The Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert,
and he remained in the desert for forty days, tempted by Satan.
He was among wild beasts, and the angels ministered to him.

Stewardship

This week the second collection will be for the Black and Indian Missions which exist to help diocesan communities build the Church and preach the Gospel of Jesus among the African American, Native American, and Alaska Native people of God.

Every year, it is the amazing generosity of Catholic faithful which supports parish life, catechesis, evangelization, education and the promotion of vocations. Thank you for your support.

From Our Pastor

Our journey from the dust of Ash Wednesday to the dawn of Easter morning has begun. The time to untie those knots which bind our hearts from giving and receiving God's love is at hand. How did we get so ensnared? I spoke with someone recently (not in the confessional!) about how they felt the one knot that has prevented them from right relationships is pride. "I must win this argument because I am right! I have better facts! I am older and know better! I am the parent!"

How many times have we missed the opportunity to encounter others as they are and not as we want them to be? To break the ice which has formed in our workplace, our home or our friendships with a simple gesture of love? This same person spoke of how their disappointment, anger and confusion with their child can so easily become a fortress which they think protects them from further hurt. But in reality, it bars God's mercy from both of them. "I had this internal debate whether to swallow my pride and simply give a hug before they left for school. When resolve finally morphed into action, the front door had already closed. I missed that chance to send them away in the spirit of forgiveness, a forgiveness that is so often given to me."

If this was easy, we would have perfect harmony in our world. But it is not. Christ emptied Himself completely upon the Cross; but not before asking God if it could be avoided. "But not my will but yours be done." His is a lesson of selflessness resulting in the greatest gift we have: salvation through forgiveness. Bound not with chains of pride but with the freedom of Christ's love.

~Fr. Posey

Mary, Undoer of Knots

Pray for us

Mother of fair love,
I look to you.

Take into your hands
the ribbon of my life and see the snare of knots that keeps me bound to sin, anxiety, and hopelessness.

I beg you, Mother, by your powerful intercession and long fingers
of love and grace,
undo the knots
in my heart and in my life.
Free me to love
as Christ loves.

Ponder the Theme: What are the knots in your life or challenges in relationships that prevent you from connecting with God?

Focus on Hunger-Lenten Food Collection

During Lent, food collected at the doors of the Church will be given to the Falls Church Community Service Council food pantry at Knox Presbyterian Church, Food for Others (a food bank which distributes food to many in the northern Virginia area), and distributed through the St. James Food Distribution Program. Please consider donating 5-10 lb. bags of rice or kidney beans, boxes of cereal, tuna, peanut butter, jelly and hearty soups. Your donations can be placed in the boxes near the doors of the Church after any mass. All donations of rice, beans and cereal will remain at St. James and be distributed through its monthly food distribution program.

This weekend, food donated by St. James' parishioners will be given to the Falls Church Community Service Council (FCS). St. James is a founding member of the council.

FCS maintains a food pantry at Knox Presbyterian Church which provides non-perishable and fresh food to families in need. Volunteer staff at the food pantry deliver food to families six days a week -- Monday through Saturday. Food donations come from member congregations, individuals and local food drives. Additional critical food is purchased when needed as funds are available. Volunteers bag and deliver a week's supply of food to needy clients. Thank you for your generosity.

Then the righteous will answer Him, "Lord, when did we see You hungry, and feed You, or thirsty, and give You something to drink?"
