Bishop's Lenten Appeal Begins!

This month many of us will receive a mailing from Bishop Burbidge regarding the 2018 Bishop's Lenten Appeal (BLA). The theme for the 2018 BLA is "Living in Faith~Giving in Gratitude." After reflecting upon the many blessings that God has given you, please prayerfully consider making a pledge to this important appeal that funds many programs and ministries that serve the people in our diocese. Together, through the BLA, let us renew our personal commitment to the Lord's work in our diocese.

January 8, 2018

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Throughout the month of January we are provided with special opportunities to bear witness to our belief in the dignity and value of all human life, especially the lives of the unborn. The most public display of the Gospel of Life is the annual March for Life. In advance, I thank all of our parishes that are welcoming visitors from other dioceses and providing hospitality to March for Life participants.

We also remember that with God's grace, prayer and fasting are effective means of changing hearts. I therefore encourage you to participate in the USCCB's Nine Days of Prayer, Penance and Pilgrimage from January 18 to 26 (see www.usccb.org). In addition, please pray at Mass for a greater respect for the gift of human life.

I look forward to seeing many of our youth at the EagleBank Arena in Fairfax for our Diocese's Life Is VERY Good Evening of Prayer (January 18, 7:30 pm) and Rally and Mass (January 19, 9:00 am). The annual March for Life rally begins on the National Mall in Washington, D.C., at noon on January 19.

This year, the Apostolic Penitentiary of the Holy See has granted a plenary indulgence that may be obtained, under the usual conditions, by those who participate in the sacred celebrations carried out on January 18 and 19. The elderly, sick and homebound may also gain a plenary indulgence if they spiritually unite themselves to these events and make their prayer and penance an offering to God.

Thank you for your faithful witness to the dignity and value of all human life, and please be assured of my prayers for you.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge
Bishop of Arlington

MARCH FOR LIFE

FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 2018

March for Life on Friday, January 19

Join your fellow parishioners marching behind our parish Pro-Life banner at the annual March for Life in Washington, DC on Friday, January 19. St. James will have a bus going to the March for Life, leaving St. James at 10:45am and returning at about 4:30pm. Please sign the sign-up sheet in the vestibule to reserve spots on the bus. Please wear something red to the march to help us stick together. If you have any questions, please contact Richard Hunter at stjameslife@gmail.com or 703-241-1424.

Can't March Personally? Have a Bishop O'Connell Student March for You!

The Bishop O'Connell PTO Spiritual Life Committee and the student Pro-Life Club have developed a unique program called "March for Me" in which students participate in the March for Life to support the sacredness of human life on behalf of those in the community who are unable to march. On January 19, students from Bishop O'Connell High School will march in support of life. If you would like a student to 'march for you,' students from Bishop O'Connell High School will be available after all the Masses on the weekend of January 13 and 14 to help you be represented by a student. Thank you for supporting and encouraging Bishop O'Connell students to march for life.

Thank You from the Social Outreach Committee!

In 2017 St. James' parishioners generously donated their time and money to support: Hope House, Christ House Meals, the Food Distribution Program, the Falls Church Homeless Shelter, transportation for parishioners' medical appointments and to deliver meals for Meals on Wheels, and much more! Thank you for all you've done. In 2018 you can continue to support these St. James Social Outreach Programs in the following ways:

- Designate a monthly or one-time contribution via Faith Direct;
- Make a check out to St. James Church designating it for "Social Outreach Programs" in the memo line;
- Place money in the Poor Box at the church entrance; or
- Come to one of the Social Outreach Committee meetings and see how you can help in one of St. James' Social Outreach ministries. The next meeting will be held on February 8 at 7:30pm in the Knecht conference room.

Information Technology Volunteer Needed

St. James Catholic Church is looking for an experienced professional Information Technology (IT) volunteer to assist in the parish's automation review. As the parish and school continue to grow, there is a need to assess our current automation systems maintained for both areas, and what improvements are necessary to meet future demands. IT projects may range from simple data processing to extensive research, product review, systems analysis, planning, and implementation efforts. If you are interested in volunteering please send an email to: volunteer@stjamescatholic.org

Interested in Volunteering?

If you're new to St. James Parish or a long standing member, and find that you have time to share your valuable talents and resources, we are looking for help! St. James has a number of ministries, projects, and activities where we need volunteers to participate or lead. If you're interested in giving of your time or have questions about our various groups, please contact the rectory at 703-532-8815 or send an email to: volunteer@stjamescatholic.org.

