From Our Pastor

"The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry..."

Mark's story of the widow's mite is well known. Jesus reminds his disciples that it is easy to give of one's surplus, but the widow in this story has no surplus. Echoing the widow in the Book of Kings, both give not from their plenty, but from their hearts. In Kings, the widow is afraid, yet trusts Elijah. We don't know if the widow in Mark was afraid, but she must have been a little fearful. Unless a widow was taken in by family, they were left largely on their own. How hard must it have been for her to give what little money she had. The important thing about both women is that though they may have been afraid, they trusted God, and they wanted to honor him with their gifts. We are also called to emulate the widow. That is why each Sunday we include a Stewardship section highlighting ways that we can honor God through prayer, sacrifice, service, and support. As we near the end of our liturgical year, let us renew our commitment to serving our Lord from the heart. Let us join the chorus of men and women in Mark's Gospel who saw, believed, and trusted in the Lord.

Today is Veteran's Day; a day to honor the men and women who sacrificed for service. They, like other first responders, entered into danger while others flee. They prepared, protected and preserved for our benefit. It is easy to take them for granted. But without them, the freedoms we enjoy would not exist. Without them, our lives and the lives of millions throughout the world would not be the same. Pray for our men and women who have served their country and for those who actively serve now. Thank them and let them know they are not forgotten.

Discover Catholic Schools Week begins today. We were blessed with a visit from Bishop Burbidge on October 30th. He asked the students what makes Saint James such a great school. From the pews came the answers: our teachers, our IHM Sisters, the programs, the people, and our priests! I invite you to see for yourself what a Saint James education can do for your child. We are fortunate to have the ONLY school in the diocese with two Blue Ribbon Awards for academic excellence; one of only seven in the Commonwealth. Whether or not you have school age children, I invite you to drop by one of our Open Houses (Sunday, 10:00am-12:00pm or Tuesday, 9:00-11:00am) to see how your prayerful and financial support is being used to educate young men and women of faith, learning, and service.
