Stewardship

6th Sunday of Easter

"This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." John 15:12-13

Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we would be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him. Do you give of yourself out of obligation or do you share freely out of love? Let us resolve to put aside a mechanical mind-set; let us commit ourselves anew to bring our time, skills and financial sacrifice to our Lord with a loving and grateful heart.

From Our Pastor

"No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends."

There are many advantages to the life of a parish priest, not the least of which is that your student workers let you in on the latest music hits. I heard one the other day in which the lead singer asked, "Who would you live for? Who would you die for?" He goes on to say that he would die for his friends but then muses "metaphorically I'm the man, but literally I don't know what I'd do."

The singer has a good point. I think we take a small amount of comfort in thinking it highly unlikely we'd ever be faced with sacrificing our life for another. And so perhaps we don't think Jesus' message in today's Gospel applies to our reality. But it does. Read more and you see the message is love and the relationship between sacrifice and love.

We all sacrifice and we do so because we love. Christ's great love for us lead him to Calvary. So too, each time we "die" to ourselves, we echo this great act of mercy and love: each time a young man or woman promises fidelity to the other and to God; each time a friend listens to another's hurts; each time a parent sits vigil in a hospital room, or in a principal's or therapist's office. Each one of these acts requires that we put others before ourselves. Sometimes this is easy; but the true test comes when this profound love demands more. More time. More energy. More patience. More prayer.

It is in these moments when we can truly feel most connected to our Savior, when we glimpse on a very human level the all-consuming demand of true love. It can also be scary when we feel our reserves are lacking. "I can't love more. I can't do this anymore. I'm afraid. I am not a saint." But Jesus does not ask us for sainthood; he asks us to try. And to trust in Him. With His grace, the inevitable trials we face CAN be faced. We can do the things we never thought possible. We can be that same refuge to another that Christ is to us. Mother Teresa once said, "Intense love does not measure, it just gives."

Ask yourself this week, who would I give myself to this week?

~Fr. Posey

Annie Turner from Food for Others will be speaking at the May Social Outreach Committee meeting. Food for Others serves the needy in Northern VA, providing food to charitable organizations to restock their food pantries and food for families referred by Churches, the county and other organizations. It also runs a daily food distribution program to the community. Ms. Turner will be discussing Food for Others mission and their volunteer needs. All interested parishioners are invited to come. The meeting will be held at 7:00 pm in the St. James School Library, enter through Door 17.

Support HOPE in Northern Virginia

Our Social Outreach and Pro-Life Committees are once again reaching out to HOPE in Northern Virginia (our neighbor on Park Avenue). The HOPE house is paid for, but there are many everyday expenses that go along with owning a house as well as helping pregnant mothers and their babies. Diapers, wipes, baby bottles and other items need to be purchased regularly.

On the weekend of May 5th and 6th, the Outreach Committee and Pro-Life Committee will be handing out baby bottles after all the Masses. We invite parishioners to fill the bottles during the week with coins, bills or a check (made out to St. James) and return the bottles on May 12th and May 13th (Mother's Day). Both the Social Outreach Committee and the Pro-Life Committee will be weekend collecting bottles. Your children may want to get involved, too. Please encourage them to do so.

More details about HOPE are available at www.hopehousenova.org. Any questions, please e-mail HOPE at hopeinnova@gmail.com.

Car Raffle Continues...

All Saints Catholic Church once again invites our parishioners to participate in the 2018 Car Raffle. One $5 ticket offers the purchaser a chance to win all five vehicles plus $20,000 in cash prizes. Tickets were mailed to all registered St. James parishioners.

Make checks payable to All Saints Catholic Church and send them in the return envelopes to the All Saints address. Last year, the car raffle earned nearly $12,000 for St. James ministries. We look forward to this year's raffle and wish you luck!

The St. James Auction and Gala Chairs and committee members would like to thank the numerous businesses, faculty, clergy, families, and friends who made a donation toward the auction. Of these donors, we would like to specifically recognize the businesses for serving as our Community Partners through their contributions. We greatly appreciate and value their support for St. James School!