1892-2017

1999-2006 - FATHER CORNELIUS O'BRIEN, TENTH PASTOR

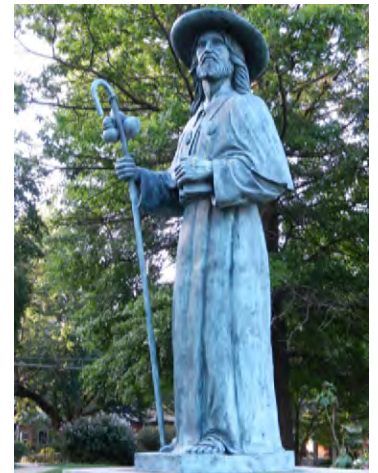

Father Cornelius O'Brien was born January 16, 1932, in Ireland. He attended St. Patrick Seminary in Carlow, Ireland, and was ordained by Bishop Thomas Keogh on June 5, 1955. Father O'Brien was a priest in the Diocese of Alexandria, Louisiana, until he was invited by Bishop Thomas J. Welsh in 1975 to become part of the newly established Arlington Diocese. Father O'Brien--priest, theologian, and teacher--is one of the most studied Thomistic scholars of the day. He completed coursework for a doctorate in philosophy at The Catholic University of America. Before coming to St. James, Father was assigned parochial vicar at the Cathedral of St. Thomas More and St. Agnes in Arlington and pastor at St. Lawrence in Alexandria and St. Timothy in Chantilly. Additionally, Father was director of the Notre Dame Institute, now the Notre Dame Graduate School of Christendom College, in Alexandria (1976-79) and served as chaplain at Christendom College in Front Royal for 25 years. He taught metaphysics and history of philosophy at the Association of Seminaries in Washington, DC. Father O'Brien became the tenth pastor of St. James Parish in 1999.

Many parishioners remember Father O'Brien's eloquence when delivering a homily from the pulpit. Though Father was in the United States for many years, he never lost his Irish wit and retained a soft touch of the brogue. Father was a popular speaker. Following Stations of the Cross on Good Friday, parishioners would fill Msgr. Heller Hall for a slide presentation and lecture on the Shroud of Turin. Father presented lecture series on other topics, including St. Thomas Aquinas' Summa Theologica and the cardinal virtues. He was co-founder of the Adoremus Society, which promotes renewal of the liturgy. Writings and audio tapes can still be found on <http://www.catholicprimer.org/obrien>.

As we walk up the steps to enter church, a 6-foot bronze statue of St. James greets us. It was Father O'Brien who envisioned a statue of our patron saint for the parish grounds. Father went to great lengths to find a sculptor to represent St. James, Patron of Pilgrims, in the garb of a pilgrim, with staff, gourd and the scallop-shell symbolic of the Camino de Santiago.

The 2005-06 year-long centennial celebration of St. James School opened with Holy Mass celebrated by the Most Rev. Paul S. Loverde, Bishop of Arlington. Present at the altar were Father O'Brien and Deacons Jim Fishenden and Tom Bello. Following Mass, Father O'Brien escorted Bishop Loverde as he blessed the statue of St. James and the school.

Father Cornelius O'Brien retired on June 28, 2006. In July, he returned to his home in Cork County, Ireland, in a quiet village--the place of his parents and grandparents, and the eighth generation of the O'Brien family. He wanted to begin his retirement by completing his book on the human person, supported by years of research he had done on St. Thomas Aquinas and later Thomistic theologians.

Father O'Brien's parting message:

Dear friends, we must remember that parting need only be a spatial reality. Deep matters of the soul transcend space, and we gather together in the moment of our coming from God. The good things experienced by us in the past live on within us into the future. It is so in friendship. It is very much so in Christ.

My life as a priest for fifty-one years has been filled with joy. You have given me the opportunity to pursue my love of truth, and the honor of working with some of the finest people in the world. You have been most generous in expressing your gratitude and praise for my poor efforts among you. You will be in my mind as I attempt to put on paper the splendor of the human person.

Now I wish to thank the priests, who have been my companions, the Sisters who have been so faithful, but especially you, the people, who are the reason for our existence, and who have cooperated so well in our efforts to bring you closer to Christ, the Truth.

Finally -- again, remember that we, who have together loved and served Our Lord, can part only if we depart from Him. With His help we will not leave Him.

So, farewell until we meet again. Until then and forever, may God keep us in His safe hands.
