From Our Pastor

“Mom likes me best.”

Anyone who has a sibling can relate to this sentence. Especially among larger families this competition for favor can be keenly seen (and felt). Even within my comparatively small family, my siblings used to tease me that I was my parents’ favorite because of my priestly vocation. Modesty prevents me from either confirming or denying such sentiments.

In today’s Gospel, the disciples are bickering amongst themselves to see who was indeed the most favored. An ironic discussion in hindsight given that one would betray Him, one would deny Him, not once but three times, and those remaining would all desert Him at a time when He needed them the most. Embarrassed, the disciples say nothing; yet, Jesus seeks not to admonish but to teach. Last week and again this week He is trying to impart that, yes He is the Messiah, but it is not a glorious reign He will have on earth. He will suffer and die a terrible death (listen here Peter), and His Messianic mission is not to rule, but to serve.

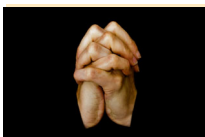

The Evangelist wants us to see that service to Christ means serving the disenfranchised, the poor, and the vulnerable. Opening ourselves to their plight opens our hearts to receive Christ, “Ephphatha!” Entering into their world through volunteerism, through prayer or through everyday living affords us the opportunity to become an active member of Jesus’ mission. Doing so entails risk; it makes us vulnerable as well; to loss, to grief and even to ridicule.

Saint Mother Teresa once said, “I have found the paradox, that if you love until it hurts, there can be no more hurt, only more love.” My friends, this week and all weeks, let us be that paradox.

~Fr. Posey

This week we have the opportunity to come together in prayer and community. We celebrate our first Mass of Special Intentions this Wednesday at 6:30pm. I encourage you to bring your concerns to the Lord by using our Prayer Intention Boxes at each entrance or on our website (www.stjamescatholic.org). Join us as we bring our cares to the Altar.

This weekend we gather to run (or walk) for our IHM Sisters in Camilla Hall and to bless our animal friends at the Annual Pet Blessing. The 2018 Nun Fun Run/Walk begins at 7:30am with warm-ups. Check the school website for more information. Our Pet Blessing begins at 9:30am. I hope to see you there. God bless your week.
