From Our Pastor

"Ephphatha!"

The readings today command our attention. We are told to open ourselves to the Lord and His words of healing. From the moment of our baptism, we are invited to have an intimate relationship with Jesus. At this first Rite of Initiation, the "Ephphatha!" prayer is said:

"The Lord has made the deaf hear and the dumb speak. May He soon touch your ears to receive His word, and your mouth to proclaim His faith, to the praise and glory of God the Father. Amen"

The waters of Baptism unclog our ears and free our voices not only to listen to God's word, but to proclaim it. To be, as we know all too well here at Saint James, "doers of the Word and not hearers only."

In his Gospel, Mark describes an intensely personal interaction between Jesus and the suffering man from Tyre. It sounds almost messy and somewhat off-putting. But my sisters and brothers, Christ's commandments, his decree to "Be Open" is personal and sometimes messy. Jesus comes to each of us in different ways; our experiences of him are naturally different. But still He comes, with an individual message but a common theme: You are loved by me. Be strong. Take me with you into the world. Do not be afraid of the mess.

Do not be afraid of the person who looks different from you. Do not be afraid of the old, or the sick, or the poor. Do not be afraid to speak up for your faith when others belittle it. Do not be afraid to forgive, or to ask to be forgiven. Do not be afraid to love the unlovable in His name and in your heart.

Let us shout the refrain: "Ephphatha!" May you be open to His love this week and share that love with all you encounter. God bless.

~Fr. Posey

Our Community Picnic was held Saturday. Look for photos and a recap in next week's bulletin. I am grateful to all who made this wonderful event happen.
