Stewardship: Second Collection Next Week: Church in Latin America

For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support to the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more about how you can make a difference, please visit //www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Para muchos en América Latina y el Caribe, una creciente cultura secular, un terreno rural difícil y una escasez de ministros son obstáculos para practicar la fe. Su apoyo a la colecta proporciona capacitación para el liderazgo laico, la catequesis, la formación de sacerdotes y religiosos y otros programas para compartir nuestra fe con aquellos que ansían escuchar la Buena Nueva de Cristo. Para informarse más sobre cómo usted puede hacer una diferencia, por favor, visite //www.usccb.org/latin-america

From Our Pastor

Our past two Sundays have taken us beyond the birth of Christ – acknowledged by earthly kings and literally heralded by God as his “beloved Son.” Though Jesus tells His mother in today’s well-known Gospel that his time “has not yet come,” we know from John the Baptist that it has. John’s prophetic and profound realization that “I must decrease as he increases” paves the way for the Miracle at Cana.

Cana is interesting to me as it reveals not only Jesus’ divinity but his humanity. Prompted by Mary, he says essentially, “I’m not ready.” I think it’s easy to see Jesus as fully grasping His role as Savior, yet our readings are peppered with recollections of Jesus going away to pray; to listen to God. God the Father saw His destiny; Mary His mother did too.

Mary knew as many mothers do that her child was ready to become all they were meant to be. Jesus’ retort of essentially, why should I care there’s no wine left, has become the stuff of cartoons and Hallmark cards. However, it’s easy to overlook just how Mary must have felt at that moment. Did the words of Simeon come back to her, that her heart would be “pierced?” Did she recall the moment when she and Joseph searched for days for Him only to find Jesus in “his Father’s house?” How difficult must it have been for her then to encourage Jesus? For her words and His actions set in motion the “final” act of our salvation.

I remember my mother encouraging my vocation to the priesthood. From the time she brought me to Saint James to pray with the Charismatic Group as a young teenager, to the moment I lay prostrate before the Lord, her unwavering belief in my destiny guided and supported me. She saw, as Saint Paul wrote: “[t]o each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” I continue to pray that whatever gifts I have bring others to the joy I feel in my relationship with the Lord.

How many times have we heard, “there’s no time like the present?” Well, add one more today. There is no time like today to use your God-given talents to benefit others. There is no time like today to “announce his salvation day after day.” Your time and mine have come.

~ Fr. Posey

PRESENTATION OF THE LORD CANDLEMAS

Saturday, February 2, 2019

Since the early centuries, Christians have marked the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord by blessing candles for use in church and home. We will bless candles this year during the 8:30 a.m. Mass on Saturday, February 2. All who are there will be invited to take a candle home to use during the year for special celebrations and feast days.

In this way,
We will keep the seasons of the year together in the Light of Christ,
a Light no darkness can overpower.

St. James Seniors Welcome You to Wipe Away Those Winter Blahs
February 21

Come join the St. James Seniors on this winter evening in Heller Hall (Door 13) from 5:30pm to 7:30pm as we watch the movie

“Tortilla Soup”

The movie, which will begin at 5:45pm, is sure to make you laugh and whet your appetite!

Tortilla Soup, Cornbread, and Dessert will be served. Since our theme is “Wipe Away Those Winter Blahs,” consider a snowflake inspired dessert to donate.

RSVP by February 19 to:
Mary Anne Stallings at 703-244-2610,
Cae Gilley at 703-533-3845, or
Susan Jackson at 703-533-3482

Rides are available upon request.
If school is closed for inclement weather,
this event will be cancelled.

Parish Communications Survey – Please Return by January 31

Hi, I'm Duane Hyland, the Director of Communications here at St. James. I am hoping you can take a few minutes, between today and January 31, to complete this survey and return it to the designated baskets in the Church, or visit: <https://bit.ly/2Q6KArR>. and fill it out online. Your answers will help us improve how we get news out to you. Thank you for your help!

1. The Church currently uses several communication platforms to get news out to the Parish community. Please circle the ones you find most useful to you.

Mass of Special Intentions – January 23

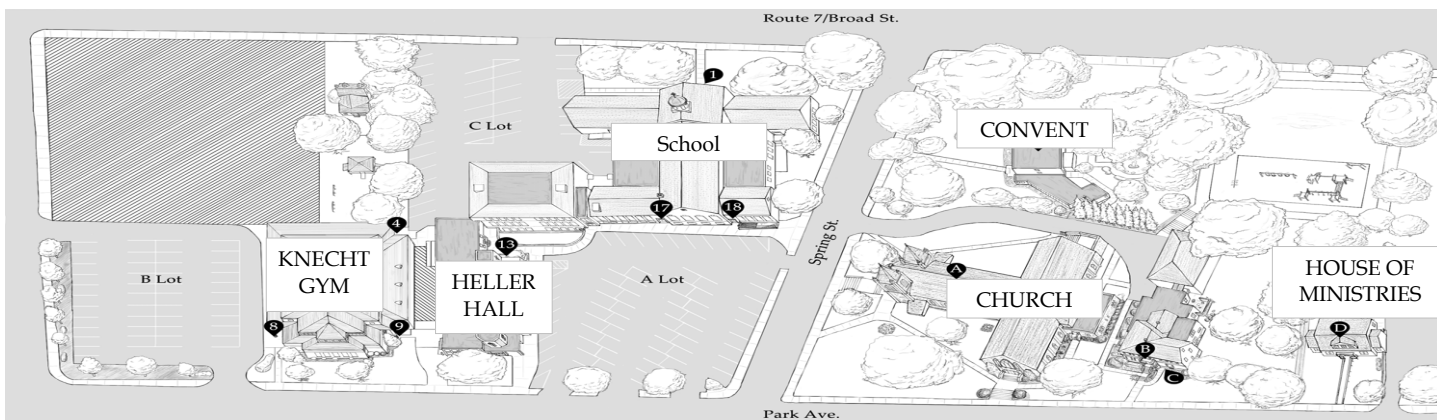

Make time to attend our monthly Mass of Special Intentions, held on the fourth Wednesday of each month at 6:30pm. Designed to meet the needs of our community, this Mass provides an opportunity to bring spiritual requests to our parish family. We support one another in prayer as well as fellowship. You can submit intentions via the boxes in the Church, by writing in the Book of Intentions in the vestibule, or by contacting the Rectory at 703-532-8815 or at rectory@stjamescatholic.org.

New Year Bringing New Parking Changes Around St. James

As many of you know, the City of Falls Church has approved construction of the Founders Row development, which will include 93,000 square feet of retail space and 400 apartments. Founders Row will occupy the entire space adjacent to the St. James Convent field and House of Ministries, bordered by Broad Street, West Street, and Park Avenue. Construction has begun and is expected to take three years to complete, bringing the local traffic disruptions one would expect from such a massive project. To encourage Founders Row customers to park in the development's parking garage, the City is implementing permanent parking restrictions on Park Avenue between West Street and Spring Street. The Church side of Park Avenue will be restricted to two-hour parking; the residential side of Park Avenue will be limited to resident-only parking. If you have been parking on the residential side of Park Avenue to attend Mass and other events at St. James, now is a good time to change your parking habits. To avoid the expected construction-related traffic disruptions and the new parking restrictions, remember that you may park in any of our parking lots: at Park & Spring Streets (A Lot); at Park & Oak Streets (B Lot); and in the Teacher's Lot (C Lot) off of Broad Street. All three lots are a city block or more away from the construction site.

Car Raffle Tickets are Coming Soon – Check the Bulletin on January 27 for All the Details!
