Jesus' cold reception in Nazareth is only one of the two seeming contradictions we encounter in this Sunday's Gospel. The other is even more striking: "He was not able to perform any mighty deed there." Jesus has found Himself unable to do something? The Eternal Son of God, the Word made flesh, the second Person of the Blessed Trinity? He had only very recently worked miracles in the preceding chapters, and He was able to work some in Nazareth: we hear, almost as a side note, that He healed several people there.

So, what was keeping Jesus from working a mighty hometown miracle? Perhaps it was simply because nobody asked Him! In Nazareth, nobody seems to be climbing a tree to get a look at him. Nobody pushes through a crowd just to touch the hem of his cloak; nobody is coming through the roof to be in His presence.

The Nazoreans thought they knew Jesus to be no more than an ordinary man. Let us avoid the temptation to think of Him as just a person who lived a long time ago. He's alive today, and He wants to work great things for us. He won't force His love or power on us if we don't want to see or experience it; but His healing power is there if we only ask! Jesus responds to faith, whatever our need may be. Sometimes it's a dramatic event, sometimes He does His work from afar or in unexpected ways, but He always has an answer. Sometimes this answer satisfies our need in the way we wish. Sometimes, though, the unexpected ways in which He works yield unexpected answers – answers which may challenge us to see our "need" through another lens.

With Our Lord's divinity in mind, ask Him for what you need today. Do whatever it takes to be in His presence, especially at Mass. Remember that God is a good Father and that you are His beloved child. Be open and attentive to His response, and don't be too surprised if He exceeds your expectations.

EXCELLENCE IN CATHOLIC EDUCATION FOR MORE THAN A CENTURY

Read Conley Rohall's Award Winning Essay for the Catholic Daughters' Education Contest

Finding Joy in My Life By Conley Rohall.

I am a normal 6th grade kid. You wouldn't know by looking at me that I have a disability and live with a life threatening condition. People who meet me think I am ordinary on the outside. They don't know what is going on with me on the inside.

I was born four months early because my twin sister and I had Twin to Twin Transfusion Syndrome or TTTS. It is a terrible disease that affects pregnant moms and their babies. I was a really tiny baby when I was born. I weighed only four ounces more than a coke can and I was really sick. I was hooked up to machines to help me breathe. I had heart surgery when I was only a week old and eye surgery when I was three months old. I almost went blind. When I was a baby, I was diagnosed with Cerebral Palsy and Chronic Kidney Disease. Last year, I found out I have to have a kidney transplant soon.

Some days, I feel really frustrated and angry. I hate the bloodwork I have to have done every month. I hate that I can't jump rope, skip, snap my fingers, ride a bike, write in cursive, cut shapes out of paper, and play sports that my friends play. I am nervous about having surgery and having to miss school.

But God helps me stay strong. He helps me do all the things I have to do. God allowed me to live when the doctors thought I would die. Many things make me happy. I love reading books, watching movies, hanging out with my sisters, playing with my dogs, and riding horses. I love going to Mass at school because I get to receive Jesus in the Eucharist. I love going to Mass with my prayer partner at school. She is in Kindergarten and I am in sixth grade so I have to take care of her. It's nice to take care of somebody other than myself.

Being different isn't the easiest thing in the world. But, I like who I am. I know that I will get a new kidney soon and become healthier and stronger than ever. I have learned that you should not judge a person before you know their story. God brings me joy because he is always there for me. He will always love me without judging me. I know that God will always be there to help me.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES IN OUR PARISH

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Do you want to become more involved in St. James Catholic Church?

Whether you're new to St. James Parish or a long standing member, and you have time to share your valuable talents and resources, we are looking for help! St. James has a number of ministries, projects, and activities where we need volunteers to participate or lead. If you're interested in giving of your time or have questions about our various groups, please contact the rectory at 703-532-8815, visit our website at www.stjamescatholic.org/volunteer, or send an email to volunteer@stjamescatholic.org.

Bereavement Ministry

St. James Catholic Church is forming a Bereavement Ministry to provide spiritual comfort to families and friends of the deceased in our parish. If you are interested in volunteering and/or participating in funeral services, or providing spiritual family consolation on behalf of St. James, please send an email message to volunteer@stjamescatholic.org, or call the rectory at 703-532-8815.

Volunteers Needed for Christ House Soup Kitchen to Save This Endangered Program

For over 40 years, St. James parish has provided monthly, wholesome dinners for 60-70 homeless guests at the Christ House Diocesan Soup Kitchen and Shelter in Old Towne Alexandria (131 S. West Street). Sadly, the number of volunteers has dwindled to a level that makes it difficult to sustain this program. In addition, Judy Rybak, who has singlehandedly coordinated the program for 18 years, wishes to train co-leaders as part of the parish succession plan.

We are initiating a new approach to divide up the tasks for the 2nd Wednesday of the month dinners. It is our hope that volunteers will sign up electronically for a task, via SignUpGenius, for one or more months. Many of the tasks can be completed on your own schedule and in your own kitchen.

The following monthly assignments are needed:

Cooks: follow a recipe for a casserole, or make a salad, or prepare a hot vegetable or rice side

Bakers: make brownies or cookies to fill baggies

Shoppers at local grocery stores: buy bananas, bread, other food items as assigned, and storage baggies

Prep Driver: come to St. James parking lot from 6:00 - 6:30 pm on 2nd Tuesdays to meet cooks, bakers, and shoppers and to transfer the food to either Heller Hall kitchen or Judy Rybak's home

Event Driver: arrive at St. James at 2:30 pm on 2nd Wednesdays to pick up food and deliver to Christ House. Place casseroles directly into heated ovens.

Kitchen Helpers (maximum of six persons): to assemble meal and serve guests at Christ House. Need to arrive by 4:00 pm and stay until 6:30 pm.

If you are interested in any of these volunteer opportunities, please call or send an email that includes your name, contact telephone number, and email to: Susan Jackson at 703-533-3482 and Bard_susan@msn.com, or Peggy Carrington at 703-534-3206 and carrington8@msn.com.

We ask that you prayerfully consider helping us with this worthwhile ministry. Thank you!

Parking on Park Avenue

THANK YOU for utilizing all of our parking options for Sunday Masses. Please avoid parking in front of our neighbors' homes on Park Avenue. PLEASE PARK ONLY ON THE CHURCH SIDE OF PARK AVENUE OR IN OUR PARKING LOTS. In addition to our parking lots at Park & Spring Streets (A Lot) and at Park & Oak Streets (B Lot), you can park in the Teacher's Lot (C Lot) on Broad Street.
