Stewardship

Feast of the Holy Trinity

"The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ..." Romans 8:16-17

If we are heirs to the kingdom of God, shouldn't we work to build up His kingdom? Shouldn't we be good stewards of our inheritance, using our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to care for the Church that God has left to us? Our Church is a treasured heirloom from God. Do we treat it that way?

From Our Pastor

“Did anything so great ever happen before?” (Deuteronomy 4:32ff)

Every relationship has those first heady moments when you want to know all about the other person, when you want to spend all your time with them. Think of calling or texting your friend immediately after returning from seeing them at school; spending hours thinking of a special person for whom you have deep feelings; new parents completely enthralled by this beautiful miracle created with God.

Yet things can become rote: the perfunctory kiss goodbye to a spouse or child as they leave for their day; the everyday “how are you?” to a co-worker or friend. This is true even with our faith.

Today we celebrate the Most Holy Trinity: dogma in the most profound and mysterious sense. Do we give much thought to this? The Sign of the Cross is meant to remind us of this intensely intimate relationship within the Trinity and with us. Blessing ourselves is often reflexive, done during Mass and in the course of our every-day living: before a test, when hearing bad news, or before that field goal attempt at 4th and goal. However, this Sign is our link, our bond, with God. It reinforces our “adoption” as children of God. We enter into this union as active participants. We are not to be passive; we are not to be idle.

Our reading from Matthew today is known as the “Great Commission.” The remaining Apostles were called by Christ to spread the Good News. Despite loving Jesus, despite enjoying a deeply personal relationship with him, they still “doubted.” How were they to fulfill all that Jesus asked of them? “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.” Jesus did not leave them unprepared. Grace and strength given to them by the Holy Trinity supported them in their mission and in turn enables generations to know the mercy and compassion of God.

We have received our commission:

“We are called to act with justice.

We are called to love tenderly.

We are called to serve one another, to walk humbly with God.”

Let’s remember that nothing “so great ever happened before.” Or since.

~Fr. Posey

Prayer for Memorial Day

God of power and mercy,
you destroy war and put down
earthly pride.

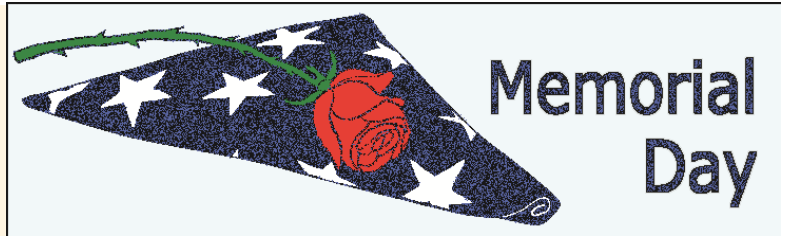

Banish violence from our midst and
wipe away our tears,
that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters.

Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen
