Stewardship: Thanksgiving

"To be grateful is to recognize the love of God in everything." - Thomas Merton

This Thursday we will pause as a nation to give thanks for the many blessings in our lives. It is the one holiday simply about gratitude; no presents bought or received. Just love. It is right to share this love with those for whom Thanksgiving is a reminder of loss, not plenty. Reach out to long-lost friends or relatives; invite a co-worker who is alone to your home. Remember our military and all absent loved ones in prayer. Remember to thank the One from who all "good gifts" come; remember to thank Our Lord whose love and blessings can be felt throughout the year, not just the fourth Thursday in November.

From Our Pastor

"It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord..."

These words, spoken at the Preface in the Liturgy of the Eucharist, are a familiar beginning to the most sacred part of the Mass. The priest literally invites the congregation to join him in thanking the Lord for the blessings and mercies He has bestowed upon us; we respond that it is "right and just" to give thanks. In these few words, we acknowledge that it is God who bequeaths salvation to us, through His Son's sacrifice. A sacrifice that we have repeated daily throughout two millennia.

So, I thought it fitting to focus on these words when, in just a few days, we will celebrate Thanksgiving. I know, too, that just as the words we recite at Mass can become rote, Thanksgiving can become commonplace, another event serving as a prequel to big sales, Black what-ever-day-of-the week you want to cite. But, my sisters and brothers, we shouldn't look at this national holiday as an excuse to eat turkey and watch football. Those are good things, don't get me wrong, but they should not be the sole reason we gather.

Yet, many of us come to the family and Eucharistic tables broken, bent by the weight of fractured bodies, minds, and relationships. Sometimes seats are unoccupied for want of an absent member. While each table symbolizes community, love, and sacrifice, sometimes it is difficult, if not painful, to sit there.

I am not so naïve to think that one dinner, or even one Mass, can repair years of hurt, miraculously mend family strife, or soothe a grieving heart, but I believe in the Lord that by reaching out to those around us it is a step. If your table is full of happiness and plenty, praise God! If your soul rejoices in our God every Sunday (or perhaps even daily), praise God! Invite, then, others who may not be so fortunate. Share your blessings of bounty and faith with those who hunger for it. If you cannot do so in person, call while the turkey is baking. Let others know you are thinking of them. Give your heart and your thanks to God and to those in your life.

"It is right and just."

On behalf of my brother priests, our IHM Sisters, deacons, faculty and staff, we wish you a truly blessed Thanksgiving. Know that you are remembered in prayer by us as we give thanks to you, our beloved parishioners. God bless.

~ Fr. Posey

A Thanksgiving Prayer

"This Thanksgiving, let those of us who have much and those who have little gather at the welcoming table of the Lord. At this blessed feast, may rich and poor alike remember that we are called to serve one another and to walk together in God's gracious world. With thankful hearts, we praise our God who like a loving parent denies us no good thing." From Songs of Our Hearts, Meditations of Our Souls: Prayers for Black Catholics

Knights of Columbus Turkey Drive – November 22

As we approach the Thanksgiving holiday season, we should reflect on all of the blessings, which God has given us and how we might share those blessings with others in our community. This year EDW will once again be serving the greater Arlington community and its surrounding areas. You can get involved with our upcoming Thanksgiving Event by donating 20 lbs. turkeys (cooked/unstuffed) in an effort to reach our goal of 250 turkeys. Financial donations are needed. Those can be sent to the council office to the attention of the Financial Secretary. Please note “Thanksgiving 2018” in the memo section. For more information, please contact Thom and Marijo Galvin at 703-632-4544.

Year-End Giving Opportunities

Tax Savings Through a Gift of Stock

Consider a gift of stock as a donation to our parish or school. In exchange for a gift of long-term, appreciated securities (stock), you can receive an income tax deduction and avoid capital gains taxes on stock appreciation. For more information, please call (703) 841- 3896 or visit: <https://bit.ly/2OL7sRM>.

Make a Gift through a Tax-Free IRA Gift

Why is this important? This provision allows individuals age 70½ or older to make tax-free gifts from an IRA directly to a parish, school, or the Diocese. To complete an IRA Charitable Rollover for 2018 please contact your IRA provider for exact instructions. Such gifts usually take a few weeks to transact.

Pro-Life Committee Update

The Pro-Life Group would like to remind parishioners that November is Adoption Month, and that less than two percent of unexpected pregnancies end in adoption, meaning that for every one child that is adopted, 61 are aborted. To read about one mother’s story of adoption, and to learn why adoption is so important, visit: <https://bit.ly/2AWekmY>.

The next meeting of the Pro-Life Committee will be on Thursday, December 6 at 7:30pm in the Knecht Conference Room (Doors 8 & 9).

For more information on the St. James Pro-Life Committee, including a listing of upcoming events, please visit: <https://bit.ly/2vODvoE>.

Successful Catholic Charities St. Lucy Food Drive

St. James Parish participation in the Catholic Charities St. Lucy Project was a tremendous success! Your generosity yielded 6,526 pounds of food! The vision of the St. Lucy Project is to dramatically grow the existing food distribution network to reduce hunger and food insecurity in the Diocese of Arlington. Thank you very much for helping hungry families throughout the Arlington Diocese. Special thanks to the members of the Social Outreach Committee who distributed and collected the blue grocery bags and to the Boy Scouts who helped load the St. Lucy truck.
