Stewardship

The 2019 Bishop's Lenten Appeal Commitment weekend is next weekend. Once a year we are asked to make a commitment to support the work of our diocesan programs and ministries which provide services that no single parish could provide on its own. This important effort is a means by which we work together by sharing the gifts God has bestowed upon us. Our parish goal is $315,000 and 100 % participation. Please join us to continue God's work of spirituality, education and charity in our diocese through this appeal!

Thank you for your continued support.

From Our Pastor

There is a lot of material in today's readings. From Samuel and Saint Paul, we see that Jesus is the New Adam, chosen by God to lead His people. But, just as David was a different kind of leader, Jesus is like nothing people have ever seen.

He is a radical. He challenges the status quo. He dares to be different and dares us to cast our own nets of mercy wide. The last three weeks we've seen these revolutionary ideas take shape: His call to leave everything behind and follow Him; His focus on the poor and disenfranchised; and now, perhaps His greatest and most profound teaching, to love our enemies and treat others as we would want to be treated. That's absurd! Why would I love those who hurt me? Why would I lend money to someone I know who won't repay it? How can I NOT judge others? What's the point of our judicial system?

These ideas are different twists to the Ten Commandments, Jesus as the New Moses wants us not only to love God above all things but to love our neighbor. I would guess that for most of us it's pretty easy to follow the letter of the commandments. I'm not going to steal; I certainly wouldn't kill anyone. But to turn my cheek to those who judge me harshly? To give without any thought of reciprocity?

That is exactly what we are all called to do, though it is not always easy. It is incredibly difficult at times, but not impossible with God's grace. This is not to say that we should miraculously love those who've hurt us deeply; but, rather that we should move past the hurt. Nor does it mean that anything goes because who can judge? It means that we cannot and should not become hypocrites: pretending friendship while we gossip behind another's back; posting caustic comments on social media while we engage in similar behavior, etc..

The Rev. Martin Luther King spoke of loving "all men because God loves them." He goes on to say something even more powerful; that "[L]ove has within it a redemptive power. And there is a power there that eventually transforms individuals." I pray we can all have such redemption in our lives.

In recent days we have seen our diocese release the names of priests credibly accused of sexual abuse and/or misconduct. This is a case not only of right judgment according to God's law, but also of the absolute need for transformation. We have before us examples where transparency, charity, and healing were lacking; and so we must call for change. We must continue to seek justice, demand accountability, pray for forgiveness and work for a renewed commitment to protect the dignity of the individual. This we can and must do together. For more information on the diocese's response, please go to: <https://bit.ly/2SBOOxR> and from the Bishop: <https://bit.ly/2tpsuYY>.

On the following page you will find a letter detailing our own efforts at Saint James to ensure the protection and security of all who come here, especially our youth. It is signed by our Principal, Director of Religious Education and those lead volunteers who work for an advocate for the youth of our parish. I thank each of them for their dedication and commitment.

~ Fr. Posey

February, 2019

My dear sisters and brothers in Christ:

In recent days, the Dioceses of Arlington and Richmond have published a report detailing an account of clerical abuse in our localities. This scandal is incredibly painful for all concerned. We must seek accountability and atonement; and we must continue to pray for the victims and their families. So too, we must pray for our Church, that we remain open to God's grace, seek His mercy and be guided by His commandments.

Ensuring the safety of our parish family, and all who visit Saint James, has been, and continues to be, an important focus of my ministry here. To that end, Saint James has the following measures in place to ensure the security and welfare of every individual:

We require all Priests, Deacons, Sisters, employees, and those volunteers who have substantial contact with children to:

- Attend an educational program (VIRTUS) which includes methods of recognizing and preventing child abuse and sexual misconduct involving children and others.
- Undergo a background and reference checks.
- Review and sign the Code of Conduct for Personnel and Volunteers in the Diocese of Arlington which clearly states the guidelines in place to protect children and young people.
- Review and sign the Diocese of Arlington's Policy on the Protection of Children/Young People and Prevention of Sexual Misconduct and/or Child Abuse. This document covers how and what to report, if abuse is suspected. Please see www.arlingtondiocese.org to view documents.
- Have (2) adults present when meeting with a minor.
- We have also incorporated security investments (cameras, etc.) throughout campus.

For more information on the diocesan response, please go to: <https://bit.ly/2HtWKfo>. I am grateful to those who work to share God's message; and I am especially grateful for the undersigned who partner with me to inspire new generations of faithful Catholics. Please do not hesitate to contact me with questions or concerns. May God continue to bless you and our beautiful parish.

EXCELLENCE IN CATHOLIC EDUCATION FOR MORE THAN A CENTURY

We want to congratulate parishioner (and daughter of our own Facilities Director Vince) Elizabeth Dufrane for scoring her 1,000th -- you read that correctly -- 1000th point for the McLean's Girls Varsity Basketball team. Elizabeth, a former Rocket, was a regular in our CYO league and we couldn't be prouder of her! She is now the all-time lead scorer for McLean.

On Friday, February 15th McLean High School won the District Championship for the first time since 1977!

We love how she's still wearing

Cookies available at the sale will be the: Do Si Dos, Girl Scout S'more, Samoas, Savannah Smiles, Tagalongs, Thin Mints, Toffee Tastic, and Trefoils brands. New Parking Rules Taking Effect, Enforcement Expected to Begin Around March 1

The long-expected parking changes, due to the construction of the Founders Row complex, are here! The City of Falls Church has placed signs on North Spring Street and the Church side of Park Avenue limiting parking to a maximum of two hours per vehicle. Parking on the residential side of Park Avenue will be by permit only. Enforcement of these new rules is anticipated to begin around Friday, March 1. To avoid any difficulties that the new parking rules might pose as you attend Mass or other events at St. James, we urge you to make use of one of our own parking lots: at Park & Spring Streets (A Lot); at Park & Oak Streets (B Lot); and in the Teacher's Lot (C Lot) off of Broad Street. All three lots are a city block or more away from the construction site, and parking in these lots assures you of a worry-free, and most importantly, ticket-free, parking experience. We thank you for your understanding and your efforts to ensure that St. James remains a good neighbor within the City of Falls Church.

Catholic Daughters of America Showing The Movie – "Gardener of God" March 12 and 16

Catholic Daughters Court Queen of Peace #1872 will be showing the movie, "Gardener of God" at St. Ann Catholic Church, 5312 10th Street N, Arlington, on Tuesday, March 12 at 10:00am and on Saturday, March 16 at Noon. The movie documents the life of Gregor Johann Mendel, an Augustinian Friar and scientist who is considered the father of modern genetics science. Please RSVP to CDA1872@gmail.com or by calling Teresa at 703-573-1582. Attendees are asked to bring one household item, such as bath/hand towels, household cleaning supplies, paper towels, soap, or trash bags. The CDA will donate these items to clients of the Arlington Street People Assistance Network as part of "Welcome Home" baskets as they move into housing. Thank you for your generosity!
