but one mightier than I is coming.

From Our Pastor

"After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened, and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, 'You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.'"

Wouldn't it be nice if God gave us answers to our deepest questions as clearly as he did to the Jews gathered in today's Gospel? Wouldn't that sort of clarity be terrific? Here's Jesus; He's the one you should follow. Like a giant "You Are Here" arrow, the readings reflect where many of us are... waiting, searching for something or someone to be the solution.

Our Lord, they say, works in mysterious ways. Sometimes it is a single moment in time where God speaks to you; where you are keenly aware of His presence and feel this tremendous metanoia, this change of heart. Like Saul on the proverbial road, a path opens, upending everything we once thought of ourselves and our purpose. Like Scrooge on a cold Christmas Eve. This call from God is loud, direct and unmistakable. Of course, we can get up off the road, dust ourselves off and continue the way we were headed; we can turn over and lament the dreams as a "bit of bad potato." But the pull is so profound it cannot be denied or ignored.

Or the moment comes over time; years or decades even. You may feel God trying to call you, but the noise of your life drowns Him out. You may feel a sudden urge to attend Mass or go to Confession, but the feelings of peace leave too quickly. But still, God calls you; and not necessarily in times of crisis or drama. He can enter your heart slowly through interactions with people or perhaps a book (or better still) a Scripture passage that finally clicks, that finally speaks to your soul as well as your mind.

I ask you then to be open to the ways God calls you to Him; or, to how you may echo that call and bring others to Him. A friend told me of a sermon where she heard the priest quote from the Song of Songs: "When I found him whom my soul loves, I held him and would not let him go." I pray that however you experience Christ, you hold fast to Him, for He assuredly will never let you go.

This week many of our parishioners will once again march in support of the dignity of life. Let us pray for them and all who work to promote the dignity of each person throughout their lives as children of God.

New Year Bringing New Parking Changes Around St. James

As many of you know, the City of Falls Church has approved construction of the Founders Row development, which will include 93,000 square feet of retail space and 400 apartments. Founders Row will occupy the entire space adjacent to the St. James Convent field and House of Ministries, bordered by Broad Street, West Street, and Park Avenue. Construction has begun and is expected to take three years to complete, bringing the local traffic disruptions one would expect from such a massive project. To encourage Founders Row customers to park in the development’s parking garage, the City is implementing permanent parking restrictions on Park Avenue between West Street and Spring Street. The Church side of Park Avenue will be restricted to two-hour parking; the residential side of Park Avenue will be limited to resident-only parking. If you have been parking on the residential side of Park Avenue to attend Mass and other events at St. James, now is a good time to change your parking habits. To avoid the expected construction-related traffic disruptions and the new parking restrictions, remember that you may park in any of our parking lots: at Park & Spring Streets (A Lot); at Park & Oak Streets (B Lot); and in the Teacher’s Lot (C Lot) off of Broad Street. All three lots are a city block or more away from the construction site.

52 Days Until Ash Wednesday.
It's never too early to start thinking about how to have a holy and meaningful Lent.
