It's not immediately apparent. The Eucharist is given to us to consume, so why spend time basically just looking at it? There are many reasons that are best understood through experience, but I'll highlight just a couple. First of all, it fosters a deeper recognition of the Real Presence. This is, of course, a crucially important doctrine of our Catholic faith. We reinforce our understanding by placing ourselves in His presence even without receiving like we do at Mass. Second, regularly attending Adoration increases our devotion to Jesus. When we make time to spend with Him outside of Sunday Mass, it helps us to order our lives around worship more perfectly. It can involve sacrifice and inconvenience, especially when we're busy – but there are always graces that flow from making even so small a sacrifice as another hour in the church every week.

How does it work? Do you just...sit there, in silence? Yes, if you want to! Adoration is a wonderful time for whatever devotions you may want to pray – the Rosary, Divine Mercy Chaplet, a novena – but you don't have to. It's perfectly fine to simply sit with the Lord and say nothing, basking in His presence, akin to the way you might be able to spend time with your best friend; no words needed. Maybe you've already tried Adoration and found it frustrating. Perhaps you couldn't focus, or kept glancing at your watch as the time seemed to be crawling by at a glacial pace. Not to worry – that's just the way prayer can go sometimes. Nothing at all was wasted. Setting aside the time, distracted as you may have been, is meritorious in itself. It's enough for Jesus to work with – and He is the one who does the work in our prayer!

Of course, it's very easy for me to sing the praises of Eucharistic Adoration, as I have the opportunity at the seminary to spend a full hour every single day praying before the Blessed Sacrament. I know that many St. James parishioners don't have the time or access. But even so, I encourage all of you to try it out, even if it's just for an hour every month. It won't take much for you to find your prayer life enriched and your devotion profoundly deepened.

~Tim Courtney
