From Our Pastor

*Just to know You and to make You known
We lift Your name on High
Shine like the sun made darkness run and hide
We know we were made for so much more
Than ordinary lives
It's time for us to more than just survive
We were made to thrive
"Thrive" by Casting Crowns*

Today we officially celebrate the Feast of the Ascension, which was actually was last Thursday. It can get confusing with movable feasts, but here we are!

Once again, we are with the disciples as Jesus continues his preparing them for his physical departure from our world. Though they had been with him for years, seen him suffer, die, and rise, they still don't get the totality of his message. Here they ask, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?" It's almost like a car ride with young children: "[A]re we there yet? Now? In 10 minutes?"

They want so much to see the proof that all Christ had sacrificed, all they had sacrificed, was coming to fruition. Jesus replies that it's not up to them to know or to decide when God's plan is accomplished. I can almost hear my own father in the front seat of our family car, saying, "you'll know when we get there."

The evangelist Luke, in both Acts and his gospel, says that Jesus told the disciples to stay where they were until they received the Holy Spirit. Anxious though they were to move on, they were not yet fully equipped to do the job. We can all relate to those feelings. Any graduate, new employee, or inductee into the armed services will tell you the same thing.

Be patient, we tell them. There is much to learn. Be patient God tells US; there is much to learn. We are made for more, as the song mentioned above says. God created us to "make him known." We do this by our actions and our deeds. Now, as young men and women begin new chapters in their lives, it is time for them to experience their own Ascension. Parents, teachers, and mentors may not always be with us. But their lessons remain. Christ remains. The Holy Spirit remains, empowering us to make a difference.

To those who are making the leap from one school to another or from one life event to another, God does not send you forward alone. You may wonder where He is at times, but He is there walking beside you. I wish for you, and especially our 8th-grade graduates, that you know your worth as a child of God and that you recognize that worth in others. I pray you that what you plant in God's garden grows. I pray that in your garden, you truly thrive. God bless

Win the World for Jesus! Vacation Bible School, July 15 – 19, at St. James.

Are you ready to Win the World for Jesus? Kids become missionaries in the Church today as they learn the virtue of zeal for souls. (Zeal for Souls is a song they will not forget either!) Each day, the kids go on an expedition with one of the saints who brought the love of Jesus and the Church to the New World. They will travel North and South America, become a pioneer of the US, travel the seas of the South Pacific and explore Mexico. Participants will visit each new land with a famous saint! The kids will also help with a global medical mission; helping doctors go to places around the world. Let's go exploring!

Registration Forms are now available at the entrances of the church. Please contact Sister Regina Rosarii McLallen, IHM, Director of Religious Education at dre@stjameschool.org with any questions.
