On The Way

Truth and Beauty II

One of the most distinctive features in Catholic architecture is stained glass windows. The beauty of Chartres Cathedral or Paris's La Chapelle comes from their soaring, sublime stained glass. Although the windows in our church cannot compete with theirs, they still serve the same purpose of bringing beauty to the church. And yet they are not just pretty architectural adornments. They also convey the truth — about who we are as Christians and what we are about in our worship.

They first teach us that in entering the church, we have entered a different place, a sacred one. The light brought in by stained glass windows distinguishes the space of a church from that of the outside world. We have entered a place intended not for secular, commercial, or political purposes but for divine worship. Thus the windows seek to impress on us a sense of holiness. They remind us of the reverence we should show for the place and elicit the wonder we should have when we come into the presence of God.

This also reveals something about ourselves. The pagans of the ancient world built temples to house their gods. Christians build churches to house not just our Lord in the Eucharist but also His holy people, the Church. By reminding us of the sacred purpose of the church, the special light of the windows reminds us that we, the People of God, are holy. We have been sanctified by Baptism, and we enter into the church, God's dwelling place, because He desires to be among us.

Our windows also teach us about the saints. Each saint presents a different way of following Christ. There are many ways of living out the one true faith. As varied and diverse as we are as a congregation, everyone of us can find a saint whose life resonates with him or her. There is also a certain hierarchy. Our Lady has pride of place: in the main aisle and closest to the sanctuary. In fact, she also has pride of number: there are three different windows depicting our Lady. (Can you find all three?)

Most of all, the representation of the saints in the windows reminds us of their real, though mystical, presence with us in our worship. In the first Eucharistic Prayer, the priest describes the congregation as in communion with and venerating the memory of the saints (Mary first of all). Notice, we do not merely venerate their memory, as if they are just figures of the past. We are also in communion with them because they are real, living persons.

The display of the saints in the windows, then, presents something real that our eyes cannot perceive — namely, that in our worship the Church on earth is united with the Church in heaven in praise of God. Inspired by the beauty of their lives, we join them in crying out, Holy, Holy, Holy...

- Fr. Scalia

Stewardship

“For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.” Luke 12:34

Jesus encourages us to build up our treasure in heaven. The world encourages us to build up our treasure in real estate, investments, and material goods. How much time are you investing in building up a worldly treasure? How much time are you investing in building up a heavenly treasure? It's not just credit card jargon; the most worthwhile things in this life and beyond are priceless: the caring word, the sympathetic ear, the faithful heart. Find your treasure in the richness of the Sacraments, the joy in fellowship and the fulfillment found in living life as a Gospel witness.

Bible Studies at St. James

Would you like to increase your faith? Do you want the Word of God to take root in your soul and yield a bountiful harvest (Matthew 13:8)? One way to become “rich soil” is to join one of our parish-sponsored Bible studies that begin in September. (We will publish a complete schedule of studies for September 2019-May 2020 later this month.)

Our parish owns 40 Bible studies taught via DVDs by well-known Catholic scholars and teachers such as Jeff Cavins, Bishop Robert Barron, Edward Sri and Tim Gray. Studies range in length from 5 to 20 weeks. Most groups complete 2 or 3 studies during the year. Groups meet weekly to view a DVD teaching, followed by discussion and prayer. Optional study guides are available for purchase at the first meeting.

The scheduled studies and start dates:

- Sunday, September 8: “Lectio: Philippians,” co-ed, 1:30pm—3:30pm, School Library (Door 17)
- Wednesday, September 11: “Epic: History of the Early Church,” 9:15am -11am, women, Knecht Meeting Room (Doors 8 & 9)
- Thursday, September 12: “Follow Me: Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John,” women, 7:00pm—9:00pm, Knecht Meeting Room (Doors 8 & 9)
- Wednesday, September 18: “Genesis to Jesus,” 9:15am -11:00am, women, Knecht Conference Room (Doors 8 & 9)
- Thursday, September 26: “Galatians: Set Free to Live,” 9:30-11:30 am, co-ed, Knecht Conference Room (Doors 8 & 9)
- Mondays, date TBD: “Untold Blessings,” 3:45 pm, St. James School teachers, Classroom 19

St. James Pro-Life Ministry Updates

The St. James Pro-Life Ministry reminds you that it has been reported that “no shows” go up by as much as 70% when people are praying in front of an abortion facility. See firsthand how a simple prayer vigil made the difference for a woman seeking an abortion: <http://bit.ly/2Wpj1gE>. Could you be there for someone? Peaceful prayer is always needed in front of the Falls Church Healthcare Center, 900 South Washington Street.

You are invited to pray the Third Saturday Rosary at 9:00am at Landmark Towers, the busiest abortion center in the diocese: 101 S Whiting Street, Alexandria, VA 22304. The rosary follows 8:00 AM Mass at Queen of Apostles, 4401 Sano St, Alexandria, VA 22304.

Also, don't forget, you have an opportunity to learn about the Hosea Initiative (www.hosea4you.org) with Founder Terry Beatley. She will lead a discussion about a pro-life action plan to end abortion, on Thursday, August 22, from 7:00pm to 9:00pm at St. Raymond's Parish, 8750 Pohick Road, Springfield, VA.

The St. James Pro-Life Ministry will next meet on Thursday, September 5, at 7:30pm in the Knecht Conference Room (Doors 8 & 9). Please join them.

The conference will examine what true palliative care is and what your parish family can do to help care for those with chronic illness or the terminally ill. All are welcome to come to Mass at 8:00am. Light refreshments will be served immediately after Mass. The presentations begin at 9:00am. Lunch will be served at 11:45am. At 12:30 pm, we will begin a closed session for parish leaders only. For more information, including the list of speakers, and registration, visit <http://bit.ly/33435os>.

St. Lawrence was a deacon for Pope Saint Sixtus II who suffered martyrdom under the reign of Roman Emperor Valerian in 258AD. As a deacon, Lawrence looked after the material goods for the Church and gave alms to the poor. Commanded by a Roman prefect to bring forth the “treasures of the Church,” so that the Emperor could use them to fund his military campaigns, Lawrence asked for three days to gather them. He then proceeded to present to the Romans the blind, lame, poor, sick, and widowed of Rome, insisting that these were the Church’s greatest treasures. The prefect was not amused and sentenced Lawrence to death by roasting on a gridiron. During the torture, Lawrence quipped, “It is well done, turn me over!” We celebrate his Feast Day every August 10. To hear more about St. Lawrence, visit <http://bit.ly/2KxYwtZ>.
