The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Jesus said, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.

Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Mark 14:24-25

From Our Pastor

June is often a month of new beginnings. Couples start new lives together; graduates move onto new adventures in their education, their employment or their vocations. It is a time of excitement, anticipation and perhaps a little trepidation. In a small upper room Christ offered Himself as the way, the start of a new relationship – a new covenant promised by God and fulfilled by Jesus' sacrifice.

We renew our relationship every time we come before God at Mass, and especially at the Eucharistic table. Here we are able to start fresh, once again bringing Christ into our lives, literally, through the bread and wine. Food for our soul, the Eucharistic gifts are vehicles for grace gathered in community.

This week sees another graduating class leave our hallways. They join the thousands of other young men and women who have had their minds and hearts opened to the world of knowledge and to the word of God. To them I wish Godspeed and good luck. To them I would say you may leave Saint James but Saint James will not leave you. Your formative years were spent here, and, with your parents and teachers, have been years of real growth. I am grateful to Sister Mary Sue for her loving guidance of our students; her faculty, for their selfless devotion to them; and to their parents, for allowing us the opportunity to share, for a short time, their journey with them.

Our youngest students also have a special week ahead: the Kindergarten Class of 2018 will graduate to the "big kid" classes! I am reminded, at every Kindergarten program, of Christ saying "let the children come unto me." Their enthusiasm is infectious, and their faith is open and free. Thank you to their teachers and parents who've made this year so special.

In our bulletin this week is a listing of the dedicated catechists for our Religious Education Program. Thank you to them for all their work in bringing our parish children closer to God. Special thanks to our DRE Sister Regina, and to her assistants, Pam Heid and Mary Alice Healey, for all their efforts.

~Fr. Posey

Pro-Life Ministry Update

Thank you for your generous donations to HOPE House via the baby bottle collection. Your generosity will help support families facing crisis pregnancies.

Happening Now! There will be ongoing opportunities for prayer and sidewalk counseling each weekday morning (8:00am - 12:00pm) at the Falls Church Health Center, 900 South Washington Street. St. James parish covers Wednesdays, but come any day that is convenient for you. Please consider spending an hour in prayer. Short on time? Drop by for any amount of time you can.

Every Week. NOVA for Life is encouraging everyone to participate in a resolution to spend an hour in adoration and pray the rosary in silence before the Blessed Sacrament in intercessory prayer for an end to abortion, for the protection of the lives of the unborn and for the conversion of all those involved especially within our Diocese.

Every Month. There is a Holy Hour the second Tuesday of every month, 7:30-8:30pm, to pray for the healing of our culture and for those who hold the secret sorrow of abortion deep within their hearts - that grace will break through. The next Holy Hour is June 12 at St. Mary of Sorrows (Fairfax Station Road and Route 123, Fairfax, VA 22039).

You may join prayer novenas through Priests for Life (www.priestsforlife.org) any time.

This Week! The St. James Pro-Life Committee meets for action planning on first Thursday of each month at 7:30 PM in the Knecht Conference Room. The next meeting is June 7, 2018.

Preborn Baby Facts: At twenty-four weeks old a preborn baby is 14 inches now and weighs about 1 2/3 of a pound. She also sometimes makes breathing movements when she inhales amniotic fluid. This helps her get ready to breathe real air when she is born.*

Car Raffle Nears the Finish Line!

The deadline for submitting your raffle tickets for the drawing is June 12. Make checks payable to All Saints Catholic Church and send them in the return envelopes to the All Saints address. One $5 ticket offers the purchaser a chance to win all five vehicles plus $20,000 in cash prizes.

Many thanks to those who have already contributed by purchasing or selling tickets. Last year, the car raffle earned nearly $12,000 for St. James ministries. Best of luck!
