From Our Pastor

"The Holy Spirit renews all things: He renews our heart, our life, and makes us live differently."

Pope Francis

Jesus is gone. In His absence he leaves a group of disciples still trying to grasp what has happened: still fearful, locked behind doors that serve as protection, and yet, in a way, also a prison. Last week Jesus encouraged His followers to "Go out into the world!" Share the Good News; bring others to me as I have brought you. He assured them at the Passover that he would not abandon them. Could they even imagine what would come next? Could they imagine the strength they would receive?

How do you think the Holy Spirit comes today? Do we expect gusts of wind or tongues of fire to rest upon our heads and stir our souls to action? Do we expect the thunder of courage, or do we accept the calmness of a river making its way through mountains and fields? The Holy Spirit gives us many things. If we remember our catechism, we can list the seven gifts. But it is more than a laundry list of virtues; it is a way of living. The Spirit is the perseverance we have when we meet with failure; the respect we give ourselves and others; the knowledge that we are created by love and we are meant to share God's love with all of his children; and the ability to see beyond ourselves, beyond the immediate – and trust.

If we allow it into our hearts, the Spirit is our connection to Christ. It is Jesus alive within us, allowing us to come out of our locked rooms. It is that grace that compels us to forgive hurts, to be brave in adversity, and to say no to things that would damage our bodies, our relationships, and our souls. It is that grace that enables us to "Live Jesus" as Saint Francis de Sales says, to renew our Baptismal promise to proclaim the faith. And to be proud to do so.

~Fr. Posey

Pro-Life Ministry Update

Happening Now! There will be ongoing opportunities for prayer and sidewalk counseling each weekday morning (8:00am – 12:00pm) at the Falls Church Health Center, 900 South Washington Street. St. James parish covers Wednesdays, but come any day that is convenient for you.

A Save in Falls Church. The life of a baby was saved from abortion March 29, 2018, Holy Thursday, according to witnesses Linda and Robert Dwyer. Read more in the April 25, 2018 Catholic Herald (www.catholicherald.com, search for sidewalk counselor).

Every Week. NOVA for Life is encouraging everyone to participate in a resolution to spend an hour in adoration and pray the rosary in silence before the Blessed Sacrament in intercessory prayer for an end to abortion, for the protection of the lives of the unborn and for the conversion of all those involved especially within our Diocese.

Every Month. There is a Holy Hour the second Tuesday of every month 7:30-8:30pm to pray for the healing of our culture and for those who hold the secret sorrow of abortion deep within their hearts – that grace will break through. The next Holy Hour is June 12 at St. Mary of Sorrows (Fairfax Station Road and Route 123, Fairfax, VA 22039).

You may join prayer novenas through Priests for Life (www.priestsforlife.org) any time.

The St. James Pro-Life Committee meets for action planning on the first Thursday of each month at 7:30pm in the Knecht Conference Room. The next meeting is June 7, 2018.

Did you know? Every year, approximately 56 million people die in the world ... from all causes. In addition to those 56 million, another 56 million die from abortion world-wide. (World Health Organization)
