From Our Pastor

"[S]ee, I am doing something new! Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? Isaiah 43:19

A few weeks ago we read about the transformative nature of God's presence in our lives. Upon that mountain, Jesus is revealed not only as the New Lawgiver but as God's Chosen Son. We are commanded to "listen to Him!" Today, in Jesus' role as the new Moses, He is directly confronted with a test of His authority. "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?"

Imagine how gleeful the scribes and Pharisees must've been parading the adulterous woman in front of the crowd? Surely this was the bait to trap this annoying prophet and silence His followers. As a Jew, there is no higher law than that of Moses. The scribes and Pharisees provided proof; they had eyewitnesses. The penalty, death, was the natural consequence of her sins. In essence, they were trial, judge and jury.

But Jesus is here to reveal "something new!" He comes not to condemn, but to encourage others to abandon their sinful ways. He doesn't chastise the Pharisees in this reading; rather he lets them go to think on their misdeeds. Whatever the woman's "sins" were, they are not brought to judgment by Christ. In His mercy, He asks only that she "sin no more."

This reading is so important, especially during Lent, because its message is at the heart of Jesus' ministry. It gives a tangible example of the Prophet Joel's call: "Even now, says the Lord, return to me with your whole heart; for I am gracious and merciful."

In our world where hypocrisy runs rampant, where it is played out in social media, on the news and society in general, it is easy to see how it can filter into our homes and workplaces. We are so ready at times to cast aspersions at others, to make assumptions of guilt based upon race or religion, etc., that we don't see our failings. And we all have failings.

Lent can often be seen as a "downer," more about what we give up or scary notions of Confession. But we can also view it as a time of real hope - the hope that we've seen in the previous Scripture readings - the hope that true mercy can give. The Prodigal Son's father and now today, our Heavenly Father, wants nothing more than for us to come willingly to Him. It is this hope that we will carry with us on the road to Calvary and celebrate Easter morning. ~Fr. Posey

The event will feature a presentation on silent prayer, group discussion, and a silent prayer workshop. Participants may bring food and beverages to the workshop. This prayer from the heart enables us to meet the person of Christ, to truly know ourselves and to give ourselves ever more fully to him." A small, free-will donation is requested from all attendees to help defray Ms. Keeler's costs for producing the workshop's materials.

Reflection Question: How must have the woman felt when Jesus forgave her? Have you made someone feel that way through your forgiveness?

THE HOLY TRIDUUM

We have come to the threshold of The Holy Triduum – The Three Days. These are the days when God moves most profoundly among us, the days when we enter most deeply into God’s movement. In word and symbol and gesture, we celebrate the mysteries of life and death and resurrection in company with the Risen Christ who shows us the way.

HOLY THURSDAY – April 18

Mass of the Lord’s Supper
7:30 pm – Church

The Gospel leaves no room for doubt – the most humble service given in love surrounds the gift of Christ’s Body and Blood. Feet are washed – a demanding gesture, at once a little messy, a little awkward, like many of love’s demands. Wine and bread are consecrated – enough bread for tomorrow when even sacraments are silent. Procession with the Eucharist from the church building to the altar of repose in Msgr. Heller Hall, accompanied by the Hispanic community. Adoration through the last hours of the day, until midnight when Friday’s fast begins.

GOOD FRIDAY – April 19

Celebration of the Lord’s Passion (Veneration of the Cross)
7:30 pm – Church

We come to stand with the women and the beloved disciple to listen to the Passion according to St. John. We pray with every man and woman and child in whom Christ is still suffering. We eat the Bread of Remembrance. A single cross is lifted high for our veneration together, then placed at the altar steps. Individual veneration of the cross when the celebration of the Lord’s Passion is over. We leave an empty church in silence.

Stations of the Cross
3:00 pm – Church

Living Stations of the Cross (en Español)
4:30 pm.

EASTER VIGIL – April 20

8:30 pm – Church

“Mother of all vigils.” This is St. Augustine’s name for tonight, a name that conveys how the church cherishes this night that is different from any other. A vigil is a night watch: people who would normally be home resting are awake, gathered in expectation, waiting for news. We wait in a great company, as Christians around the world keep watch. Nothing is ordinary about this evening we spend together. The Vigil is long and full.

It begins outside with Fire, kindled in the presence of our elect and our candidates and those who accompany them. The Paschal Candle is ignited from that fire and carried into the darkened church where all our candles are lighted from that flame.

We hear the EXSULTET – THE EASTER PROCLAMATION.

This is the night when Christ broke the prison-bars of death and rose victorious from the grave. (Cont. P.9)

In the light of the Easter candle, we listen to God's Word, the story of our salvation. Women and men from our assembly come, one after another, to proclaim the Word, readings announcing how God saves His people throughout history, pursuing us with unrelenting affection. These stories take time to tell and time to savor, and call us to respond in psalm and in prayer. The Gloria sounds again after Lenten silence, and the Alleluia. Lights are thrown on. Bells ring.

Led to faith by God's Word and by God's people, our elect come to be baptized. Baptismal water will be blessed and poured over Erik Brendon Bond, Bryan Escobar, Lucas Guillen, Mateo Guillen, Jesse Ethan Heminger, Dylan Loayza, Kenneth Alan Messner, Bryan Velasco, Jovanny Velasco, and David Burns Westphal. They are wrapped in the white garment of Christ's life and are given the new light of Christ. Called to remember and renew our own baptism, we stand to embrace the saving waters. We acclaim our candidates as they reaffirm their baptism and, with the newly baptized, are sealed and confirmed with the oil of chrism. Together we taste and savor the Bread of Life – Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of the Risen Lord.

The Mother of all Vigils enfolds the Christian people, nourishes our Christianity, sends us out to embody Christ to the world.

EASTER SUNDAY – April 21

Masses at 7:30am, 9:00am, 10:30am, Noon, 7:00 pm
Misa en Español at 2:30 pm

The Great Sunday, the Feast of Fifty Days begins!

The fifty days from Easter to Pentecost are celebrated as one feast day, The Great Sunday. The Easter candle is lit and God's people may feel the waters of life throughout this season. New Catholics join their brothers and sisters at the Table of the Lord. A time of grace for our whole parish.

PENTECOST – June 9

The Birthday of the Church! The celebration of all God's people!
