From Our Seminarian

Last semester, I took a philosophy class with a brilliant professor who has taught at Saint Charles for a few decades. He has become a living legend among alumni, known principally for his extreme holiness, but also for his mystical, stream-of-consciousness teaching style.

At least once per session, sometimes more often, and sometimes seemingly apropos of nothing at all, he would ask us, "Now, gentlemen, have you told the Holy Spirit that you love Him today? If you haven't, you really should!" Over the course of the semester, this unfailingly recurring question took on a humorous element for my brother seminarians and me. We began to predict when we would hear the familiar exhortation, and on the walk across campus after class we would use our best impersonations to interrogate one another: "Have YOU told Him? What about you? Why not?"

I began to wonder why this question stood out to us. Why did it become so firmly lodged in our consciousness, becoming almost a running gag, something we treated with tongue-in-cheek irreverence? Certainly, many of us had never thought to do it before. It's comparatively easy to tell God the Son that we love Him. We can look at a picture of Him and tell Him to His face if we want. God the Father is similarly easy to conceptualize and imagine. We have earthly fathers who communicate Him to us, and we see His words and actions quite vividly in sacred scripture.

God the Holy Spirit, however, seems a little different. We see depictions of Him as well, but doves and tongues of fire are more difficult to connect with on a human level. We know of His actions in scripture, but they can be subtle, sometimes even hidden. That's why, I think, the Holy Spirit doesn't get to hear "I love you" quite as often as the other persons of the Blessed Trinity. But we know that He loves us! And He is here among us right now, surrounding us, moving in us, active in our lives just as He has been active in creation throughout all eternity!

Although it took me all semester, I finally saw the wisdom in my philosophy professor's question. Every day, I try to take a moment to tell the Holy Spirit that I love Him. It's a simple prayer; it only takes a couple of seconds. But it can be powerful, pausing whatever is going on in my day and reorienting it to the love between the Father and the Son.

So...have YOU told the Holy Spirit that you love Him today? If you haven't, you really should!

~Tim Courtney

From Our Pastor

Dear parishioners,

It has come to my attention that several of you have received an email, supposedly from me, saying that I am in need of Apple gifts cards. Please know that I am fine, and am not in need of financial assistance or gift cards.

Several people have forwarded copies of these emails and I have noticed that my email listed is incorrect. One sure way to tell is to check the email being used against the actual email you have for me. In some cases the only difference has been just one letter, in others, the email address is significantly different.

If you receive an email asking for money or gift cards, it is a scam. I am sorry for any inconvenience that these scams have caused you. Fr. Posey

Summer Book Series with Seminarian Tim Courtney Explores The Consolation of Philosophy.

Join Seminarian Tim Courtney for his summer books series on St. Boethius' The Consolation of Philosophy. Written in the 6th century, St. Boethius' work explores the questions of free will and predestination, why evil people might seem to prosper while good people might seem to fail, human nature, virtue, and justice. The next session will be Wednesday, July 25, from 7:30pm to 9:00pm, at the House of Ministries (903 Park Avenue). A few copies of the book are still available for those who missed the first session but would like to join in the discussion. For more information, contact Tim at tcourtney@stjamescatholic.org.

Summer Picnics at St. James

Throughout the summer, the priests and sisters of St. James will be hosting summer picnics on Monday and Tuesday evenings. Invitations to these events will be sent throughout the summer. If you would like to participate, but did not receive an invitation, contact the Rectory at 703-532-8815.

On Saturday, June 30, St. James hosted the iFiesta de Agradecimiento a la Comunidad Hispana de Saint James! A celebration thanking our Hispanic parishioners for all their contributions to the parish community. A great time was had by all who attended. A big thank you to the volunteer organizers and to Father Hoyos for joining us!
